

METAL QUOTATIONS
SILVER, U. S.99 1/2
LONDON SILVER82
COPPER14 1/4
LEAD6.00 1/2

ENTIRE WORLD CELEBRATES ARMISTICE TODAY

NAVY AWARDS
TWO THOUSAND HONOR MEDALS

Officers and Men Are Given Decorations for Distinguished Service

(By Associated Press) WASHINGTON, D. C., Nov. 11.—The second anniversary of the armistice was observed today by the distribution of 2000 medals and letters of commendation for valorous or distinguished duty during the war. These will be presented throughout the world with appropriate ceremonies on a signal by radio and telegraph from Secretary of the Navy Daniels' office.

MISSING GIRL NOT YET FOUND

The disappearance of Amelia Holm a new regarded by police officers and sheriffs in the different counties of northern Nevada and Utah as a mystery that they are determined to solve. The father of the missing girl, Joseph Holm of Salt Lake City, has been over the ground near Kamsi and has personally given his assistance in the search, but so far without avail.

CONSULS TALK
TRADE MATTERS

(By Associated Press) SAN FRANCISCO, Cal., Nov. 11.—A little "Pan-American Union" of their own is boasted by the Latin-American consular corps in San Francisco, whose members have instituted a weekly round-table luncheon at one of the leading clubs. There trade possibilities for Mexico, Central America and South America are discussed. The club has done its part to foster the arrangements by making the consuls honorary members and remitting the usual sizable initiation fee.

Tax Delinquency Date
Will Not Be Extended

The Nevada tax commission will this year refuse to extend the date of delinquency beyond the first Monday in December, and notices to that effect are being forwarded to the treasurers of all counties of the state.

THE WEATHER
Local Observer, United States
Weather Bureau:
Temperatures 4 a. m. Noon
Current 34 45
Wet bulb 30 38
Relative humidity 58 40
Temperatures Extreme
1920 1919
Maximum yesterday 45 53
Minimum yesterday 27 32

ARMENIANS AND TURKS SIGN TRUCE

(By Associated Press) LONDON, Nov. 11.—An armistice has been signed by the Armenians and the Turkish nationalists. The Turks obtain possession of Alexandropol and surroundings during the peace negotiations, and guarantee order.

NAMELESS HERO IS GIVEN HIGH
BRITISH HONOR

Westminster Abbey Last Resting Place of Unknown English Warrior

(By Associated Press) LONDON, Nov. 11.—Britain impressively honored her war heroes by according a field marshal's funeral to an unknown British warrior, the burial taking place in Westminster Abbey, and the unveiling of a permanent cenotaph in Whitehall to the glorious dead.

PAT MOONEY NEW DEPUTY TREASURER

Pat Mooney, one of the old-time Democrats of this city, has been appointed as deputy treasurer to fill the vacancy caused by the resignation of Mrs. Lida Gilbert, who was elected as auditor and recorder at the recent election, and has entered upon his duties. Mr. Mooney has a wide acquaintance in this city, and will no doubt fill the position in a satisfactory manner.

NEW YORK MEN OPTION
WEST ARROWHEAD MINE

A deal of considerable importance to the mining industry of this section was completed last night when A. B. Call, representing New York capital, took an option on the controlling interest in the West Arrowhead property. This property consists of two claims adjoining the Arrowhead Mining company's property, and has been held by local people heretofore.

WAR WITH JAPAN
CALLED CERTAIN

(By Associated Press) ST. LOUIS, Nov. 11.—Congressman Dyer asserted today that war between the United States and Japan is almost certain unless America builds a navy surpassed by none.

VETERANS REFUSE TO PASS MAYOR

(By Associated Press) PITTSBURGH, Nov. 11.—Protesting against the presence of Mayor Babcock in the reviewing stand because the city recently issued a permit for a pro-German tag day, overseas veterans in the Armistice day parade detoured two blocks.

UNKNOWN POILU BURIED UNDER ARC TRIOMPHE

Common Soldier Is Honored by France Service During German Conflict

(By Associated Press) PARIS, Nov. 11.—France honored her sons who fell in the great war by burying unknown poilu beneath the Arc de Triomphe, President Millerand and marshals attending.

