Opening Letters by Mistake.

It may be of interest to persons who receive, by mistake or otherwise, letters not intended for them, to know that they should take a second thought before breaking them open, and read section 1,224 of the postal laws of 1879, wherein it is prescribed that the penalty attached to the act of opening by any person of a letter received from a postoffice, and not addressed to such a person, but intended for another, shall be a fine of not over $500, or imprisonment at hard labor for not over one year, or both. Under this law George T. Davis, the weigher of sugar, George H. Davis, the weigher of the Mint, and George R. Davis, weigher of the gospel, will be in the Penitentiary before another month.

A Bad Break.

Day before yesterday a man in Carson who thought he could do his own carpenter work attempted to extend a sort of trestle work out from a low roof. He got on a step-ladder and his head came up just above the roof. In nailing on the last strip he was obliged to lay his neck alongside one of the pieces already nailed, while the one he was nailing came along the other side of his neck. When he got through nailing and started to go down on the ground to admire his job he found that he could not get his head down. Then the old step ladder threatened to fall and if his brother had not come out and extricated him he would have probably hung himself.

The School Board.

The papers of the State are in error regarding the officers of the School Board. Messrs. Young, Preble and Adams are the men who have to decide the matter. Mr. Preble stated to the APPEAL editor yesterday that he was decidedly against any change.

A GHOST SAVES HIS CHARACTER.

A Spiritual Communication That Did Some Good.

A gentleman employed at a Government institution in this city, and a man who has no leaning whatever toward spiritualism, relates the following incident:

In 1858 his father, while treasurer of a local railroad in Massachusetts, died. After his demise the directors of the company found a deficiency in the accounts of the deceased, amounting to eighteen hundred and fifty odd dollars. The fact was communicated to the family of the late treasurer and the apparent defalcation caused them much grief and shame. In 1861 a noted Boston medium named Mansfield, visited San Francisco, creating great excitement by reason of his wonderful performances and he was called on by some of the best people of that city. One day the gentleman above referred to, accompanied by the late Rev. Thomas Starr King, visited Mansfield purely out of curiosity. The former was requested by the medium to write upon a slip of paper the name of any one in the spirit world with whom he desired to communicate. He wrote the name of his father, and without exhibiting it to Mansfield placed it into a small tin tube which the latter handed him and sealed it in such a manner with a private seal that any tampering could be easily detected. Mansfield requested that the tube and the contents be left in his possession for twenty-four hours, after which the gentlemen might call for a letter from the spirit world. On the following day the gentleman in question again called on the medium and substantially received this communication from his deceased father: He informed his son that he was cognizant of the grief which his apparent defalcation had caused the family, but that he was entirely innocent of any wrong, further stating that if a certain book would be examined, which could be found in a stated spot, and opened at a given page, it would be found that the date of the year had erroneously been placed in the dollar column and added up as cash, which would account for the apparent deficiency in his accounts. Although reposing but little faith in the matter, the son wrote East about it, and when he received a reply it was to the purport that the book mentioned was in the indicated place, and on the stated page it was found that 1858, the amount of the supposed defalcation, had been added to the cash account by mistake.

What Knocks Em.

"I tell you," said a man of the world the other day, "you may talk about your saloons and other mighty engines of intemperance, but I say that a home-brewed punch, such as is occasionally served up at a Carson evening party knocks saloon drinks cold. I've leaned up against a bar all night and swigged Tom and Jerry and told yarns and filled up with all sorts of drinks and walked past the policeman next morning and was never called to time. But last night I called on some young ladies and they mixed up a punch that tasted something like lemonade, and by Jove in ten minutes the piano and book case were having a go-as-you-please pedestrian match around the room and I was so full that I tried to hug the hat rack. Some of those cook book punches would knock a Colorado miner out of time in two rounds."

M. Cohn has the fourth Commandment printed in Hebrew in his store and says he will no longer keep open on Sunday.

IN BRIEF.

Another storm is on the tapis. Mark Strouse has married again.

Judge Murphy leaves for Aurora on Monday next.

Governor Laughton has returned from the Bay.

The Enterprise of yesterday was in a hypercritical mood.

There is considerable baking powder in to-day's APPEAL.

Sierra Nevada is $1.70. It's either the time to buy or leave the country.

John Walker's little girl fell off a wood pile yesterday and broke her wrist.

Parties having job work in this office will please call and take it away.

The Reno Gazette reporter has discovered some geyser springs near Beowawe station on the line of the C. P.

Postmaster White is much better. This will be bad news to the man who sent an application to Washington for his place.

The Overland for may is out. It has changed the color of the cover, added a number of new contributors and has a generally improved look.

People who send for sample copies of the APPEAL should send ten cents in postage stamps, or, as the boys say, "it don't go."

Dolph Shane is back again in Carson having been up in Virginia investigating the condition of the mines. From what he has been able to see he arrives at no outdoor conclusion.

It was Peterson instead of Snyder who took a picture of Marker's bull. He proves that he was there by showing a portion of the seat of his pants gone.

Prof. Brandou proposes to give an instrumental concert shortly. Many people of Carson are anxious to hear him give a public piano recital.

Last evening it was reported that John Sinclair, working for old man Hally, in Carson Valley, had been kicked by a horse and was not expected to live.

