Prof. Zech the piano tuner is in the city on his regular annual tour. Persons wishing his services will leave orders at Friend's jewelry store.

Picnic Stands.

Parties desiring stands for restaurants, fruits, candies, cigars or others, at the School Picnic to take place at Treadway's Park next Saturday, will apply at once to John E. Bray, Virginia City, Nev. It is estimated by Principal Bray, who has the picnic in charge, that 900 school children, and 700 adults will come down from Storey county. There will also be a large attendance from other places. Fine music and elegant prizes are among the attractions. The Pavilion is being rebuilt for dancing. The grounds are in excellent order. Under such circumstances the various stands ought to be a source of profit to those who obtain them. No one will be allowed to sell upon the grounds who does not obtain the right therefrom from the picnic managers.

—Of course you are going to see Birch & Cotton, the minstrel heavy-weights.

—A good many Cersonites are going to the Rayercraft Hall dedication at Genoa this evening.

—Good progress is being made towards raising funds for the purchase of the Presbyterian parsonage.

—Milton Bowers, the wife poisoner of San Francisco, has been sentenced to be hung. The sentence meets with unanimous approval.

—As the APPEAL foreshadowed, Gen. Agramonte won the sword contest against Duncan Ross at Salt Lake. The score stood 18 to 13.

—The stockholders of the Steam Laundry held a meeting last evening and received the first report of the Trustees. Things are working smoothly.

The strawberry festival for the benefit of the Catholic Church, which was to be held on the third instant, has been postponed to the 8th proximo. Admission 50 cents; children half price.

—Ayer's Sarsaparilla is a highly concentrated extract of Sarsaparilla, and other blood-purifying roots, combined with Iodide of Potassium and Iron. Its control over serofulous diseases is unequalled by any other medicine.

—Baekache, stitches in the side, inflation and soreness in the bowels, are symptoms of a disordered state of the digestive and assimilative organs, which can be promptly and thoroughly corrected by the use of Ayer's Cathartic Pills. As dinner pills, and as aids to digestion, they have no equal. They cure constipation.

—Mrs. Susie Williams, nee McMillan, whose debut and divorce is making such a society sensation in San Francisco, is a very accommodating woman. There is another society belle in San Francisco who has registered a solemn vow that she will wed Mr. Williams, and the present Mrs. Williams does not seem disposed to stand in her way.

Speakers Invited.

At a meeting of the Reno Republican Club, held at Armory Hall Wednesday night, the following resolutions were unanimously adopted:

Resolved, That the courtesies of this club be cordially extended to the Republicans of Nevada and to Republicans everywhere.

Resolved, That the Secretary of this club be instructed to extend an invitation to Hon. C. C. Powning of Reno, Hon. Thomas Wren of Eureka, Hon. Wm. M. Stewart of Carson and Hon. R. M. Daggett of Virginia to meet with us and address the club on the political issues of the day, at their convenience.

Qualified to Join.

The Chronicle takes Messrs. Dermer, Drury and Harlow to task for holding State offices and also belonging to the K nights of Labor. The charge that they belong to this Order is not very serious if true. But the fact that they are members of the Typographical Union and in good standing would certainly qualify them as Knights of Labor.

Congratulatory.

The APPEAL extends its congratulations to the President and his new wife. We hope their wedded bliss will outlast the temporary success of the Democracy. The APPEAL received no cards, but we console ourselves that lots of other leading journals are in the same boat.

Buddensick Come to Join Jaehne. NEW YORK, June 3rd.—Charles A Buddensick, the builder of mud houses, sentenced to ten years' imprisonment and fined $500 for manslaughter, was, early this morning, taken to Sing Sing.

THE BRANNAN TRIAL.

A Jury Secured and the Case Begun.

Yesterday at 10 o'clock the case of the State vs. Matt Brannan, charged with arson, was begun in the District Court before Judge Edwards. Neither side indulged in much wrangle over the jury. The following jurymen were secured and sworn in: Alfred Helm, Edmund James, Lon. Parker, W. N. Elliott, John Follett, L. L. Elrod, G. H. Hoover, A. W. Morris, Henry Decker, G. B. Gates, S. J. Burns, J. A. Albro.

Gen. Clarke appeared for the defense and District Attorney Torreyson represented the State.