2 YEARS SINCE
WAR WAS ENDED

Although no formal celebration of Armistice day is being held in Tonopah today, the fact that it is remembered by many of the people is evidenced by the number of flags which are being displayed upon business houses and private residences, in many other cities of the state and nation programs of various sorts are being held and the stores and other business places are closed.

WINNEMUCCA PIONEER DEAD

Edward Choate, a Winnemucca mining pioneer of 1872, died there a few days ago from an illness that began in July. He was a native of Tennessee.

HARDING SPEAKS IN TEXAS TODAY

(By Associated Press) BROWNSVILLE, Texas, Nov. 11.—Harding's speech today to Americans and Mexicans will be commemorative of the signing of the armistice. He is also expected to give an informal assurance of good fellowship toward Mexico.

REPRISALS IN U. S. THREATENED

(By Associated Press) WASHINGTON, D. C., Nov. 11.—The British embassy to the state department a copy of a message received in London signed "J. V. O'Connor," threatening reprisals to Englishmen in America if the "reprisals in Ireland after November 11 are continued." It is understood the state department will investigate.

GOLDFIELD PEOPLE
MARRIED TUESDAY

Mrs. Hazel Snyder and William T. Cunningham, both well known here for many years, were married quietly at 9 o'clock Tuesday night by Adama F. Brown Justice of the peace, at the residence of the justice. The best man was William C. Cottrell and the bride was attended by Mrs. Lavinia E. Woodward, a sister of the groom. The bride returned last night from a trip through the northwest. The newlyweds plan to make their home in Goldfield.—Tribune.

HIGHWAY MAY GET
BIG APPROPRIATION

DENVER, Colo., Nov. 11.—Stephen Mather director of national parks, told the convention of the Park-to-Park Highway association he believed the hundred million dollar appropriation by congress for the highway was assured.

WILL DETERMINE POWER OF STATES

(By Associated Press) WASHINGTON, D. C., Nov. 11.—State railways and utilities commissioners, in annual convention here, have presented a resolution to the Interstate commerce commission for a conference to define the authority of the state federal commissions under the transportation act, for the purpose of promoting co-operation.

CROWD THRASHES
FEMININE 'REDS'

(By Associated Press) LONDON, Nov. 11.—Girl employees in Sylvia Pankhurst's communist paper, the Workers' Dreadnought, were thrashed, and the offices were pused today by a crowd, angered because the women sang, danced and banged cans during the sullen silence imposed in observance of Armistice day. Women did the beating. The girls said the noise was unintentional.

CITY OFFICIALS
HOLD MEETINGS

(By Associated Press) CHICO, Cal., Nov. 11.—The convention of the League of California Municipalities concluded its sessions with the symposium of the metropolitan utility districts by city attorneys of Oakland, Alameda, Richmond and Berkeley.

PIEZ DEFENDS
SHIPPING BOARD

(By Associated Press) CHICAGO, Nov. 11.—Charles Piez, former director of the emergency fleet corporation, criticized the house committee which is investigating the shipping board, saying it is seeking a sensation and has failed to make good its charges.

WEST VIRGINIA
TRESTLE BLOWN UP

(By Associated Press) WILLIAMSON, W. Va., Nov. 11.—The Norfolk & Western railroad trestle at Thacker and the Drumhouse Coal company at Ajax have been dynamited. The state police and bloodhounds have been sent to the scene of the explosions.

CONTROL OF STATE OVER
COMMERCE QUESTIONED

CARSON, Nov. 11.—Whether the state of Nevada may exercise constitutional control over its own commerce through the medium of the legislature, public service commission, or whether direct state authority covering rates and regulations for public utilities shall be superseded by interstate commerce commission orders will be determined through the filing of a complaint with the federal commission against the Nevada commission's order denying increased rates to carriers.

GOLDFIELD PEOPLE
MARRIED TUESDAY

Mrs. Hazel Snyder and William T. Cunningham, both well known here for many years, were married quietly at 9 o'clock Tuesday night by Adama F. Brown Justice of the peace, at the residence of the justice. The best man was William C. Cottrell and the bride was attended by Mrs. Lavinia E. Woodward, a sister of the groom. The bride returned last night from a trip through the northwest. The newlyweds plan to make their home in Goldfield.—Tribune.

