POSTPONEMENT.

Office of Carson Steam Laundry, August 16, 1886.

By order of the Board of Trustees of the above named Company the sale of delinquent stock of assessment No. 1 is hereby postponed until Monday the 22nd day of August, 1886, at the same hour and place.

JOHN M. DORMER, Secretary.

Wanted

A position to assist with housework and plain sewing in a small family. Wages not so much an object as a good home. Address, Mrs. M. Ellsworth, Post Office Carson City, Nevada.

"THE FIRST SIGNER."

Something Regarding the "Appeal" and the Anti-Chinese League.

It has been stated in public print in this city that the proprietor of the APPEAL was the first signer to the document by which some 800 citizens of Ormsby county bound themselves to discontinue the employment of Chinese after April 1, 1886. This is true, and since that time "the first signer" has kept his pledge. This pledge we reproduce because a good many members of the League seem to have forgotten it. It reads:

"Agreement in behalf of our race and against Chinese in any capacity—We, the undersigned citizens, do hereby agree that we will not sell, lease or sub-let or rent in any manner whatever (excepting actual present leases) any part of a farm, town lot or real estate, to any Chinaman or Chinese, for any purpose whatever, neither will we employ any Chinaman or Chinese in any capacity, directly or indirectly, and that we will use all peaceable means to discourage the patronage and employment of Chinese."

The proprietor of this journal has strictly observed every clause in the above, and defies proof to the contrary. He did not wait, as did several of the most rabid of the anti-Chinese leaders, until the 1st day of April, but discharged his Chinese help several weeks before. The agreement did not bind any member of the League to do any more than look after his own pledge.

As long as the writer keeps his agreement he does not propose to go smelling round his neighbor's kitchens and back yards to see what they are doing.

The keeping of this agreement has been attended with great inconvenience to us. The writer discharged a Chinaman and for some weeks was unable to employ any help at all. It was not to be had at any price. When it was found that the season for planting crops was nearly over. The white help worked a month, and with but a few days warning left us to go at his old business of fluming. So to make a long story short, we secured white help when we could, and during the intervals work on the ranch was suspended. We were five months without any white help in the kitchen. So, summing up the Summer's accounts, we find that our endeavors to add to the taxable property of Ormsby county has, by reason of being unable to obtain help when it was needed, resulted in a direct loss of nearly $500.

There are scores of other citizens of this county who have been called upon to make similar sacrifices, and for whose benefit? nobody's, except the few scheming politicians who have nothing to lose, no matter how the thing goes. Now, the APPEAL would like to squarely debate this question with any of the leaders of the League. We would like to debate without personalities or prejudice, that the truth may be reached by the shortest possible route.

It may be that other members of the League have suffered as much as ourselves in an earnest endeavor to keep faith with their own signatures. Perhaps Major Garrard, setting in the shady vestibule of the Mint, under the spreading elms, and drawing a salary of several thousand a year from Uncle Sam, with nothing whatever to do, has made equal sacrifices. We have never heard, however, that any member of his family has been compelled to do cooking and housework beyond their physical strength to do, or that he ever suffered a moment's inconvenience or lost a dollar because he could not get white help. Nor have we ever heard that he has, since April 1st, employed white help in any capacity whose wages came out of his own pocket.

When he signed the agreement he knew perfectly well that the keeping of it would never result in the slightest inconvenience to his person or his pocket.

We have yet to hear that the editor of the Union has employed any white help since April 1st, or proposes to employ any. We have yet to hear of any Chinese having been compelled to leave Carson since Democratic politics were introduced into the League.

We have yet to hear of a plan by which the Chinese could be rooted out, except the plan proposed by this journal, of purchasing their leaves and real estate, and buying them out.

When the writer proposed that each member of the League subscribe one dollar a month to assist in the exodus of the Chinese, Major Garrard was the first to oppose it. Every plan that involves the expenditure of ever so small a sum of money to get rid of the Chinese is opposed by "the leaders."

They are very free with advice and talk, but when it comes to practical aid to the movement they prefer not to extend any. If long speeches would drive out the Chinese, not a Mongol would be here today, but as long as it takes money and active work, these commodities will not be forthcoming in sufficient quantities to be effective.

The idea of men who want other people to spend from ten to one hundred dollars a month for the cause, when they decline to subscribe the paltry sum of one dollar. Does not this fact show to the casual observer how much they want the Chinese to go?

The proposition made by this journal, for each member of the League to put up one dollar a month and buy the Chinese out was a practical solution of the question. Why was it laughed down?

Because the Democrats do not want the Chinese to go out of here before the Fall elections!

A couple of months ago a number of men clubbed together and closed up the Chinese wash house opposite the St. Charles. They purchased the lease, and each month pay the owner of the place the rent which the Chinamen paid.

The proprietor of the APPEAL paid a portion of that lease, and will continue to pay his proportion of it as long as the owners demand the rent. This plan worked in one instance, and if it will work with one Chinaman, why will not a larger sum settle the whole difficulty with all? Yet the leaders avoid any further trial of it. Why? Because they know that it will work, and they do not want it to work before the Fall elections!

ALL SORTS.

—John Piper thinks the Opera House is still under boycott.

—Harry Millard denies point blank that anyone has ever asked him to discharge his white help.

—Several leading Democrats say that they are willing to go on the ticket if Adams will give bonds not to trade off.

