

Just a Line or Two With You
By C. L. B.

It is said that a lady in Carson City has had her for the past two nights.

THE ANSWER
Oh why should the spirit of mortal be proud?
It usually ain't, for he's generally cowed.

Today he is here and tomorrow he's gone,
And the ring he performed in is silent and lone.

He is bullied by bosses and held up by bunns,
He merely counts one when the chieftains come.

Quite often he's married, and much of his life
He's bespeckled and squelched by a termagant wife.

He thought it all over, I give it up,
So power by saying, "I'm darned if I know."

—Tennyson J. Daft.

A Wichita reporter claims the discovery of a sure way to tell a woman's age. In rippling weather, if she is under 25, her cheeks go red; if she is over 25, it's her nose.

Germany will not be allowed to use monies any more. Evidently they do not desire a monopoly of government.

We haven't much to do, but still we haven't time to stop and read a magazine article on the quarrel between John Quincy Adams and Andrew Jackson.

Thirty-five Pearls Found in a Single Oyster.—Headline! The married ones probably can't afford them.

The tracks the men make going home at 1 a. m. in the newly fallen snow are much straighter than they used to be.

There are plenty of ways to be unpopular, but none beats making a statement in behalf of the "blue laws."

"Bankers Sure of Future."—Headline! Yes, there's going to be one, all right!

The Republicans do not want to have an elaborate inauguration. The Democrats would just as soon have one at all.

The weary traveler and his wife arrived at the country inn after a long and tiresome tramp through the country. The husband went to the kitchen and asked him what would give them to eat.

"I am very sorry," replied the keeper, "but I have but one meal left."

"Only one?" exclaimed the man. "In that case what can my wife eat?"

LUXURY LAVISHED ON MAN O' WAR

(By Associated Press)
LEXINGTON, Ky., Feb. 3.—Every luxury lavished on royalty is to be the portion of Man o' War, world champion thoroughbred, at Hinata farm near here, where he has just been retired to the stud.

A private groom, private feed table, a private pasture, where he is allowed to run loose, these are some of the things that are being provided by his owner, Samuel D. Rudolph of Philadelphia, and Miss Elizabeth Daingerfield, noted woman breeder of thoroughbreds, under whose care he has been placed.

Animals such as Man o' War are not allowed to do the many things that plebeian brothers and sisters do that might expose them to danger. When the famous racer left the farm at Berlin, Maryland, where he was stabled after his return from his triumph over Sir Barton at Washington, he was placed in a padded automobile van and hauled to the Lexington. On his arrival in Lexington he was unloaded into another van and taken to the Kentucky Jockey club race track for exhibition to admiring thousands of Kentuckians.

When he was taken from the track to Hinata farm, a distance of six miles, he was again placed in a van and hauled over the smooth highway to the farm. There he was unloaded and placed in a stall specially prepared for him, with the exception of all his travels, Major Treat, the old steepchase racer, on one side, and Golden Broom, Mrs. Walter M. Jefford's four-year-old colt, on the other. For Man o' War loves equine company and he is to be kept satisfied by having his share with him as well as another high-bred animal.

THE TURKISH TREATY GREAT TRAVESTY

(By Associated Press)
MADRAPE, India, Feb. 3.—The Turkish peace treaty was characterized as "the greatest travesty of justice, a monument of hypocrisy and the blackest breach of solemn pledges," by Dr. Ansar in his address as president at the annual session of the All-India Moslem League here. He demanded its revision which, he declared, there seemed little doubt was being seriously considered by the allies.

The speaker denounced "the horrors of the Punjab reign of terror," and supported the non-co-operation movement in progress among the natives as a protest against British rule.

"There is a divine injunction to Mussulmen to practice non-co operation against the opponents of Islam," said Dr. Ansar. "There appears to be a deadlock between the bureaucracy and the people of India which is entirely because India has awakened to a keen sense of self-respect and is determined no longer to submit to a secondary position, whereas the bureaucracy is still thinking in obsolete terms of government with the mailed fist."

"In order to win the co-operation of the people of India our alien friends must first of all disabuse their minds of the idea of race supremacy and do ample penance for past wrongs."
