Marriage and Divorce.

Writing about marriage and divorce in the North American Review, Judge Noah Davis calls attention to the effect of our lax laws...

A large family of children is a safe-guard against divorce. Parental love, with all the mutual and tender affection with which it surrounds and hallows the family circle, hovers like a guardian angel over the sanctity of conjugal love.

$500 Reward.

The Commissioners yesterday decided to offer a reward of $500 for the arrest and return to the custody of Washoe County, of John Hart, the alleged murderer of Chas. Maltby.

Ensign Reynolds, of the Greely relief party, is called to mind as the hero of the rescue of the men of the Austrian bark Olivo in mid-ocean in November, 1879.

Mary E., wife of Bernardo Bassinna, a collector for the San Francisco Gas Company, died in child-bed Wednesday night. The little mite of humanity to which she gave birth survived until Friday morning.

The largest organ in the world has just been completed by Walek of Ludwigsburg, and placed in the cathedral church of Riga. The colossal instrument measures thirty-six feet in width, thirty-two feet from back to front, and sixty-five feet high.

No class has a greater interest in upholding American prestige abroad than the class of foreigners who have become American citizens. Every one of these should stand with the party that is most likely to establish for the United States a definite American policy.

Lillian F. Smith, a 12-year old California girl, is such a fine shot with a rifle that her father claims for her the most remarkable skill and challenges the world to beat her.

William Sharon states that he knows little about the proposed railroad across the Isthmus of Panama, recently incorporated in Albany, N. Y. He is named in the dispatches as one of the directors, but has not been notified personally of his election.

"Dutch Louise," who had a ranch on crooked Creek, M. T., is reported to have been hanged by cowboys on a charge of keeping a rendezvous for horse thieves.

For Banquets, Dinners and Parties use Eclipse Extra Dry, it is equal to any and superior to most imported brands, and the only natural California Champagne in the market.

The Royal Marionettes Tonight.

Don't fail to see their entertainment. There is no doubt about its being a very pleasant and unique exhibition. The figures are made to represent an immense variety of characters. The first scene represents a negro minstrel show, with all the characters rigged out, with banjos, violins, etc., in their hands.

An Alfalfa Farm.

The Marysville, Cal., Appeal says: W. O. Armstead of Wheatland has a fine alfalfa farm of 150 acres that rather lays over an ordinary wheat farm. He has 140 acres of Bear river valley land stocked down in alfalfa.

The most deadly foe to all malarial disease is Ayer's Ague Cure, a combination of vegetable ingredients only, of which the most valuable in used in no other known preparation.

Mrs. John W. Breckinridge, daughter of Lloyd Tevis, was married Saturday night at the residence of her father to Fred W. Sharon, only son of William Sharon.

Gen. Diaz is said to have in view a plan to arrange a loan for Mexico from the United States Government by giving as collateral security the Mexican State of Chihuahua.

Origin of Ammonia.

Ammonia is obtained in large quantities by the putrefaction of the urine of animals.—Encyclopedia Britannica.

Every housekeeper can test baking powders containing this disgusting drug by placing a can of the "Royal" or "Andrews' Pearl" top down on a hot stove until heated, then remove the cover and smell.

Dr. Price's Cream Baking Powder does not contain Ammonia, Alum, Lime, Potash, Bone Phosphates. Prove it by the above test. It is prepared by a Physician and Chemist with special regard to cleanliness and healthfulness.
