

One Thousand Million Letters.

During the year which ended on the 30th of June last, there were carried in the mails of the United States more than one thousand million letters.

There is an eager and general desire to hear Blaine's eulogy on Garfield, says the Chicago Times, which is to be delivered in the presence of Congress.

A man walked into a physician's office in Grand Rapids, Mic., a few days ago, and in the large and easy manner of the boundless West, picked up from the table what he conceived to be a toothpick and began to use it.

Senator Pendleton's house is said to be the most beautiful in Washington. It is wholly American in material, all the wood being pine, maple and poplar.

Mrs. Sarah H. Dorris, who was murdered in St. Louis last week, was the only woman in the United States who ever made a business of the purchase and sale of slaves.

A dispatch from Washington yesterday says that Senator Rollins reported favorably as to the amended bill for a public building in Carson, Nevada.

The bill for an appropriation for a Government building at Carson was favorably reported to the Senate to-day, but we advise the thrilled people of the Capital not to fire off anvils until the bill becomes a law.

An exchange truthfully remarks, that if a man dreams the devil is after him it is a sign that he had better settle his subscription bill.

The Lords and the Land Act. NEW YORK, Feb. 20.—The Tribune's London special says. Lord Donoughmore's motion on Saturday in the House of Lords for a committee to inquire into the working of the Land Act is a deliberate and ingenious attempt to paralyze the workings of the Act.

A bill has been introduced in Congress making legal tender notes taxable the same as gold and silver. There is $346,681,000 of these notes charged on the books of the Treasury Department.
