LAND BILL ATTACKS PROVE BOOMERANG

Just as the Appeal predicted a short time ago the Pittman land grant bill that has been so viciously attacked by the Reno Journal, the Reno Gazette, Sam Platt and Grant Miller, the voluble barge of the Socialist party, has turned out already to be a boomerang for the Republican party and the opposition.

In the early days of the campaign many people were fooled by the unwarranted attacks on the bill and the fact was demonstrated the bill had not been generally read, but the explanations that have followed have changed sentiment. The opponents of the measure wilfully endeavored to mislead the voters. If they had been honest why did they not read the bill in its entirety from the platform? It is short, plain and concise, containing only five brief sections, besides the title of the bill and the enacting clause and would not take up the time of any speaker to exceed five minutes.

The opposition, especially the stockmen, know that that little word USE in section 4 of the bill is the meat of the entire matter. When that word was put into the bill it simply sounded the death knell to free grazing lands, which privilege the stockmen have been enjoying for many years to the detriment of the finances of the state.

Miller and Platt, with the Reno Journal and Gazette, have thought and did think that concerted action on their part and wilful misstatements of the purposes, intents and benefits of the bill would defeat Senator Key Pittman for re-election. But they reckoned without their hosts. Almost the same identical are fighting this bill that fought the Tax commission, and are still

Republican Candidates Talk to Big Audience, But "Pep" Is Lacking

The "Big Four" of the Republican party arrived in Carson late yesterday afternoon and the evening held a rally at the Grand theater. Preceding the meeting a street parade was indulged in and participated in by the four candidates, forty-two individuals carrying fuses and twenty-three (onionous number) automobiles loaded with women and children. The Carson band headed the procession and with electric torchlights attached to their caps they presented rather a weird and startling appearance. The streets were pretty well lined with people to watch the parade and most of these later repaired to the theater to listen to the explanations which the exponents of Republican doctrine were prepared to make.

William Kearney, state engineer, acted as chairman for the occasion, and proved his efficiency in that connection. When he started his address he faced an audience that comfortably filled the house, but under no circumstances can it be said that such enthusiasm was manifested as developed at the last big Democratic meeting in the same house. The feeling was not there.

"Dick" McKay and Judge Moran were the first speakers and both made a good impression on their audience. Their plea was for support and they kept away from subjects which they could not justify. Sam Platt was the main speaker of the evening and as he was presented he got a warm welcome from his fellow-townsmen. He began his talk by discussing generalities and then drifted off onto the Pittman land bill. This he abused for about forty min-

IS TO BE GIVEN PECULIAR TEST

LOS ANGELES, Nov. 3.—In an effort to settle the puzzling Barrett case both the prosecution and defense attorneys have agreed to give Barrett a drug test, if he is able to stand it, and place him under the influence of an anaesthetic for twenty-four hours. Physicians declare he will unconsciously recite the facts as they happened. Even the prosecution is not satisfied that Barrett killed his wife and stepson as he confessed. Both sides agree the brush fire seen the night of the supposed murder could not possibly have consumed both bodies.

Germans Lose Ground

[By United Press] BERLIN, Nov. 3.—The Germans lost ground at Sully, but elsewhere on the Somme repulsed the Allied attacks. The Russians lost heavily in attempting to recapture their positions west of Felv Krasnalsie on the Nar-ayvka. Seven assaults made by them were frustrated.

Big Socialist Is Out for Wilson

LIMA, O., Nov. 3.—Colonel E. B. Lewis of Lima, a Socialist leader in the Buckeye state for many years, has come out for President Wilson. Lewis was editor of the Ohio Socialist, the organ of the party, for three years. He says that the president has done so much for the workers that the safest thing is for the workers to stand by the Democratic ticket. "Wall Street is against Wilson," says Lewis. "The exploiters of child labor are against him and so are all the enemies of the working classes, but the people are for him. The nation needs four years more of Wilson."

Will Make Talk On Election Laws

At Armory hall on Saturday evening, Hon. E. T. Patrick will explain to voters the general election laws and the proper way to mark a ballot. This is an important subject, and one on which it is necessary for every voter to be informed. There will be good music and brief remarks by local Democratic candidates. Darning will follow the meeting, to which all are cordially invited.

gress a few months ago, he had nothing to say. The abuse of that was left to Platt and Roberts had to sit there and grit it out. In numbers the "big" Republican meeting was a success, but real enthusiasm was lacking and it was plain that from the first the audience was not with the speakers, even the name of the "peerless leader," Charles Evans Hughes, failing to get a hand-clap.

Young Italian Not Yet Located

No word has been received at the sheriff's office as to the whereabouts of Angelo, the young Italian, who robbed the Pardini Brothers of $400 last Wednesday morning. It was learned that he took the train for San Francisco some time Wednesday night. It is known also that he was infatuated with a woman of the underworld who formerly lived in Carson and when she left Reno she said she was going to San Francisco and from there to Portland, Ore., and it is thought that they met in the city and then continued on to Portland. The officers are keeping a sharp look out for the pair and expect to capture them in the course of a few days.

Trammer to Serve Life Imprisonment

The Board of Pardons with every member present last night commuted the sentence of J. Frank Trammer, who was to have been executed today, to imprisonment for life. Justice Norcross and Attorney General Thatcher did not arrive in Carson until late in the evening on account of a delayed westbound train on the Southern Pacific railroad. Governor Boyle and Justices McCarran and Coleman held a meeting at the prison yesterday afternoon and the testimony of Trammer and Nimrod Urie, who is serving a life sentence for the same crime, was taken. A complete confession was made by Trammer, which was corroborated by Urie. The three members then awaited the arrival of the two remaining members of the board, when Trammer's sentence was commuted for life.
