

NOTES AND QUERIES.

Where shall this annotator take up his (to him) pleasant chit-chat over

"Chalk and cheese and sealing-wax And cabbages and kings?"

INQUIRY.

Editor Tribune: I observed this in your paper of Friday.

Now please give us the agreement or "arrangements" in full, so that all citizens and taxpayers of Ormsby county may know when and by whom the "arrangements" were made.

We refer our Inquirer to the Board of County Commissioners.—Tribune of last evening.

This means, we suppose, that Bosko has secured for himself the first instead of the second choice of the rentals in the County Building; and that now instead of his paying $100 per month for the second best place, while the store occupied by Mr. Gerstle has been rented for $50 per month, he has secured justice at the hands of the County Commissioners.

GOING TO LEAVE US.—Our excellent friend, Doctor Davison, is going to leave Carson, we are sorry to say. He is about opening an office in Virginia City.

Lots of New rallery going the rounds; and there is an unwonted accumulation and development of cheek, in consequence. Ain't the way to spell it? You just get it once, good, and you couldn't begin to invent a bad enough way to spell it. You hear me!

THE GREAT JUGGLER COMING.—Johnny Moore informs us that Le Commandeur Cazeneuve, the great sleight of hand performer, will occupy the Carson Theater two nights next week.

BOTTLED BOCA BEER is a specialty at Moore & Parker's saloon—and bottled Boca beer is the next best thing to a compromise between lager and English ale.

An assessment of $1 per share was levied on Belcher on Monday last.
