Cut Flowers Tomorrow Southworth Co.

A Reno automobile party composed of Roy Pike, Nick Lusch, Don Frazer, Harry Brown and Joe Mawr had a narrow escape from lightning Wednesday night when the storm broke. They drove for a group of trees to get out of the rain, and just as they reached the trees a bolt of lightning struck the trunk of one of the trees and sold it to the roots. It all happened within a few feet of the travelers, and threw quite a scare into them.
