

LIBERTY BELL SHOULD RING AGAIN FOR POOR

Women of America Would Arouse Sentiment in Behalf of the Armenians

PHILADELPHIA, Pa., Nov. 17.—Women of America should arouse public sentiment that America shall more definitely answer Armenia's cry, said Miss Anna Adam Gordon, president of the National Women's Christian Temperance Union, in an address here today before the convention of the organization. "Let us earnestly ask our government sponsor to devise a way by which Christian America can co-operate," she continued, "with the allied powers in putting a stop to atrocities and in giving protection to Armenian lives and homes."

Miss Gordon flung back to the west their rallying cry: The Liberty Bell must ring again, saying "we hereby remind the association against the prohibition amendment that the Liberty Bell did ring again on Jan. 16, 1919, when the proclamation for constitutional prohibition was written to vander Independence hall, there had its birth. How eminent is appropriate it is that in Philadelphia the voice of representative motherhood of the world should interpret to the farthest corner of this alcohol-sick world the true liberty, the real freedom that yet shall come to all the world, a freedom from the subtle, scheming enemies of home and childhood; of health and business prosperity."

ORGANIZATION OF BOY SCOUTS PLAN CENTERS

National Council Has Stated Four Training Quarters to Be Established

NEW YORK, Nov. 14.—The National Council of the Boy Scouts of America carrying out its program of expansion, has announced its purpose of opening four big national centers for the expert training of scout executives.

Immediate plans are on foot to establish the first of these centers near New York, and the council already is seeking ground for that purpose. It is hoped to establish other centers, probably one in the middle west, one in the far west and one in the south. This headquarters in the field will furnish an opportunity to concentrate experimental work as well as furnish an excellent training center, especially for courses in How to Train Scoutmasters. If it is not practicable to bring the executives to the centers for training along these lines, it will be possible to move the headquarters to different parts of the country.

Since the beginning of scouting in this country over 12 years ago, a total of 4777 eagle badges, the highest rank in scouting, have been issued. Of this number 1477 have been allotted since the first of the present year.

It is considered remarkable that such a large proportion of these marks of distinction should have been given out in the past 10 months. In order to attain this much coveted eagle badge, the scout begins as a tenderfoot and climbs up ladder one rung at a time until he becomes a second class and then a first class scout. It is at this point that the boy begins to do his real climbing, which calls for training along special lines. After he is a first class scout, he may become a life scout and then a star scout, and then comes the highest rank, which is Eagle. From now until next February the scout organization will conduct a campaign for members. It is hoped to increase the enrollment by 100,000 scouts or 25 per cent of the present membership.
