WANTED-A situation as a clerk, by a colored man who understands his business. Apply at this office. may 20th

ALL SORTS.

-Yesterday was the hottest day yet. -Almost everybody is going camping. -Col. Ellis will assist in the Crow prosecution. -The farmers up the valley are bailing their first alfalfa crop. -WANTED-A girl to do general housework. Apply at this office. -The assessments on the Laid-up dry stock are being rapidly paid up. -LOST-An ice hook. The finder will please return to Benton's stable. -Old Garland has about concluded that he is too electrical for the Cabinet.

-A wood pile got on fire in Empire last week and came near burning the town. -Eureka was visited by a large fire on Thursday night. The losses were about $25,000.

-Mrs. Jennie Banning, (colored) wants a situation in a private family. Apply at this office.

-From this on the passenger conductors on the C. P. will lay over in Reno instead of Truckee.

-While running a mower on Smith's ranch, last evening, young Smith had his foot badly cut.

-The Crow examination will be resumed on Tuesday. It was in progress yesterday with closed doors.

-The Candleville base ball club will pass into history along side the Darktown fire brigade and the Blackville nine.

-The Enterprise considers Stewart, Dazgett and Wren in the Senatorial ring but Powning isn't mentioned at all. This is simply awful.

-After this week it will only take five days to skip from New York to San Francisco. Bank cashiers are elated over the prospects.

-Arthur is getting much better and isn't quite underground yet, although he has just been made the President of an underground railroad.

-Bob Johnson, an old Vallejo typo, called on us yesterday. He was billing drunk as usual. He leaves this morning for the Comstock.

-John Mackay will be back on the Comstock this week. He will cut across from Steamboat to avoid the hungry politicians at the Carson depot.

-After the Judicial ticket is fixed up the rest of the nominees will come quite easily. The Judiciary bill is playing the deuce with State politics this year.

-John Swinton's paper says that the profits made by rich men out of our Civil War justify the imposition on them of an income tax to pay soldiers' pensions.

-The floating population have figured out that it will take about $100 a head to convince them that they want Fair this year, and $200 on the Adams proposition.

-Every time the catcher of the Chloriders threw to second it was muffed and somebody stole another base. There ought to have been a netting spread behind the second baseman.

-Ray Loughton is doing well, and in a fair way of recovery. His mother reached the city at 9 o'clock on Friday evening, the Meteor having been dispatched across the Lake for her.

-Ex Chief Morrison has been seen by a prospector who refuses to say where he saw him. The Chronicle intimates that the late proprietress of the Grand Central restaurant knows where he is.

-Congress has passed a bill giving foreign authors as much rights as Americans and a little more while it hits the American inventor a black eye. We need the American inventor here in America but we can worry along without the foreign author.

-To most children the bare suggestion of a dose of castor oil is nauseating. Why not, then, when physic is necessary for the little ones, use Ayer's Cathartic Pills? They combine every essential and valuable principle of a cathartic medicine, and being sugar coated are easily taken.

THE WATER QUESTION.

A Sensible Suggestion by the Gazette.

The Reno Gazette, a journal always alive to State development, has the following: Much good work can be done for Nevada if the people elect a Legislature for something besides choosing a Senator. The greatest question that can possibly be taken up is that of bringing her idle land and water together. A foundation on some scientific plan should be laid at once for the economical use of all obtainable water, even if the work of developing the plan is to be slow. The question of adequate works for storing up the Spring floods is one that should belong to the State. There are hundreds of places where lakes could be made in the mountains and a good head of water kept up the Summer through. The question of securing the site is an easy one now all through the mountains of Washoe, Humboldt, Elko and other counties, although in the Sierra Nevada the matter will be more complicated, on account of so much of them being in California. Still there ought to be some way to meet even that case. The mountain lakes are pretty well handled now by the big sawmill men. They have dams at Tahoe, Donner, Independence and Webber to hold back the Spring floods, and they keep a good head in the Truckee all Summer. But, besides the lakes, there are many opportunities for dams. The water could be owned by the State, and sold at $2 or $3 an inch, and it would soon absolutely pay the expenses of the whole government and stop State taxes altogether.

LAST NIGHT'S MEETING.

The Tribune Placed Under Boycott.

There was a large gathering at the Theater last evening, and the first business of importance transacted was the offering of a resolution asking members of the League to cease patronizing the Tribune.

