

SECTIONALISM.

The howlings of a portion of the Democratic press about keeping up sectionalism, would be amusing if they were not ridiculous. They claim that the old war feeling, with its wrongs and its hates, is fostered and kept alive by the Republican party, and that the party must be dissolved before these bitter feelings can be wiped out.

CONTRARY to our expectations, the coal burners' war still continues, but it is probable the killing of the five rioters by the Sheriff's posse two days ago, will have the effect of curbing their ardor.

GEN. GRANT, in a private letter from Tokio, says: "What I said at Penang about the Chinese question was without previous thought or preparation. I had no idea what the address to me was to be until it was read in the presence of an assembly."

A TREMENDOUS storm has visited the Atlantic coast, destroying, not only shipping, but buildings, the temporary Summer residences at watering places, trees and crops, and doing immense damage.

STATE AND COAST ITEMS.

A rattlesnake three and a half feet long was killed on Crown Point ravine, Gold Hill, the other day. The snake wore seven rattles.

The Haverly Minstrels took in at Eureka for three performances $1,450, making a net profit of over $500; and yet we growl about hard times.

A mine known as the "Sunshine" situated some twenty miles north of Carlin, in the Richmond District, is being developed and producing rich ore, with fine prospects of a very valuable property.

The Sentinel of Tuesday says: "A rumor was rife on the street yesterday that an important strike had been made in the Eureka Consolidated. We were unable to get particulars. It is observable that the stock was strong in the San Francisco market though the sales were light."

The Silver Reef Miner says: "The favorite amusement of the wicked Silver Reef youth is to bait hooks with nut kernels, and fish for ground squirrels. It's lots of fun for the boys to watch the cunning little animal seat himself on the lower end of his back and contemplate the bait, but its death to the squirrel if he makes a dash at the nut and gets the cruel hook in his jaws."

The Independent says: "J. Rosenstock has returned to Elko with a large and select stock of clothing, gents' furnishing goods, etc., and has opened the store formerly occupied by Gabriel Cohn. He intends to remain permanently. Mr. Rosenstock has made many friends in Elko, and we predict for him a liberal share of public patronage."

The Indians are having a grand fandango on the Humboldt near Winnemucca, and enjoying themselves immensely, according to the Silver State. They come from every direction and the two tribes, Shoshones and Piutes, occupy separate camps.

The Mammoth City Herald says: "An Indian from Round Valley appeared on our streets on Thursday last driving a six-horse wagon loaded with new grain, which he raised himself on his own ranch. The Indians in that part of Inyo county are fast becoming civilized. Many of them are owners of small farms which they cultivate and they are, as a general thing, industrious and civil, and are protected and encouraged by the white population."

THE LAKES are just now the goal to which everyone seems to turn. The season has been unusually long and warm for Nevada, and men confined for long hours to the desk or other confining duties, as well as women and children housed for the greater part of every day, look to, and long for the refreshing days and nights at the Lakes, and an escape from the heat of town.

A CABLEGRAM says: A week's notice of five per cent. reduction of wages of operatives has been posted in most of the cotton mills at Italy Bridge, where 200,000 spindles are running on short time, and 200,000 stopped altogether, while 636,000 are working on full time.

A PRINT dropped into town the other day, clad in garments that he had saved over from last summer, borrowed a quarter of a brother typist, and then "took in the town," went down Main street and invested his capital in chuck-a-luck, and won a four dollar bonanza, tried the tiger and collared $80, had a big time with the boys, turned up at the minstrels the same night in all the glory of a new suit of clothes and a reserved seat, got stuck on the show and procured a sit, handling baggage and looking after the props. He'll come out as a specialist before he reaches Frisco.—Leader.

RENO Gazette of yesterday says: Yesterday afternoon Charles Lambert and Frank H. Norcross were sitting on the shore of Lake Tahoe. Lambert had a gun in his hand trying to get a shot at a gull. A boy ran up against him suddenly, and the gun was discharged, the shot taking effect in the foot of young Norcross. The boy's heel was almost shot away. This morning the lad returned home on the overland. It is feared that amputation of the foot may become necessary.

SUBSCRIPTIONS are being taken up in London for the relief of the orphans, created by the yellow fever at Memphis.

WE are accustomed to talk in this country a great deal about the great landed estates in the Old World, and yet the Dalrymple farm in the region of the Red river of the North, throws the biggest estate in England in the shade. It contains 75,000 acres and yielded 500,000 bushels of wheat this year.

Proprietors of large landed estates in the Old World reserve about one third for game preserves, which tradition keeps intact from generation to generation, and the country is robbed of the benefit of tracts of fine land, sufficient to comfortably support a large portion of the poor toilers, and furnish labor for their idle and dangerous millions.

THE Marysville Appeal of Friday has the following:

The fires in the foot-hills north of the Yuba are still burning, and on Wednesday were moving on toward Bangor. The fires above Brown's Valley and Scott's ranch have burned over thousands of acres, destroyed much valuable Government land, and burned many miles of fence.

On mornings of a "meet" in old times when a fox was to be let loose, it was great sport for the "boys" to start from the kennel in the early morning, and lay a false scent by usually dragging a salt herring through all the worst places for miles around; drawing the dogs off, and getting hunters into every bad "bit" that could be found.

THE connection of Canada with the mother country disturbs her, while to us she is a source of disquietude and perennial expense. Canada needs new life, fresh impulses and increased population. All these advantages would naturally and inevitably ensue were her destinies united with her neighbor.

THE contrast between the Canadas and the United States is so great, and so thoroughly appreciated over there, that it creates an undercurrent of jealousy, which fastens them closer to the mother country under the false plea of loyalty, and, except to a small portion of the people, the idea of annexation is extremely distasteful.

THERE is a large pile of Rocky Mountain coal in the railroad company's sheds at this place. Smoke has been arising from this coal for several days, and, though large quantities of water had been thrown on it, it continued to smoke. Men were set at work removing the coal, which was found to be on fire in the center of the heap, a clear case of spontaneous combustion.—Silver State.