HIGHWAY MAY GET
BIG APPROPRIATION

DENVER, Colo., Nov. 11.—Stephen Mather director of national parks, told the convention of the Park-to-Park Highway association he believed the hundred million dollar appropriation by congress for the highway was assured.

British, French and Americans
Pay Tribute to Those Who Made
Supreme Sacrifice in World War

(By Associated Press) London and Paris, in impressive ceremonies, paid the British and French people's tribute to the heroic dead of the tragic struggle. An unknown British soldier was buried in Westminster Abbey, witnessed by the king, governmental chiefs and relatives of missing soldiers.

PAPER BLAMES LABORING MEN FOR BOMB PLOT

(By Associated Press) NEW YORK, Nov. 11.—The Evening World publishes today, "Wall Street explosion solved," giving the result of an independent investigation of the loss of two score lives. It says the explosion was a result of a plot by labor men or sympathizers for revenge against Robert P. Brindell, president of the Building Trades council. Contractors had hired Brindell workers to demolish the Stock Exchange building annex.

PIEZ DEFENDS
SHIPPING BOARD

(By Associated Press) CHICAGO, Nov. 11.—Charles Piez, former director of the emergency fleet corporation, criticized the house committee which is investigating the shipping board, saying it is seeking a sensation and has failed to make good its charges.

WEST VIRGINIA
TRESTLE BLOWN UP

(By Associated Press) WILLIAMSON, W. Va., Nov. 11.—The Norfolk & Western railroad trestle at Thacker and the Drumhouse Coal company at Ajax have been dynamited. The state police and bloodhounds have been sent to the scene of the explosions.

CONTROL OF STATE OVER
COMMERCE QUESTIONED

CARSON, Nov. 11.—Whether the state of Nevada may exercise constitutional control over its own commerce through the medium of the legislature, public service commission, or whether direct state authority covering rates and regulations for public utilities shall be superseded by interstate commerce commission orders will be determined through the filing of a complaint with the federal commission against the Nevada commission's order denying increased rates to carriers.

GOLDFIELD PEOPLE
MARRIED TUESDAY

Mrs. Hazel Snyder and William T. Cunningham, both well known here for many years, were married quietly at 9 o'clock Tuesday night by Adama F. Brown Justice of the peace, at the residence of the justice. The best man was William C. Cottrell and the bride was attended by Mrs. Lavinia E. Woodward, a sister of the groom. The bride returned last night from a trip through the northwest. The newlyweds plan to make their home in Goldfield.—Tribune.

HIGHWAY MAY GET
BIG APPROPRIATION

DENVER, Colo., Nov. 11.—Stephen Mather director of national parks, told the convention of the Park-to-Park Highway association he believed the hundred million dollar appropriation by congress for the highway was assured.

FIGHT REPORTED IN NORTH CHINA

(By Associated Press) PEKING, Nov. 11.—Chinese troops have been engaged in skirmishes with forces of Russians, Mongols and Japanese near Urgan, northern Mongolia. Reinforced Chinese drove back the enemy on November 9.

DUDLEY CASE ON TRIAL TOMORROW

The case of A. N. Dudley, local second hand dealer, who is charged with receiving stolen goods, will be called for trial before Justice of the Peace Harry B. Grier tomorrow afternoon.

AMUNDSEN WIRES
'ALL IS WELL'

(By Associated Press) COPENHAGEN, Nov. 11.—Captain Roald Amundsen, the Arctic explorer, has sent a message from East Cape, Siberia, under date of August 13, as follows:

CONDEMNNS "RAKE-OFF"

It was brought out at the meeting of the city council Saturday night that the practice of taking a "rake-off" by the haulers of this city was again being indulged in the same manner claiming that under the statutes they had a right to make off a percentage sufficient to pay all running expenses. The council officers informed the council that they would do nothing until a decision was rendered by the attorney general, who had been appointed by the legal advisor of the city.—Elko Free Press.

BUTLER THEATRE
—TODAY—

EUGENE O'BRIEN —IN—
"THE WONDERFUL CHANCE"
A crook story with a flavor of love and romance
A master criminal who wanted to be a master gentleman
AND LATEST PATHE NEWS
—TOMORROW—
ALICE BRADY in
"THE DARK LANTERN"
—MONDAY—
GEORGE CARPENTIER
French champion, in a 4-round feature