Holiday Times Are Approaching Rapidly.

It is a good idea to buy your gifts early. We make this suggestion because this month will be a busy month for you and you will no doubt appreciate our suggestion to buy your jewelry, silver-ware and cut glass gifts, now, while you have the time and our stock is complete. A small deposit will reserve any article until wanted.

PERSONAL

FRANK MILLS went out this morning as a special guard with the bullion shipments to Reno, where he will turn them over to the regular messenger of the American Express company.

JOE McEACHEN, the hardware salesman, who spent yesterday in this city on business matters, returned to his home in Reno this morning.

L. W. CHAPMAN of San Francisco was an arrival in this city yesterday on business matters.

R. A. BRUCE of Oakland, is a business visitor in Tonopah today.

COLONEL W. J. H. HOLMES and MISS NAOMI HOLMES, of Victoria, B. C. are among the guests registered at the Mizpah hotel today.

L. F. CLAR, the civil engineer, was in Tonopah today from his home in Manhattan.

ANDY McCORMICK, of Bonanza, is spending a few days in Tonopah attending to matters of business.

WANT AD PRICES ARE CUT DOWN

The Bonanza, beginning with this issue, is making a special reduced rate on Classified Ads. These little business-getters are so efficient and the rates which are offered are so low that anyone who has anything to sell or rent, or who has lost any article, can afford to advertise in The Bonanza.

Bonanza want ads in the past have been very efficient in accomplishing their purpose, and the management believes that by making them a special department of the paper, this efficiency can be increased. The want ad column appears on page three, and the new rates are given under the want ad heading.

AMUSEMENTS

ETHEL CLAYTON AT THE BUTLER TODAY

Ethel Clayton's latest photoplay, "Crooked Streets," will be the attraction at the Butler today. It is an adventure romance of China and was adapted from an original story by Samuel Mervin. Miss Clayton has the role of Gail Ellis, who, answering an advertisement, becomes secretary to an antiquarian on a trip to China in search of rare vases. In Shanghai, Gail becomes suspicious that her employer's errand is not an honest one. Venturing alone into the native section of the city, she is involved in a brawl between some Chinamen and roistering French sailors on leave.

An Irish adventurer named O'Dare rescues her with difficulty, but the adventure is not half so startling as the one which follows, but you will have to see it to appreciate it. Added to the feature will be a Ford Weekly and a Pathe Review Tomorrow. Pearl White, in her first big feature under the Fox banner, "The Tiger's Cub," a drama of strife, love and adventure in the Alaskan snows.

Do not miss Annette Kellermann in "The Art of Diving," in slow motion pictures, Thursday.

A CORRECTION
Through an error in proofreading yesterday in The Bonanza, the statement "25,000 acres" appeared in place of the figures and words, "25,000,000 acres," referring to the number of acres of irrigable land in the state. This appeared in the report of the speech made by Hugh Henry Brown at the reception given in honor of Congressman-elect Samuel S. Arentz at Yerington Saturday night. The Bonanza is glad to make this correction for the sake of accuracy.

COMMISSIONERS MEET
The county commissioners met this morning as a town board passing on and allowing the regular monthly bills. This afternoon they are making their regular inspection of the county jail and county hospital.

GIRLS HELD ON LARCENY CHARGE

Pearl Weller and Laura Swank, two women of the restricted district, were arrested this morning on the charge of grand larceny preferred by Matt Blumford, a Finn. The complaint alleges that the girls stole $119 from Blumford in the restricted district last Sunday night.

The girls were arrested this morning and will be given a preliminary hearing before Justice of the Peace Harry R. Grier tomorrow afternoon.
