ANNUAL ROLL CALL

At the Service of All Mankind

An allegorical concept of the Red Cross as a peace-time ideal is embodied in the American Red Cross in a new and striking poster for its Annual Roll Call. Spread out before the heroic size figure is the map of the United States with a Red Cross superimposed upon it while smaller figures are sketched scenes depicting the chief activities of the Red Cross—service to disabled veterans of the World War, disaster relief, promotion of the public health. The poster is the work of Frederick Hurtenrath, a New York artist and will be displayed throughout the country during the enrollment of the Red Cross membership for 1923.

RED CROSS HEALS WOUNDS OF WAR

25,000 Disabled Ex-Service Men in Hospitals After Four Years of Peace.

CHAPTERS' FIELD OF SERVICE

Every Veteran Needing Help Gets Individual Attention of Sympathetic Workers.

When on November 11 the world bids adieu to the fourth anniversary of the Armistice, the American Red Cross commemorates its Annual Roll Call for the enrollment of the year. The people of the United States will pause to think of the measure of contribution to the cause of peace made by our Army and Navy in the World War. The glory of it is a national tradition; but the needs of the war remain. They are needed in a year, nor in four years. At the Armistice Day there will be 25,000 disabled ex-service men, many of them in Government hospitals, who are suffering from wounds, exposure, nervous strain and exhaustion incident to their service in the war. The Government without stint is undertaking to furnish these disabled men with the compensation and medical care to which they are entitled. It is the duty of the Red Cross to see that this duty is fulfilled. Why? Because the Government cannot handle the cases of ex-service men individually; it must handle them in bulk under a standard policy. The Government has neither the authority, the funds or the equipment for working out the problem of the individual man. There is where the American Red Cross finds its greatest field for service, aiding through its very active Chapters in reaching the disabled man with immediate practical help, assisting his family while his claim is emerging from the process of adjustment, furnishing articles of comfort, funds to tide over the difficult periods, the friendly touch of personal encouragement, helpful recreation and worry-dispelling amusement. It is the warm hand of sympathy and understanding which the American Red Cross extends to the majority of these disabled ex-service men, some of them friendless in the whirl of life, thousands of them with wives and children dependent upon them, and hundreds of them frequently helpless in the face of grim necessity.

2,679 Chapters Aiding Veterans
In this work, upon whose accomplishment the American Red Cross is trying a record-breaking enrollment in the Roll Call which opens on Armistice Day and closes with Thanksgiving Day, 2,679 Chapters in all parts of the country are engaged. This is 350 more than were working for ex-service men last year when approximately $10,000,000 was expended by the National Organization and the Chapters working together in harmonious unity. For the current fiscal year National Headquarters appropriated $3,030,000, an increase of $305,000 over the amount spent for the work among ex-service men in the year ended June 30 last. Since it is estimated that the Chapters will expend close to $7,000,000 from their own funds, the grand total of Red Cross expenditures for this single work is expected again to reach the $10,000,000 mark by June 30, 1923.

Hospital and District Office Work
During the fiscal year a total of over 1,000 persons, paid and volunteer, has been engaged in Red Cross duty in hospitals or district offices of the U. S.