—The alarm of fire yesterday afternoon was occasioned by some sagebrush burning near the box factory.

—Hon. William Woodburn is back from Washington and around shaking hands with his constituents today.

—Jones and Woodburn, the Republican representatives in Congress got the $30,000 appropriations for surveys in Nevada. Where was Fair all this while?

—Messrs. Richards, DeNeuf and Harris have returned from their hunting trip. They claim sixteen deer but have not as yet sent this office any of the meat.

—The Examiner has long been calling for somebody to "Turn the rascals out." Wonder what old Uncle George Hearst thinks of the recent turning out in the U. S. Senate.

—All attempts on the part of the mugwumps to place Republicans on record as pro Chinese is simply done to cover up their own political tricks, which are so large and open that careful drivers along the highway avoid them.

—Young, old and middle-aged, all experience the wonderful beneficial effects of Ayer's Sarsaparilla. Young children suffering from sore eyes, sore ears, scald-head, or with any scurfy or syphilitic taint, may be made healthy and strong by its use.

—Don't fill the system with quinine in the effort to prevent or cure fever and ague. Ayer's Agree Cure is a far more potent preventive and remedy, with the advantage of leaving in the body no poisons to produce dizziness, deafness, head ache, and other disorders. The proprietors warrant it.

WANTED—Active Agents to sell mining specialties big money in commission or salary and expenses to responsible men. Address, H. P. S. P. & M. Co. Box 115, Newport, Ky. 1y281m

A brave soldier.

A San Francisco correspondent speaking of Col. E. P. Bates of Pike City, calls attention to the fact that he wore but one G. A. R. decoration, although he might have covered his breast with them, and continuing, says:

"Col. Bates wore a charmed life, for he never missed but one battle in the Army of the Cumberland. He was in the hottest places all the time. He was at Shiloh. He was in the focus of the storm that beat upon the Rock of Chickamauga. He led the skirmish line in the assault on Kenesaw mountain where Sherman was so bloodily repulsed. He was among the first to reach the fiery crest of Missionary Ridge and yet he never received so much as a scratch. How many of the men whose breasts show resplendent the other day with decorations, who through such an ordeal? Do you know I sometimes think the G. A. R. was organized to enable men to gain titles, honors and distinction in time of peace when they failed to win them in the field in time of war? I suggest that in proportion as the comrades embellish themselves with these trinkets their actual war service is to be minimized. The greater the number of medals the lesser the number of days of field service. Your three-months-veterans propose to make up in decorations for what he lacked in war time—actual experience on the battlefield. The short service men who never once caught a sniff of the sulphurous odor of gunpowder smoke are going to make the most out of these Grand Army encampments in the coming years. They are to be the ultimate survivors. The three-years-veterans who yet live were subjected to such continuous privations during the war that their stock of vitality is much less today than that of their comrades, the short service non-combatants."

The Golden Giant.

This strong melodrama was very well presented last evening by McKee Rankin and his talented wife. The company was very strong. Miss Adela Waters sister of Mrs. Hofer, a Carson raised lady, was loudly applauded on her appearance. She did some splendid work and her graceful stage presence, fine figure and sweet voice, gave still greater promise of future success.

An Unrivalled Record.

Alicock's Porous Plasters have, in the last twenty-five years proved themselves the best, safest and most effectual remedy for Spinal Complaints, Incipient Consumption, Diarrhoea, Pleurisy, Tumors, Asthma, Bronchitis, Epilepsy, Lumbago, Debility, Rheumatism, Gout, Sciatica, Loss of Vigor, Dropsy, Paralysis, Loss of Voice, Hysteria, Nervousness, Indigestion, Palpitation.

Next Saturday's Concert.

The Virginia Orchestra advertise in another column to give a concert at the Opera House on next Saturday evening. Their programme and the reputation of this excellent musical organization give promise of a fine entertainment.

Miss Emma Friend has kindly volunteered to execute a piano solo.

RESTAURANT FOR SALE.

A WELL KNOWN FIRST-class restaurant, well situated and doing a first-class business, can be purchased on reasonable terms. The business is now clearing at least $200 per month above all expenses. The proprietor has no other reason for disposing of his valuable property than a press of other business, which demands his entire time.

For particulars apply at APPEAL office.

Thoughts for the Fireside.

Isn't it an advantage to get your personal and family supplies almost direct from the manufacturers, with the consequent saving in cost?

Isn't it an advantage to not only get goods of the best qualities, but also of the latest Eastern and European styles?

Isn't it an advantage to be able to send to a city for your goods, and get as sure satisfaction as if you went to the expense and bother of going there yourself?

Isn't it an advantage to know that you are paying no more for your goods than other people, who may chance to be better posted as to the value of what they buy?

Isn't it an advantage to buy where everything is represented? Where wool is called wool; silk, silk; kid, kid; etc.?

Isn't it an advantage to buy where no risk is run? Where, if goods are not as ordered, they can be returned at the expense of the House, and the money refunded?

Isn't it an advantage to have your orders filled as soon as received, and with care, taste and discretion?

Isn't it an advantage to have small orders attended to as carefully as large orders?

If these things are so, send to Weinstock & Lubin, Sacramento, Cal., for Illustrated Catalogue. It gives prices and full information about Wearing Apparel of every description. Free to any address.
