San Francisco Society.

The Bee hits from the shoulder as follows:

A great deal of fun, mixed with considerable envious and bitter malice, is being poked at H. M. de Young because of his alleged unsuccessful attempts to climb the social ladder in San Francisco. We know nothing of Mr. de Young's aspirations in that direction; but if he really has that ambition, he is endeavoring to pluck "the Dead Sea fruit that turns to ashes on the lips." What is the alleged society of San Francisco that men should hunger and be athirst for it? Does it not embrace embezzlers who have hidden in the coal bunks of departing vessels to escape justice; State officials, whom the statute of limitations and a lax jury system have saved from San Quentin; ex-keepers of low sailor gin mills, now rolling in wealth wrung from defrauded widows and orphans; middle-aged libertines who have been publicly horse-whipped by the mothers of seduced daughters-together with various criminals of higher or lower degree? We have very little respect for them, but we have equally as little for Mr. de Young if he be really endeavoring to lower himself to the level of such a crowd.

When baby was sick, we gave her Cutbush. When she was a Child she cried for Cutbush. When she became Miss, she clung to Cutbush. When she had Children, they cry for Cutbush.

Clapp, in a brief and pointed manner, gave varied reasons for the passage of the bill.

Messrs. Drury and Williamson also favored the bill. Passed unanimously.

At 12:30 Assembly adjourned.

Wednesday Evening's Entertainment.

The entertainment given on Wednesday evening at the Opera House is one in which some of the most talented and best known people of the State take part, reinforced by Mrs. Edgerton, a lady from Sacramento who is probably the most accomplished reader on the coast.

She is a woman of great beauty and fine stage presence and as her reputation has already preceded her much interest is taken in this city regarding her first appearance here. A feature of the performance will be the rendition of "Ostler Joe," the poem which created such a general rumpus in Washington society when read by Mrs. Potter Brown. The prudish society of the National Capital pronounced it positively shocking and indecent, but the better taste of the more sensible pronounced it a finished piece of literary work with a good moral, something which could only shock people who were anxious to be electrified.

The standing of the ladies engaged in the performance precludes the idea that anything of an outrageous character will be indulged in.

Mrs. J. A. Stevens of Virginia City will appear in vocal parts and Miss Letitia Aldrich, a niece of Senator Stewart, will give a recitation. Mrs. D. A. Bender, Miss Emma Friend and Charley Laughton represent the regular home talent.

Tickets are selling very rapidly and a full house and fashionable audience is assured.

Death of John Roach.

NEW YORK, Jan. 10.-John Roach, the great ship builder, died at 8 o'clock this morning. The cancerous growth had eaten its way into the side of the neck below the angle of the jaw, involving large arteries which become liable to rupture at any moment. Roach was in great pain all day yesterday, and to give him relief large doses of morphine were injected. Only the members and a few intimate friends of the family were admitted to the house yesterday, but nobody other than the nurses or physicians was allowed to see Roach. Deceased leaves a widow, three sons and one daughter, all grown.

The Rink Reopened.

Last evening the Skating Rink was reopened by Sammy Cohn and Clarence Parker. There was a gay crowd on the floor-yes; on the floor was the place. Many of our solons tried the skates with varied success. Senator Hardesty took up more room than anybody and Briggs is as graceful on wheels as a swan. The Taylor sisters, Maud and May, did some wonderful skating and their musical work combined with their astounding evolutions brought down rounds of applause. The rink will run all Winter.

Today's Event

Today will witness the election of a United States Senator. Some six months ago the APPEAL stated that W. M. Stewart would be the man and today's joint ballot will confirm that idea. There will be a vast crowd there today to witness the end of one of the most rousing campaigns ever seen in Nevada. Each house will vote separately and then the two will meet in joint ballot which action will be the final touch in the affair. All the ladies will be on hand and you had better get early to secure seats.

The Brokers' Bill.

Up to the present writing no bill has been introduced to punish the rascally brokers who short customers' stock. Governor Adams made a very sensible suggestion looking to the punishment of such frauds, and Senator Westerfield has given notice of a bill to punish embezzlement. We hope this is the bill. It ought to leave no loophole for such fellows as the Frankels to creep through. Let the bill be copper rivited and without flaw.

-For the best horse liniment now in the market go to Doc. Benton. It is his own make, and warranted to beat all the fancy brands.

ALL SPORTS.

-Stocks are stronger.

-Wizard Oil at Geo. Thaxter's.

-Judge Rising was in the city yesterday.

-Nine cases of new shoes at Burlingtons.

-They propose to amend the anti-Treat bill.

-Pete Musgrove won the foot race on Sunday.

-I. O. O. F. dance and installation on Wednesday night.

-There are rumors of a strike in the Mexican and Scorpion.

-Mr. and Mrs. Charles Thompson have returned from California.

-The three Frankels cannot be found as they have sailed for Europe.

-Judge M. A. Murphy will make Carson his home and practice law here.

-BORN-In Carson City, Jan. 10, 1887, to the wife of F. G. Folsom, a ten pound boy.

-Summer won the pigeon shooting match against Gregory scoring 40 birds out of 50.

-The seats are going rapidly for Faust and Marguerite. This is a reliable theatrical event, and will bear witnessing.

-Brown, publisher of the Footlight, the leading Democratic daily of Virginia, was in the city yesterday.

-Jack Magee, whom every one in Carson knew and thought a great deal of died of a carbuncle on his neck in Portland.

-Ex-Assemblyman Hammill contemplates giving a lecture in the Opera House at an early date, in defense of his anti-Treat bill.

-C. W. Irish, the new Surveyor General, has arrived in Reno. The Democratic members of the Legislature are making a big kick.

-The Tribune calls attention to the unusual amount of foul lan guage on the streets. The air is getting to be absolutely thick with it, and a few arrests and punishments would have a good effect.

-The Ichi Ban tea and coffee store next to Wells, Fargo & Co.'s was crowded last night. A large number of valuable prizes were drawn by the customers; some received gold watches, pictures, rings, etc.

-Some say "Consumption can't be cured." Ayer's Cherry Pectoral, as proved by forty years' experience, will cure this disease when not already advanced beyond the reach of medical aid. Even then its use affords very great relief, and ensures refreshing sleep.

-No sufferer from any scrofulous disease, who will fairly try Ayer's Sarsaparilla, need despair of a cure. It will purge the blood of all impurities, thereby destroying the germs from which scrofula is developed, and infuse new life and vigor throughout the whole organization.

-Speeches will be made in the Senate this morning placing the several candidates for U. S. Senator in nomination. Senator Williams will nominate Stewart and Senator Westerfield will name Cassidy or Adams. In the Assembly the speeches will be made in the afternoon at 3 o'clock. It is reported that Mr. Drury will nominate Stewart and that Mr. Pike will do the honors for the Democratic side of the house.

Doctor Siominski.

The celebrated surgeon of the Russian army, has arrived in Carson, and will commence his course of lectures upon the diseases of both sexes. The doctor is a thorough, educated physician, a graduate of three medical colleges, and his lectures are very instructive. The doctor carries with him over 500 models of the human body showing all the diseased organs as they appear in nature.