J. Spurgeon the first witness testified as follows:

I was at the house of T. B. Riekey on the day of the fire at about 7:30 and found Brannan watching. He said he had been ordered to watch the place over night. I proposed to spend the night with him but he declined having any assistance. I told him that we could take turns about one sleeping while the other watched; he finally consented. I was also there in the afternoon. Before leaving he asked me to survey the premises. We went to the house with a lamp, and also to the wood shed. At the shed he asked me if I smelled coal oil burning, and pushing open the shed door said: "There's a h— of a fire in here." I stepped in and saw the fire behind the door. It was blazing up pretty high. We gave no alarm, but put the fire out with buckets. I told Brannan that the place was doomed, and that I would see the Sheriff and have the furniture removed. I went out into the backyard of Riekey's house and talked about ten minutes with Miss Curry, when an alarm of fire was given. I ran back to the front yard of Riekey's house. Saw Matt with a bucket of water in his hand, and he called out that the house was again in flames. We went back and he put out the fire. Saw but one fire in the shed when we put out the first fire.

The day the barn burnt he told me Riekey hired him to take charge of that hired at $20 a month. [Exception taken by Gen. Clarke and denied.]

I first saw Brannan at the first fire in the morning about 10 o'clock.

[Witness then described the plan of the house and the outbuildings.]

After the first alarm we examined the house all over and found where there had been fire in the Chinaman's room. Matt said he discovered the fire in the Chinaman's room; had sent the Hyde girl into the house to turn on some water for the yard. When she came back and said there was smoke inside.

I said we would make a thorough examination of the house. He went over the house and told me everything was all right except the smoke in the hall. He said the man who had set fire to the house had set it in two places.

While talking, I saw smoke rising from the roof. We started up stairs when he said, "Run for the fire boys." I started away at once to give the alarm and left him to fight the fire and get out the pictures. He told me that Riekey had instructed him to save his pictures in case of fire. Matt chopped a hole through the roof and when I returned he was playing through the hole with a garden hose. Went inside the house and found a lot of boards on fire in an attic room.

Here the prosecution announced that he was through with the witness and desired the jury to visit the premises. The Court allowed the jury to go and also informed the witness that he could accompany them. The jury then adjourned to the scene of the fire in charge of the Sheriff.

After the jury had inspected the building the Court adjourned until 9 o'clock this morning.

Birch and Cotton.

A good house greeted Birch and Cotton's Minstrels at the Opera House last evening, and listened to an excellent performance. It is far easier to speak of the general excellence of the troupe than it is to find fault with any part of the performance. The singing was excellent and their jokes new, and their reappearance in Woodland at some future day would assure them a full house.—Woodland Mail.

COMSTOCK "SOCIETY."

The Feeling Against it So High That the Members Have to go Armed.

"What I object to in San Francisco," said a young gentleman from the Comstock, whom I met in the office of the Palace, "is that society here is so very mixed. If you're invited out here, you know, you can't possibly tell whom you're going to meet. You're just as likely to get into conversation with a man without a dollar as you are with a millionaire. It's disgusting. Now, in Virginia City, we do things better. Once it was just as bad there as it is here. Why, d'ye know, when I arrived you'd occasionally encounter a shift boss, and even a common miner! Fact. A few of us got together and drew the line. At first we admitted engineers, who are paid $6 a day, but, some months ago, we decided to exclude them. Now nothing under a timekeeper can get in. Timekeepers get a dollar a day less than engineers, but their work is clerical, you know, and on that account we overlook the wages. Of course, we don't admit all timekeepers. Some of the superintendents don't like to meet their own timekeepers socially, though they consent to associate with timekeepers from other mines. The assayers kick a bit, but, hang it, this is a republic, you know, and we can't be altogether strict. I'm sure if we bank clerks don't object the assayers can stand it. What does society do to amuse itself? Oh, we have a lawn tennis club, and a kettle drum now and again. But the principal fun is that we refuse to speak to people not in society, except in the way of business. It makes them furious, you know."

"You must live an enviable sort of existence."

"Enviably!" cried the sagebrush swain. "I should say so. Everybody envies us. We're the most exclusive society on the coast. Why, the feeling against us is so high that we really have to go armed."—McEwen in S. F. Post.

Most Sentenced.

NEW YORK, June 3.—Johann Most, Anarchist, was today sentenced to the Penitentiary for one year and fined $500. His associate, Braunschweig, got nine months and $250. Schenck was sent to the penitentiary for nine months, but was not fined.

Recorder Smythe, in sentencing Most, expressed deep regret that the law did not permit him to impose a heavier sentence. His crimes, he said, deserved the punishment awarded to capital offences. He also told him that he was the greatest scoundrel he had ever seen at that bar. Braunschweig, the Recorder said, was almost equally guilty. Schenck, he thought was a dupe of his companions, but he deserved punishment to warn him and others against following the teachings of such men as Most. None of the prisoners attempted to speak a word in Court. They were taken back to the Tombs, and this afternoon will be transferred to Blackwell's Island.

—Professor J. E. Bray, manager of the Storey County picnic to be held here next Saturday, has kindly permitted the wards and employees of the State Orphan's Home to attend the picnic free of charge.
