A Crucial Test.

The severe chemical tests to which the various baking powders have from time to time placed have demonstrated clearly to the public the relative merits of the different brands from an analytical point of view. For instance, Dr. Love, the eminent Government Chemist, in his analysis made the comparative strength as follows:

Cubic inches Gas Evolved.
"Royal" (absolutely pure).....128.04
"Charm" (alum powder).....116.9
"Dr. Price's".....102.06
"Snow Flake" (Gross's).....101.88
"C. E. Andrews & Co.'s (alum power).....78.17

The Royal Baking Powder was found, besides being of absolute purity, to evolve the highest amount of leavening gas of any of the powders tested, and hence it was placed at the head of the list and recommended for Government use.

But the crucial test of the kitchen is, after all, the most satisfactory to the housekeeper. A baking powder that never fails to make light, sweet, wholesome and palatable bread, biscuit, cake, etc., upon all occasions, is the one that will be placed at the head of the list by the practical housewife, and received into her kitchen for continuous use. This test the Royal Baking Powder has stood for over twenty years without a single failure, and hence its reputation as the best baking powder made has spread from house to house, until its use has become as universal as its merits unrivaled.

The Text Books.

The text book case, entitled, State of Nevada ex rel. John R. Newham vs. the State Board of Education, was argued before the Supreme Court yesterday. A. C. Ellis, attorney for relator, represented the interests of the Appleton readers, and the Attorney General the respondents. The proceeding is an application for mandamus to compel the State Board of Education to cause to be used Appleton's series of readers and to discard the Sheldon readers now in use in the public schools of this State. The proceeding is based upon the alleged fact that Sheldon's readers were discarded by the Board and Appleton's readers prescribed as text books at a meeting of the Board held December 1, 1879. It is claimed that the action of the Board was rescinded at a meeting held on the 3rd of December, 1879, and the question presented for decision, among others, is as to whether the action of the State Board of Education in reconsidering and rescinding its action of December 1st is legal. The relator claims the Board had no such right, and the respondent claims that it had. If the relator prevails Appleton's readers will hereafter be used in the public schools.

The Livingston Brothers Beaten.

Judge Edwards yesterday filed a decision in the case of Livingston vs. The State of Nevada. In 1875 the State borrowed $500,000 of the Livingston Bros. The bonds were to run eight years and one month at 9 1/2 per cent., and the State passed a law allowing the Commissioners to redeem the bonds before they were due, so that the State could realize 4 1/2 per cent. on the money invested. The interest was computed at 9 1/2 per cent. and added to the face of the bond and the whole amount discounted at 4 1/2 per cent. The bonds were then surrendered to the State and cancelled, and the Livingstons received for the money. When one of the Livingston brothers came back from Germany he brought with him a new method of computing interest, in reality compound interest, which the law of Nevada forbids. The Livingstons then sued for $16,000 and interest, amounting in all to $24,000. The Court gave judgment for defendant, and taxed the plaintiff with the costs.

An Appreciative Advertiser.

A few weeks ago H. G. May & Co. sent the APPEAL an advertisement of the Sacramento Fulton Market, saying it was "only an experiment." Yesterday the following was received:

PUBLISHER APPEAL: Have reaped a good benefit from the ads. in your paper. Discontinue present ones and send bill along, which will be cheerfully paid. We will send you another advertisement in a few days and consider it coin well spent. Yours truly, H. G. MAY & Co. Sacramento, May 21, 1883.

There are dealers here who do not advertise, as they say it "doesn't pay," and yet enterprising men in Sacramento are taking the money right from under their noses. The APPEAL would much rather see local dealers do the advertising and keep trade at home.

Senator Pete Marker who recently had a misunderstanding with his fine Durham bull, and received serious injuries in consequence, is improving rapidly and expects to be out in two weeks if he keeps on improving as he has for some time past. Mr. Latta of Carson visited the Senator last Sunday and found him in excellent spirits. He will succeed in saving his arm, but it will always be stiff. During his sickness he has shown great fortitude, fighting off death with grim determination even when his physicians despaired, and to the hopefulness of his nature may be attributed his present favorable condition.

A Well Kept Postoffice.

Last week one of the special detectives sent out from Washington to nose about the postoffices pounced down upon our Carson postoffice and began to overhaul the accounts. He gave the postmaster a certificate that everything was correct to a cent and also stated to several citizens that the Carson postoffice was the best kept of any in his jurisdiction. It not only kept straight itself, but kept other small offices about it straight. Postmaster White has been confined to his house for several months and to Mr. Rodman's executive ability and honesty belongs the credit of having things in such excellent shape.

IN BRIEF.

The express train was an hour behind time yesterday.

Senator Jones is registered at the Palace Hotel.

Mrs. J. Clem Uhler left Reno for New York on Monday.

Jim Fair and his two boys leave for Europe in a few days.

Some of the school children will have a picnic at Treadway's tomorrow.

Secure your seats for "Mary Stuart" Thursday night, as there will be a great rush.

Captain R. W. Bollen, of the Mint, is confined to his house by illness.

Mrs. Henry Langley, of Bodie, daughter of Captain R. W. Bollen, is visiting here.

There will be a meeting of the C. W. T. U. this afternoon at 3 o'clock at the Presbyterian church.

The little son of Levi Dague, whose life was despaired of, is getting better.