Speeches in favor of the resolution were made by H. S. Mason, W. Garrard, Dr. Herrick, Judge Healey, Wm. Corbett and J. A. Leete. C. N. Harris declined to speak on the grounds that he was engaged in the newspaper business himself.

The resolution passed unanimously. A resolution was then offered to the effect that members of the League could serve its interest better by not joining any political club. Carried.

The meeting then adjourned.

-Almost every person has some form of scrofulous poison latent in his veins. When this develops in scrofulous sores, ulcers, or eruptions, or takes the form of rheumatism, or organic diseases, the suffering that ensues is terrible beyond description. Hence the gratitude of those who discover, as thousands yearly do, that Ayer's Sarsaparilla will thoroughly eradicate this evil from the system.

-The evil which is Nevada's greatest injury is that hundreds of men drawing incomes from property situated here live elsewhere. The region where these men make their money has a proper claim upon them of having the money spent where it is earned. The evil is yearly increasing and contributes largely to drain the State of money which should be kept and spent at home. -Times Review

-The Artesian well at Mr. Elsworth's struck a good flow and passed through several small ones. The pipe was perforated to catch the small flows and the quicksands that came in cut off nearly half the original supply. The only safe way in artesian well-boring is to go deep and stick to a single flow.

-They do say that when a man over in the Capitol building hears of a man proposing to run against him, he takes him one side and induces him to run against some other fellow in the building. Can such things be, and overcome us like a Summer cloud

-The Chronicle continues its ridiculous attempts to make its readers think that Jim Fair re-opened the Mint. Pretty soon they will be asserting that the Mint was built from plans drawn by Jeems.

-The News Reporter of Dayton wants Dagget to run for the Senate.

A PAID PUFF.

A Chance to See Virtue Undorned.

The following was received yesterday from San Francisco and a five dollar greenback inclosed with a request to publish.

A California exchange speaking of the seaside resorts of that State has no doubt good reasons for giving vent to the following: "What is it that possesses women, who, when at home, appear to be most modest and unassuming, yet, when they go to the seaside, think no more of exposing their bodies and form to the rude gaze, and still more rude remarks, of thousands of spectators, than they do of eating their breakfasts. It was remarked by a gentleman who witnessed the scene on the Santa Cruz beach on Sunday that at the present reckless manner in which the women expose themselves, it will not be many seasons before they do away with bathing suits altogether, and take to the water in naturalibus. As it is, some of them might do away with bathing suits altogether, for those worn are of so gauzy a texture, that nothing is concealed by their being worn; they simply have the effect of making nakedness more naked."

Hereafter ten dollars will be the lowest price at which those puffs of seaside resorts will be printed, unless photographs of the subjects are enclosed to enable the editor to realize just how shameful these exhibitions are.

To Key West Cigars.

Of all the cigars that are sold in the State, The ones called Key West Are set down as the best, To capture a nice 'un, Just go to Geo. Geo. Byson You'll smooze them both early and late

And on such a weed, where the lips love to linger, There's never a touch of a Chinaman's finger. And each one you smoke, (just think of it calmly.) You're helping some white man buy bread for his family

They're not fashioned finely, But draw no t' d'v'inely, And when the blue line curls up to the ceiling, A joy like new wine Over the sens's is stealing. You think of the riding, You look in the dark, When the moon was just gliding On G. Geo. Gate Pars.

Of the nights when you larked, Till the sun kissed the dew, An' the girl that you sparked, Back in Kalamazoo. Your soul is infesting, The habits of the stars, While you keep on investing In Key West cigars.

Today's Shoot.

Typhoid Fever.

Charles Hartford, of New Castle Westchester Co., N. Y., suffered with typhoid fever, and was given up to die. He was restored to health in one week by taking five Brandreth Pills every night and drinking plentifully of oatmeal gruel. A few doses of Brandreth's Pills will invariably cure any kind of fever.

State Land Matters.

During the two weeks ending July 9th, applications were filed in the State Land office covering 10,560 acres, on which first payment amounted to $2,640; contract interest payments meantime were $1,370 making total cash receipts, $4,010, for the said period, which embraced only ten working days.

Zither Playing.

Herman Morganroth the San Jose zither player is in the city for a few days and proposes to give some private entertainments on the instrument. He furnishes delightful music and can now be found at Brule's Hotel.

Mediumistic.

Mrs. Winn the noted medium is stopping at Mrs. Swift's for a couple of weeks and giving very satisfactory settings. She is also a healing medium and astonishing stories are told of her powers.
