Old Kit on Flagpole Promises. General Kittrell in an interview in the Reno Gazette unreservedly gives it as his opinion that whenever a candidate goes before the people soliciting their suffrages, and to them makes promises, whether those promises be faithfully discharged his duties in case of election, or to donate a flagpole from which to flaunt the glorious ensign of our Nation, that he should to the letter comply with those promises and shirk nothing. This is the opinion of one of the lights of the Chivalry wing of the party on one of the lights the Yankee wing. When it comes to the matter of a mans flighted word the "Chives" persevere a square record.

It is easy to comprehend how the Western Union Telegraph Company can pay heavy dividends on watered stock, when it is remembered that such instances as this are not infrequent. A Sacramento operator, says the Record Union, competent for daily routine commercial work, received up to the day he struck, $40 a month. The man has a wife, two children, and in order to win bread for his home, has been whenever tired nature permitted, working four or five hours over daily time. But we are told that the demands of such workers are unreasonable.

A heated discussion is in progress between Ben. Goodkin of the Willows Review and Will S. Green of the Colusa Sun, on the subject of their mental calibre. Mr. Goodkin maintains that he has not only ten times the brains of Mr. Green, but lies over him heavily also in the matter of modesty. The remainder of the editorial fraternity of California, the pigmies of the profession, stand by awe-stricken while these mastodons of the press wage their battle.

As a number of the crack shots of the Nevada militia are employed in the Comstock mines, and as it is desirable that they should practice at the target on the Carson range until the day of the inter-State match, Generals Foreman, Matthews and Lieutenant-Colonel Boyle have been constituted a committee to solicit subscription to create a fund out of which to pay those men their wages until the day after the match.

For once the leading editorial writer of the Bulletin has made an attempt to be funny. The editorial in Wednesday's Bulletin on the Carson sports is beneath the dignity of a paper like the Bulletin, and a more lame and unfashionable flounder was never witnessed. The article gave some more of the composers an excuse for a strike, they remarking that they could not afford to set up such drivels at 50 cents a thousand.

The Assessor of Washoe county has been instructed to compel Robinson's citizens to pay taxes, unless the manager can exhibit a tax receipt from some other county in the State. That sort of proceeding savors of persecution. There is no doubt that John Robinson pays big taxes somewhere, and it is unjust to take advantage of a man just because you can.

A BUCKSAW GYMNASIUM.—The cheapest and simplest gymnastium in the world—one that exercises every muscle and bone in the body—is a flat piece of steel, notched on one side, fitted tightly into a wooden frame, and after being greased on both sides with bacon rind, rubbed into a sick of wood laid lengthwise on a sawbuck.

Cetewayo's death was in battle. King Mtesa, of Uganda, whose death is also announced, seems to have died on general principles. He is the personage who agreed to kill all his other wives if Queen Victoria would give him Beatrice. He may, therefore, have died of a broken heart.

Governor Adams has been mentioned as a candidate for United States Senator. While knowing that he has no possible chance of ever getting the position, he is still almost as proud of the distinction as he will be of his vindicated vanity when he keeps his flag-pole promise.—Walker Lake Bulletin.
