DENIES EVERY CHARGE MADE BY WITNESS

from a gun, and the defendant was beginning to show much uneasiness.

In the evidence of Mrs. Dillen there are parts which is told and undoubtedly will be believed by the jury and the spectators as the truth, as she impresses upon at the time, and then again her evidence in the manner in which she relates is disbelieved by her hearers.

SCOTTY MACSPADDEN, COLORED

Scotly MacSpadden, colored resident, was called to the stand late in the afternoon on Saturday and told of frequent visits he made to the Globe rooming house for the purpose of getting his "batteries charged," or in other words to get a drink.

Cliff Erenbrack, owner of a cafe, told of making a trip to Frazier well to look at a still which the Dillens desired to sell. Said he saw Jim Rios at the still and talked to him.

Joseph M. Kelly testified to being the agent of the Globe, and of Mrs. Dillen informing him on August 10 that would be the last month if the rent was not reduced.

Attorney Murphy read depositions from Bakersfield about the apprehensions of the Dillens which stated their conduct had been natural while there and both had accepted positions.