On behalf of the prisoners the Warden of the State Prison returns thanks to Col. Shaw, of the Enterprise, for an addition to the library of a number of valuable books.

There will be no less than seven lawyers in the Reno Savings Bank case. When the lawyers get through with the case they will incorporate and start a bank of their own.

The APPEAL acknowledges the receipt of a menu from the artists' banquet in San Francisco. Each guest was served with a picture painted by a different artist. This one is an exquisite marine view and looks like Traverne's work.

Dr. Bergman, of Reno, has been served with papers in a suit brought by Mr. Russell, who fell off Marker's flume some time ago, for malpractice. Doc says he thinks the amount is $20,000, but is not sure, as he hasn't read the papers.

It looks as if it was high time for the City Trustees to order a general cleaning out of the sewers and sloughs of this city. It is giving Carson a black eye to be written up all over the State as the filthiest and most diseaseridden town in Nevada.

It seems hardly fair for the press of the coast to simultaneously jump George Hearst's jokes in the Examiner. Give the young man a chance to be acclimated and get in harness. He has been a lawyer all his life, and while his jokes might make a jury laugh all over, they are not generally adopted to newspaper circulation.

Wanted.

To know the whereabouts of Mrs. Langtry. When last seen she was in company with a dude named Gebhart playing too $300 houses in Kentucky.

Anybody knowing the extent of Sam Tilden's money barrel will learn something to his advantage by writing at once to the Democratic Central Committee.

The man who ever heard the Lieutenant Governor say he wanted the office for the emoluments can send his affidavit to the Enterprise office.

The person who fixed up those forged proxies in Nye county will please send his address into Jewett Adams immediately.

Any person knowing the whereabouts of the Blaine boom will hear something to his advantage by calling on the Treasurer of the Six Chinese Companies.

Persons wishing to learn the game of poker can take lessons twice a week at the V. & T. R. R. office. No charge for beginners.

Seantlan.

The New York Truth says: "William J. Scanlan is an acquisition to the ranks of these comedians, who, in addition to their dramatic abilities, find their way into the hearts of the public. The Windsor Theater was filled on Monday night. Mr. Scanlan has become a popular comedian of the J. K. Emmett stripe. He acts naturally, sings pleasantly, and immediately becomes a favorite with the audience. Although all the songs were excellently received, 'Peek-a-Boo' fairly took the audience by storm. It is a pretty trifle and worthy the popularity it is attaining."

The Doctors Know.

The papers of Nevada are still discussing the deaths of two ladies of this city who were taken off by scarlet fever. Numbers of people claimed that they fell victims to spotted and black fever, and the idea seems to prevail throughout Nevada that Carson is subjected to the black plague. The physicians in the cases, who are perfectly competent to judge, have pronounced them scarlet fever. All the trouble arises from thoughtless people rushing about a town with the idea that they can diagnose diseases better than doctors who make a business of it.

Livery and Feed Stable.

D. Circo has now a fine stock of fast and safe horses and new carriages and is prepared to furnish teams or single rigs at cheaper prices than any stable in the city. Horses boarded by the day, week or month and given the best of feed. A trial will give satisfaction, both as to the quality and price of services rendered.

Straight Republicans should not forget to register. To be sure the stakes are not much, but as much fun can be had out of a small city election as any other if you feel that way.

Virginia & Truckee Railroad Co.

NEW TO-DAY.

COMPARATIVE WORTH OF BAKING POWDERS.

Table comparing various baking powders like ROYAL, GRANT'S, RUMFORD'S, etc., with their respective qualities and prices.

REPORTS OF GOVERNMENT CHEMISTS As to Purity and Wholesomeness of the Royal Baking Powder.

"I have tested a package of Royal Baking Powder, which I purchased in the open market, and find it composed of pure and wholesome ingredients. It is a cream of tartar powder of a high degree of merit, and does not contain either alum or phosphates, or other injurious substances. E. G. Lora, Ph.D."
"I have examined a package of Royal Baking Powder, purchased by myself in the market. I find it entirely free from alum, terra alba, or any other injurious substance. HENRY MORTON, Ph.D., President of Stevens Institute of Technology."
"I have analyzed a package of Royal Baking Powder. The materials of which it is composed are pure and wholesome. S. DANA HAYES, State Assayer, Mass."

The Royal Baking Powder received the highest award over all competitors at the Vienna World's Exposition, 1873; at the Centennial, Philadelphia, 1876; at the American Institute, and at State Fairs throughout the country. No other article of human food has ever received such high, emphatic, and universal endorsement from eminent chemists, physicians, scientists, and Boards of Health all over the world. NOTE.—The above DIAGRAM illustrates the comparative worth of various Baking Powders, as shown by Chemical Analysis and experiments made by Prof. Scheller. A one pound can of each powder was taken, the total leavening power or volume in each can calculated, the result being as indicated. This practical test for worth by Prof. Scheller only proves what every observant consumer of the Royal Baking Powder knows by practical experience, that while it costs a few cents per pound more than ordinary kinds, it is far more economical, and, besides, affords the advantage of better work. A single trial of the Royal Baking Powder will convince any fair minded person of these facts. *While the diagram shows some of the alum powders to be of a higher degree of strength than other powders ranked below them, it is not to be taken as indicating that they have any value. All alum powders, no matter how high their strength, are to be avoided as dangerous.
