AMUSEMENTS

MASTER PRODUCTION AT BUTLER THEATRE TODAY

Geraldine Farrar's Goldwyn picture, "The World and Its Women," to be presented at the Butler theatre today, is the biggest production in point of setting, story and emotional content in which she has as yet appeared. For the picturization of this tremendous story, Goldwyn has surrounded Miss Farrar with as fine a cast as it was possible to obtain. Her husband, Lon Tellegan, plays the leading male role.

The story deals with the rise of an American girl in Russia from a position of obscurity as the daughter of an American engineer, to the enviable role of the greatest prima donna of the Petrograd Opera. During her rise, which is consummated just before the revolution which overthrew the Russian dynasty of the Romanoffs, the customs of the aristocracy, their mores and pleasure-seeking lives, their intrigues and their sports are all set forth in dramatic form. Later, when the czar is deposed, the city of Petrograd is seen in the throes of revolution, and the famous prima donna has turned her energies from entertaining the aristocracy to caring for poor children.

One of the most effective scenes presents Geraldine Farrar singing the exquisite "Mirror Song" in Thine.

E. A. CLARK, JR., son of E. A. Clark, one of the leading investment bankers of Boston, arrived this morning from the Mother Lode to look over the various mining properties in which his father is one of the chief stockholders. The visitor is training for the engineering branch of the mining game, and during his stay here will be the guest of Harry C. Studer. He went out to the Silver Hills property today.

An Unusually Desirable Automobile Agency is Open to the Right Man or Men in Tonopah

It is one of those opportunities which comes but rarely. The car is a medium priced, high quality, nationally advertised product. It has been on the market in the east for nine years, and has achieved very pronounced success. It is only now being introduced to the Pacific Coast.

It is an automobile worthy to command the best of representation in each community. The cars are on the coast NOW, so action can start at once.

We have been commissioned to prepare and place an extensive Pacific Coast advertising campaign for this car, but preliminary to that we want to pick the liveliest and most desirable distributor in each community.

If we were to publish the name of the car, we'd probably be flooded with requests for the agency. But every distributor is going to be hand-picked.

If you are interested in negotiating with the principals write or wire fully about yourself, your responsibility, and what you have to offer.