Cat fishing in Washoe Lake will be lively sport during the warm weather.

Carsonites are holding Bodie stocks to the amount of $300,000 which are not now worth the paper they are printed on.

There are about a dozen young girls in city who claim to be thoroughly developed spiritual mediums.

Harry Gorham, of Gold Hill, a nephew of Senator Jones, is said to be the champion amateur pigeon and glass ball shot in the State.

Mrs. J. W. Sharp, of the Ormsby House, returned from California yesterday greatly improved in health.

Governor Adams came up from below yesterday, feeling much better. Mrs. Adams will sojourn with friends in California for a while.

State Gardner Henry Daugherty will have the Capitol grounds attired in their magnificent Summer dress very soon. He takes much interest in his trust.

There is no prettier frame for a handsome face than a poke bonnet. It is expected that all the Carson young ladies will wear them this Summer.

On Monday night an unknown person fired a shot through one of the windows in the house occupied by Engineer Moody, narrowly missing a young lady sitting in the room.

Late Monday night Julia Beals, while drunk, created some little excitement by entering the Methodist church and ringing the bell. She was "fired out" and permitted to depart in peace.

The question agitating the average Carson mind is, Shall we buy orange groves in Southern California or mining stocks on the Comstock? It is just a toss of the hat which will result in the greatest profit.

There will be greater travel between Tahoe and this city than at any previous season. It is expected that several thousand Knights Templar and friends will pass through here from the Lake.

On Sunday next a committee of two members from each military company in the State will meet at the Adjutant General's office to make final arrangements for the inter-State rifle match to be shot in this city during the Summer.

W. D. Torreyson is now kept busy making buckboards for men who catch the hunting and fishing fever. He builds them with separate compartments for trout and ducks, also a place to store ammunition and guns.

Julia Beals, the notorious drunkard, has been roaming the streets in a disgusting state of intoxication for the past week. This woman has been a source of great expense to Carson, and an effort should be made to rid the town of her. She is never out of jail twenty-four hours before she is drunk again.

Geo. C. Thaxter yesterday received a letter from Dr. John Fife, located at Red Bluff, Cal., where he is now county physician. Johnny writes that he is doing splendidly, both professionally and financially, facts which his Carson friends will be glad to hear. He is a Carson raised boy, and no one knowing him will be surprised to learn of his success.

Janauschek's Triumph.

Under this head the Salt Lake Tribune editorially says: "The phenomenal success which Madam Janauschek has achieved during the past week has abundantly established that Salt Lake City will support a really meritorious performance, even when repeated six times in a week. There have been fine houses every night, and with a single exception, the houses were uncomfortably full every night. The work which the great artist has performed has been almost superhuman, but she has received a double reward. She has her reward in money and she may carry with her the satisfaction of knowing that she has achieved a triumph in Salt Lake which was never accorded to an actor or actress before. The people will welcome her as often as she may choose to come this way."

Henry Wink.

"Talk about cyclones," said Mr. Byrne of the Mint, "I knew a woman who was playing a piano in Kansas and the wind that demolished the house lifted the woman clear over a school building."

"Quite a breeze," said Buck Zabriskie, "but I knew a woman who was playing the first scene from Traviatore when the wind lifted the woman and piano both in the air and carried 'em—well, I won't say how far it carried 'em—but she was almost through the music of the second act when the wind landed the piano, woman and the piano stool down all safe in the next town. She was so busy playing that she didn't notice the change of base at all."

Mr. Byrne went to the vault at once to see if the deposits were still there.

Since John Mackey has been invited to take a hand in the ceremonies of crowning the Czar he insists on having a small piece of Con. Virginia rock let in at the top of the crown just for effect and luck. Mackey doesn't fear the bombs of the Nihilists, as he is too accustomed to walk about where blasts are touched off.

The Opera House will to-night be filled by one of the best of Carson audiences to see Madame Janauschek, one of the greatest living artists, in "Mother and Son." None who are fond of the legitimate drama, well presented, should fail to visit the theatre to-night and tomorrow night.

Steve Gillis, an attache of the State Printing office, who was identified with the Enterprise for over 20 years, has returned to Virginia.

Postmaster White is sitting up and feeling comparatively comfortable.

T. S. Merchant, the commercial drummer, well known here, is the wealthiest drummer on the coast.

The rush for the Lake has fairly begun.

BUTLER TUBULAR IRON FENCE POSTS. IRON RANCH FENCE.

The Boss Ranch, Farm and Vineyard fence is now in the Market. It is built with iron posts and barbed wire; the post being made of wrought and cast-iron. The top of the post is made of one-inch gas pipe and pierced with holes through which a plain wire is inserted, which fastens the barbed wire to the post. The post is cast with three flanges and is twenty-one inches long. The flanges render the post immovable when inserted in any soil. These posts are placed two rods apart, with an iron stay between, and there can be any number of wires and any kind of wire used. Three men can build one mile of fence per day on good ground. Fire cannot burn it, cyclones cannot move it, and floods cannot wash it away.

I sell fence at $1 per rod for three-wire fence, and $1.25 for five-wire fence complete, and to agents at reduced rates, which enable a good live man to make from $100 to $200 a month on an investment of a small capital in territory, and any one wishing to purchase any County, State or Territory, can get a bargain by calling on or writing me of his desire.
