F. O. BROHL, engineer of the Nevada public service commission, came in from Reno today for the purpose of investigating water rates.

JOHN MCGEE, manager of the Water Company of Tonopah, arrived today from the coast.

THOMAS A. FRAZIER, auditor of the Tonopah Mining company, returned today from attending a session of the Nevada public service commission, where the company's electric service was under advisement.

DR. E. S. GRIGSBY was among the arrivals this morning from the coast.

M. J. McVEIGH, president of the Arrowhead Extension Mining company, left for camp today, accompanied by W. J. McDonald, postmaster at Arrowhead, who took out a load of mail that had accumulated here during the stormy weather.

R. M. BATEMAN, deputy assessor, returned last evening from the southern end of the county where he completed assessing the lower part of the county, which he declares is more prosperous than for ten years.

E. J. POHE, Nevada tax commissioner, arrived today on one of his periodical visits.

MRS. F. E. CRANSTON, the practical nurse who left here eight months ago to cooperate with her son on the coast, returned today fully recovered, she spent some time at San Francisco and Los Angeles.

HENRY E. J. SOMERS, who was called to Reno by legal business, will return Monday morning.

MRS. LAWRENCE DOLAN, who came up from San Francisco to attend the funeral of her father, returned home by this morning's train.

W. A. CHRISTENSEN with his wife and family, returned to Los Angeles today.

LOUISIANA CON. QUOTED TODAY FROM NEW YORK
 Louisiana Consolidated, operating at Tyho, was quoted in New York programs received here this morning at 44, compared with 49.942 at the beginning of the week. The improvement is due to the proximity of the date for opening the new smelting plant which will probably be blown in by the first of April.

PRIZE STORY CONTEST HERE

Miss Letitia Sawle and Miss Irene Mitchell were chosen last evening as the Tonopah candidates for the short story contest. The awards were made at an open session of the pupils held in the gymnasium under the direction of Miss Ruth Murray in the absence of Mr. DeWorth, who is suffering from a severe cold. An interesting program interspersed the readings and the announcement of the winners was received with great applause. The evening opened with explanatory remarks by Miss Murray followed by music furnished by Murdock and Gwendolyn McLeod; reading by Florence Truscott; reading by Velma Boyer; also, William Mead; reading, Letitia Sawle; reading, Irene Mitchell; duet, Earlene Rodgers and Celeste Osborne; reading, Chris. Sherrin.

According to the rules of the contest the stories must be between 2,000 and 8,000 words. The contest is known as the Robert McCutcheon Brown Memorial, which is open to all public school pupils throughout the state, the best stories from each district being entered in the state contest where the final award will be made.

Miss Sawle chose the title of "The Lone Star" for a very catchy description of life on the desert, replete with color and brimful of local atmosphere in which prospectors a

CHURCHES

St. Patrick's Church.—Masses tomorrow at 8 and 10 o'clock. Sunday school after first mass. Palm will be distributed before second mass. Confirmation classes during the week after public school hours. Lenten services Wednesday and Friday evening. Evening devotions at 7:30. Edward Noonan, pastor.

The Christian Science Society.—Church at the corner of Florence and Cross avenues. Services at 11 a. m. and 7:30 p. m. Sunday school at 9:45 a. m. Wednesday evening testimonial meetings at 7:30. Sunday subject, "Reality." Services at 7:30 p. m.

Pure Indian and cattle rustlers play a prominent part. The writer had for subject well in hand and succeeded in holding her very interesting narrative in 2,500 words.

Miss Irene Mitchell indulged in a more ambitious effort, beginning with the impressions of a night at the opera in New York where a desert dweller had found his way, and in so doing had discovered an old flame from the sanatorium playing the stellar role. The young authoress indulged freely in descriptive beauty, picturing the desert in its hottest and wildest moods and showing a knowledge of the great white way with a word painting of the opera house interior. The title was "Sunset Land" and the story as a whole was an excellent impressionist romance.

AMUSEMENTS

MABLE NORMAND AND FATTY ARBUCKLE

Whoopee! "Pinto," the flashing, dashing western whirlwind, is coming. Who is she? Why she's the rollicking, frolicking two-gun girl from Cactus Town who rough-rides into high society. Fun and speed Watch her—Mable Normand—stage a wild west show that sends a shiver up the powdered spines of the social buzzards. Just pipe the way she ropes herself a classy social home. Say, you'll just laugh yourself into hysterics. Can you imagine Mable Normand as "Pinto"? Don't imagine it or you will miss something. Rollicking, frolicking Mable Normand gives gloom another wrinkle. You thought she was a scream in "Upstairs" and in "Jinx" but wait until you see this hurricane of hilarity, "Pinto." It is the funniest, friskiest debut that ever "came out" for she "debuted" to the tune of a smoking 45 and a twirling lariat. See this rip snorting picture. And just think, here on the same day another star look who it is—Fatty Arbuckle, oh yes, he is there and over in this funny picture, "Back Stage." Talk about fun—you will sure have it tonight. Fatty Arbuckle will break the ice and then Mable will do the rest. So if you really want to see good amusements be at the popular little play house today. Tomorrow we have with us Wallace Reid in "The Valley of the Giants."

NOTICE TO JURORS.
