FOURTH JULY CELEBRATION PROGRESSING

Elaborate Entertainment of Patriotic Nature Will Be Announced Soon

Plans are progressing most satisfactorily concerning the program for the big Fourth of July celebration to be held in Tonopah, and within a few days announcement in detail concerning the festivities will be published.

At a meeting of the finance committee held last night at Elks hall, with Mack G. Bradshaw presiding, favorable reports were received and as a result it was decided to divide the committee into three teams who will make a canvass of the town with the object of securing sufficient funds with which to make the celebration a pronounced success.

The program as tentatively outlined will provide for a series of baseball games, rock drilling contests by hand, athletic contests and all manner of sports for the children, including plenty of ice cream and soda water. The children's program will be in charge of Mrs. John G. Kirchen, who will select her assistants.

The finance committee has been divided into teams, as follows: No. 1, R. B. Evans; No. 2, Nick Abelman; C. F. Wittenberg, Joe White; No. 3, P. T. Mooney, O. H. Smith, Warren Richardson.

There will be a meeting of the entertainment committee tomorrow night at 8 o'clock at the Elks club room.

SEAFARING GROWING GREAT POPULARITY

(By Associated Press) LONDON, May 31.—(By Mail.)—That seafaring is an expanding occupation is indicated by a story told of the recent departure for America of a great liner, equipped with everything from a swimming pool to palm gardens. The captain ascending the gangway met a venerable unknown man wearing the company's uniform and cap. The captain questioned the stranger as to whether he was a member of the ship's company, and received an affirmative answer. "What's your rating?" queried the captain. "Please, sir, I'm the ship's gardener," was the reply.

BIG PAYMENT MOHAWK GROUP IS RECORDED

Shirley and Edgar Receive Fifteen Thousand Dollars From Ecklund and Paget.

A cash payment of $15,000 was made today by Sir Ralph Paget and L. E. Ecklund, on behalf of the English company which holds a bond and lease on the Mohawk group of claims at Argentine, to Shirley and Edgar, discoverers of the property. The balance of the purchase price of $60,000, totaling $45,000, will be made one year from today. Included in the deal made by Shirley and Edgar were the two Success claims, owned by Robert Neal, who received his percentage of the payment, and who likewise will receive his percentage when the final payment is made.

The Mohawk property is making one of the finest showings of mill ore to be found in any mining district of southern Nevada. The shaft has a depth of 200 feet, while the north drift from that level has been advanced 100 feet and a body of ore having a width of 75 feet is exposed that carries average values of about $14 a ton. The south drift is showing better grade of ore and occasional streaks of high grade are exposed. This drift has been extended for 120 feet and a continuous body of mill ore of great width is showing. The Mohawk property is considered by mining men who have examined same to be one of the great-est milling propositions in this section of the state, and will no doubt in due time become one of the heavy producers of southern Nevada.

MANY MILLIONS SECURE LIVING FROM COUNTRY

Soviet Russia Provides Wages For Vast Number Regardless of Army and Navy

(By Associated Press) MOSCOW, May 15.—(By Mail.)—Over four million and a half of people, exclusive of the red army and navy, draw their living direct from governmental sources in Russia, and this in spite of the recent dismissal of 3,000,000 such employees. Nor do these figures cover the Ukraine, with its 30,000,000 people; the Far Eastern republic, with perhaps 10,000,000; and the governments of Trans-Caucasus, Bokhara and Turkestan. These statistics mean, says the newspaper, "Economic Life," that one out of every 20 persons in Russia has a government job, not counting soldiers and sailors. The new budget will reduce the number of governmental employees still further to 3,300,000.

Of the 4,571,000 still employed, the supreme economic council, which operates a number of factories, pays 1,630,000. Railroads come next with 960,000, and the department of education has 420,000. In the state political police there are 105,000, and in the uniformed police 160,000. The 3,000,000 recently discharged, deprived of government rations, have had to turn to the open markets to secure their sustenance.

LOSS OF SIGHT NO HINDER TO HIS AMBITION

St. Louis Man Completes Full Course of Law With Great Credit to Himself

(By Associated Press) ST. LOUIS, June 15.—Loss of sight proved no handicap to William E. Ely in obtaining his life's ambition, and proved no obstacle in 1920, when he was elected to the senate, being his study of law, for today Mr. Ely, blind for more than eight years, is entitled to style himself a master of laws, having received the degree at the commencement exercises of St. Louis university at the closing of the school year.

Ely, who was an accountant employed by one of the largest banks of the city, acquired during that time a business training, which he declared prepared him for the study of law. Misfortune fell upon him, and within a short time he lost his only child and wife. The double shock brought him to complete prostration from a hospital at Fort Arthur, Texas, which he recovered, minus his sight, the spirits warned him to avoid the latter plan, in the assertion of Mrs. E. Stowell, who says he has been president of many railroads, and was president for seven years of the National Party committee.

(By Associated Press) NEW YORK, June 15.—This evening of the 3500 miles of railroad he has built was celebrated abroad by the advent of spirits and that he changed the direction of the Kansas City Southern so as to have him to complete construction from a terminal at Fort Arthur, Texas, instead of at Galveston, because the spirits warned him to avoid the latter plan, in the assertion of Mrs. E. Stowell, who says he has been president of many railroads, and was president for seven years of the National Party committee.

POWERS RESUME DISCUSSION OF GREAT PROBLEM

All Europe Centers Hopes In New Conference Touching Upon Grave Questions

PESSIMISM IS AUGMENTED

Russians Say Attitude Has Not Changed and Few Concessions are Likely

(By Associated Press) THE HAGUE, June 15.—Efforts to rehabilitate Europe and reconstruction of Russia in the hands of nations were before the world today as the principal power groups discussed the situation at Geneva a month ago. All Europe has expressed its hopes in the new conference.

The failure of efforts at Paris to organize a loan for Germany, which has seemed to augment the pessimism concerning the prospects of the present conference in saving a measure agreement with which Russia, in such vital matters as loans and treatment of the debt, is unwilling to be held by foreigners and the only point of Russian policy.

(By Associated Press) MOSCOW, June 15.—On the eve of the Hague conference, government officials informed the Associated Press that the Russian attitude at the new meeting will be the same as at Geneva. The only concessions in foreign capital possible, it added, will be on the basis of reorganization of loans, government private property.
