

BUNGLING DEMAGOGUES.

A few months ago several hundred conscientious, well meaning men were doing all in their power to rid this community of the Chinese. It was announced that a move was to be strictly non-partisan in character, and all good citizens were invited to join. They did so in good faith, and were soon apprised of the fact, which was put out to everybody, that the whole affair had been seized upon as a trap by a few small-minded demagogues to spring upon the city at such time as might catch a few Mugwump votes for Democratic uses in the Fall.

The aiders and abettors of this scheme stand before the people today as having sold out the laboring class, and also having agreed to turn it over bodily to the Democrats. Such shameful betrayal of faith has never been seen in this country.

What are these men now doing in the anti-Chinese fight? Absolutely nothing beyond going about and smelling of their own noses, washing.

There has not been a single blow struck against the Chinese for sixty days, and one looks in vain in the "organ" to see anything detrimental to the Coolie slave now thriving in Carson City. The leaders of the fight promised their followers that it would attack and rout the "Mongolian hordes," etc., but they have led their misguided dupes up to the breastworks of the Republican party with its splendid record and continued successes, and asks them now to attack the ramparts.

No wonder the rank and file re-tire in disgust and curse the treachery of its leaders. These men, under the hypocritical guise of being the friends of labor, the lifters-up of the down-trodden and the salvation of the unemployed, have sought to bundle up a lot of voters, tag them and consign them, charges prepaid, to the Democratic party of this town.

What a pitiable exhibition of bad faith and treachery—the Mugwumps trying to dupe the people, and the Democrats in turn trying to dupe the Mugwumps. Flattery and a promise of power has been the bait by which the cunning Democrats have angled for and caught the silly Mugwumps. Four years ago the Democrats played the same game, and agreed to trade the Democratic Legislature for the Mugwump county ticket. Both tickets were beaten, because neither crowd kept faith. The poor duped Mugwumps vowed that they never would be caught with chaff again, but the same chaff that led them over the hill to the poor house is leading them again.

Those who really felt a true American interest in seeing a successful battle waged against the Chinese now know exactly to what extent they have been betrayed by the leaders, the men who make long speeches and throw short bits into the hat. If certain individuals in the heat of their political greed, had not tried to gratify old time spite and malice and hunger for the spoils of office, the anti-Chinese cause would still have been a live issue, and those who signed the pledge in good faith would still have been found battling for the right. But the cracks have disgusted the majority of the signers of the Covenant and undid previous good work by trying to play the demagogue.

Tonight there will be a meeting of the so-called anti-Chinese league, and a half a dozen men speaking from the platform, will, as usual, mistake the cheers and stamping of a couple of dozen of their followers as an echo of the sentiment of eight hundred citizens and tax payers of the county. By this time they must see how they have bungled.

The Harney Valley Items says: A well known married lady in Grant county has, during the past Spring and present Summer, done a good job at farming. When plowing time came this enterprising mother constructed a box on the plow in which to carry her babe, and thus she plowed the ground. She then proceeded to harrow, plant and cultivate, carrying the child on her back, and in this way has produced a fine crop and is now engaged carting the truck to a neighboring town and disposing of it. Who can beat this?
