AMUSEMENTS

GEORGE WALSH AT THE BUTLER TODAY

"A Manhattan Knight," founded on the novel, "Find the Woman," from the fluent pen of Gelet Burgess, will be shown at the Butler today.

The star of this fast-moving story of New York life is George Walsh, the smiling athlete who is rapidly winning the millions of motion picture fans throughout the country.

In "A Manhattan Knight" the two-fisted star is given unusual opportunity to shine. There are several thrilling fights in the production, which have been carefully staged by George Beranger, formerly associated with David Wark Griffith.

Mr. Walsh, as the hero of the story, is at all times convincing, and his performance is one of the best he has given in his successful career.

Virginia Hammond, his attractive leading lady, has a role that suits her admirably, and Louis R. Wolheim as the heavy does some exceedingly clever work. Added to the feature will be a two-reel Sunshine comedy, "Chase Me."

Tomorrow, Frank Keenan in "Dollar for Dollar" and Friday, "Shipwrecked Among Cannibals." Come soon. "On With the Dance."

Election returns by leased wire at the Airdome, Tuesday evening, Nov. 2. Also big jitney dance. Adv-O26-7t.
