HIKERS TO GOLDFIELD ARRIVE ARM-IN-ARM

The walking contest Saturday night between Colonel Jules Smith, Commodore Phoebe and General I. Tassent was carried out as per program. The trio left the Butler theatre at 10:20 p. m. and reached the Goldfield hotel at 6:15 Sunday morning. They crossed the line arm-in-arm, a tie race. All three were very tired and are not talking about a return match. They claim they enjoyed the hike and found the breakfast awaiting them very toothsome.

When dollars get back to 100 cents a lot of persons will wish they had saved some.

Plenty to eat. Plenty to drink. Plenty of music. Plenty of dancing. Plenty of good will—at the big Barbecue at Fish Lake Sunday next. Come and join us and have a good time. M23-11.

AMUSEMENTS

THE GREAT NAZIMOVA AT THE BUTLER TODAY

The great Nazimova in "Billions," her newest photoplay, will be the big feature attraction at the Butler today.

As its title implies, "Billions" has to do with wealthy people. It relates the story of a Russian princess who comes into riches and of a poet who also inherits a fortune. They have loved as the result of his verses, but have never met until they both journey to a fashionable winter resort in California and are introduced. Meanwhile frauds are endeavoring to blackmail the poet-millionaire, and he is saved from a scandal when the princess, at the risk of her own reputation, gets into his bed in negligence to thwart the designs of the other woman. Many exhilarating scenes are shown in "Billions." It is an adaptation of a famous French stage success. Charles Bryant wrote the scenario and also plays the leading male role opposite Nazimova.

Tomorrow and Wednesday, the film creation that broke all New York attendance records, "Passion."
