THE treasury department is buying silver and the purchase of the same causes the price to go up. This is calculated to make trouble for those organs that always insisted that the law of supply and demand always ceased to operate when it struck the white metal.

A SIDNEY, Iowa, man was recently sentenced to the penitentiary for stealing two cherry pies. Men who have stolen railroads, coal lands, timber lands and millions of money are still captains of finance and defenders of national honor. If there is any moral in this it is, "don't be so foolhardy as to steal mere pies."

"It would be a sorry day if labor should be entirely ignored by capital," says the Cedar Rapids Gazette. Doubtless that is true, but not nearly so sorry if capital should undertake to get along without labor.

Victory in the skirmish of 1906 presages victory in the battle of 1908.

Republican music since the Maine election has been of the cemetery waltz kind.
