MINERAL FIND REPORTED FROM RESERVATION

RENO, April 1.—The discovery of promising gold lode is announced by the owners of the Golden Crescent group of four claims in the Reservation district, three miles west of Reservation station, on the Mina branch of the Southern Pacific railroad, and about 18 miles east of Yerington. Shoots of high grade ore and large ledges of milling quartz have been exposed in a huge porphyritic dyke which lies between walls of altered granite and lime. One shoot three inches wide at the surface has increased to a width of more than 30 inches at a depth of 30 feet with the ore assaying $32 to $530 from surface to shaft bottom.

Another 12-inch shoot at surface samples $150, with a drill hole 12 inches from surface penetrating the shoot for a width of more than 18 inches with assays running from $161 to $425. Numerous panings along the dyke, which is capped by an average of 18 inches of lime, shows ore estimated to range from $300 to $700 a ton. An assay taken across a 14-foot ledge averaged $6.50, and another five-foot width sampled $7.25.

The dyke has an average width of fully 200 feet and has been traced for about a mile, traversing the Half Moon and No. 2 claims of the Golden Crescent, the adjoining No. 1 claim of the Money-Maker group, and continuing into the Paeksaiddie property. It has been exposed for a width approximating 130 feet near the center of the Half Moon claim, and the gold bearing area demonstrated for an approximate length of 1500 feet. The owners are engaged in removing the capping at this point, preliminary to comprehensive development and opening of areas to leasers. The Golden Crescent and Money Maker properties are controlled by W. F. Casson and associates of Carson City.

Mining men who have examined the property pronounce the discovery of importance to Nevada. The district is five hours by rail from Reno and about six hours by rail from Tonopah. The strike has stirred much interest and a stampede to the field is forecasted.

He Was the "Goat."

One day last spring I attended a circus, and while looking for my seat prior to the start of the show, I chanced to walk through the arena. A young "blonde" lady came to me and asked me where the animals were on exhibition. As I pointed the correct directions she fell in a faint, right into my arms. I was badly confused and started to carry her to one of the platforms in the center of the immense coliseum. Then I heard roars of loud laughter. I dropped her and started to fan her with my hat, when, with all eyes on me, I realized that the young "lady" was a clown who had been amusing the audience before the start of the regular show and I was the "goat."—Exchange.

Horseshoe From the Prince.

Before embarking for India the prince of Wales visited the castle of Ockham in Rutland, says an English exchange. And following an old tradition he had to pay the tithes. This tradition, over 300 years old, is one of the most curious. It imposes upon the visitor of note—for whom alone the gates are opened—the obligation to offer a horseshoe. The prince of Wales did not ignore this custom. His horseshoe was placed above the first that figured in the collection, and which was received from the hands of Queen Elizabeth.

Artists in Jap Cabinet.

Japanese cabinet members are artists and their paintings and writings brought good prices at a recent auction by the Tokyo Fine Arts club. The late Premier Hara painted three pictures which sold for $700, and another group of four brought approximately $800. Mr. Noda, minister of communications, painted a chrysanthemum and an orchid, while Mr. Toko naml, the home minister wrote a poem.—Dearborn Independent.

She Got Them.

Patience—Wonder if Peggy is out yet?
Patrice—Why, yes! Has she been sick?
Patience—No, but she said she couldn't go out until she got her new shoes.
Patrice—Well, I saw her limp by today.

Had Figured It Out.

The Lawyer—You're asking pretty stiff alimony merely because your husband neglected you for his business. Think he can dig it up?
The Client—Of course he can. By attending to business he's made money and by neglecting me he's saved it.

PLAIDS AND FRINGES

Fashion still puts striped materials in the lead for sports skirts, but they have some competition in plaid and checked patterns in all skirt materials. Checks with fringed edges, are reminiscent of shawls and they make many of the smart new models in which the fringe is substituted for a hem at the bottom of the skirt and also finishes the patch pockets. A skirt of this kind appears in the picture above, cut on simple lines and having a separate belt of the material. These fringed materials are particularly smart in the new wrapped skirts with the fringed edge arranged to run from belt to hem.

Sport skirts and street skirts are a little longer than they were, the regulation length being from six to eight inches from the floor. Plaid in a plain color, in stripes and plaids, is a rival for prairie and other cloths.

SHOWS ONE'S LOVE CAPACITY

"Telegraphone" May Be Used in the Future to Prevent Possibility of Unhappy Marriage.

One of the innumerable uses to which the "telegraphone," an invention announced by the Society of Electrical Development, may be placed is that of preventing unhappy marriages.

The inventor himself, name not disclosed, believes that if it can be adjusted over the heart of the girl, her doubt-torn swain will be able to tell whether she is telling the truth or not. He had not invented a way of making the girl put this lie detector on.

The "telegraphone" records the breathing and heart beats. It magnifies irregularities caused by emotion and is recognized by criminologists as a sure method of catching lying witnesses. The lover suggestion is put forward by the inventor merely as an example of what science could do if permitted.

"When John grows doubtful of the reality of Joan's love for him," he says in his dry, academic way, "he can satisfy himself by having her heart flutters measured."

If the girl puts up a struggle at a suggestion that she wear this harness during an evening of courtship John may be sure that he is going to get several hours of lies. In that case there is nothing to do but doubt every thing she says. Thus will unhappy marriages be prevented.

SUPERSTITION BABY'S TEETH NOW CRIMINAL

(By Associated Press)
LONDON, April 1.—Strange superstitions such as belief that the appearance of a baby's first teeth on the upper jaw was an ill-omen to the community and that it had, therefore, to be murdered, were described by Dr. M. Horn, councillor of state for Belgium, in an address here on "Belgian colonial administration in the Congo."

This practice, as well as others, like matrilian and cannibalism, is now punishable by law.

The law also interfered, he said, with native matrimonial customs. While a man may acquire a wife either by means of a dowry paid to her family, by inheritance, purchase, exchange or force of arms, no legal bond is deemed to exist between the alleged husband and the woman acquired without her consent. Acquisition by means of a dowry is recognized in principle, but the second, third, etc., wife will be permitted to desert her husband, the state being prepared to refund the dowry if no other man has been the cause of her desertion. No compensation will be paid when the husband has been warned in due time as to the precarious nature of his rights in regard to "his new better fraction."

Dr. Horn said a large proportion of the Congo population was pitifully uneducated and for this state of affairs European rule was partly responsible. Cannibalism has been suppressed.
