Special order for 2 o'clock P. M., Fish Bond Bill, under consideration at 2:30 P. M.

Fish's Bond Bill was discussed at considerable length by Fish, Williams, Westerfield, Sharon, Pougade, Foley, Maute and Powell. It was passed and Foley gave notice of reconsideration.

Westerfield's Joint and Concurrent Resolution depriving polygamists of the election franchise in Nevada passed unanimously.

Bond Assurance Companies.

Would it not be a good idea to allow inter-State and foreign assurance companies to go on the bonds of State and county officials? This will knock out the straw bond system and secure the taxpayers. Not one-fifth of the bonds given in Nevada today could be collected. An assurance company pays while bondsmen do not.

Startling Testimony.

LONDON, Jan. 28.—The Secretary of the Hebrew Dramatic Club, which was giving the entertainment in the hall at Spit-fields in which the panic occurred on Jan. 18, resulting in the loss of a number of lives, has testified that the panic was caused by the action of the Secretary of a rival club.

Heavily Drugged.

People who say that they do not care a damn what newspapers say or don't say should remember the fate of Senator Gallagher. He wanted to run for Governor last Fall. The papers never mentioned his name and he dropped out of sight like a man who had fallen down a Comstock mining shaft.

On the Way.

Mr. Stevenson has been tracing up his dynamo, and by a postal card from the agent of the railroad at Argentine, Kansas, learns that it passed there on January 23d, so that before another dark of the moon Reno will be lit by electricity.

—There will be a meeting this evening of citizens interested in the Indian School at Treasurer Coffin's office at 7 o'clock. A full attendance is desired.

ALL SORTS.

—Wizard Oil at Geo. Thaxter's.

—Remember the Collins-Phelan race at the Rink tonight.

—The Legislature has been rather quiet the last few days.

—Mr. Taggart, editor of the Enterprise, was in the city yesterday.

—A reduction in the freight on wood to the Comstock is promised February 1st.

—The APPEAL office acknowledges the receipt of the Attorney General report.

—FOR SALE—The residence now occupied by Mr. Preble and family. Inquire at residence.

—Marshland is the name of the new postoffice at Fort Churchill and Wilbur Marsh is the postmaster.

—The APPEAL acknowledges the receipt of photographs of the Grismer-Davies troupe from Louis Morganstein.

—One of the richest mines in Silver City is in ground located 20 years ago by Dan De Quille, the veteran journalist.

—Fanny Weizal, the girl who killed her betrayer in Sacramento, was acquitted by a jury amid the cheers of the Court room.

—The proposition of making Oliver Roberts night watchman at the Capitol meets the warm approval of every Republican in this county.

—Jim Townsend has returned from his trip to Hawthorne. Jim has struck a big gold ledge down there and will retire from active journalism.

—The boy who killed his father in San Francisco will doubtless be acquitted by the tender-hearted jury on the grounds that he is a poor orphan.

—The ladies of the Episcopal Church will hold one of their pleasant socials at the Armory Hall Feb. 8. Dancing and refreshments. Admission 50 cents.

—Ayer's Sarsaparilla wonderfully improves the complexion, and brings to old and young the bloom of health. As a purifier of the blood it has no equal.

—Let it be positively understood that Schneider & Simas, the photographers opposite the Mint, are the artists selected to make the official State group for 1887.

—The average expenses per annum of the State of Nevada are only $276,931.31. The actual disbursements from the State Treasury for 1886 were $457,140.56

—The Homographic Chart published by the APPEAL office this year is pronounced the best ever printed in the State. It is a decided improvement on the old clumsy affairs of years ago.

—In its account of Governor Stevenson's reception the Reno Gazette said: "Miss Dora Clark, niece of Senator Westerfield of Lyon county, was conceded to be the most beautiful lady present."

—Stop that cough, by the use of Ayer's Cherry Pectoral—the best specific ever known for all diseases of the throat and lungs. It will soothe the rough feeling in your throat, give the vocal organs flexibility and vitality, and will enable you to breathe and speak clearly.

—The following nomination appears in the Congressional Record of the 20th instant. Mason B. Bartlett, to be Postmaster at Eureka, in the county of Eureka and State of Nevada, in the place of William J. Smith, whose commission expires January 29, 1887.

—Speaking of Irish, the San Francisco Alta says: He was appointed to Nevada, not by the procurement of his brother, but, we suppose, because he is a practical surveyor and grew up on the frontier with the public land system. His predecessor in the Nevada office, General Powning, is neither a surveyor nor a draughtsman, and perhaps the Land Department had good reason for sending an officer there who is both.

—Lady Randolph Churchill's reply to the interviewer who wanted her to tell him about her flipperty-gibbet husband's political opinions, is fraught with lots of solid sense. She didn't know them, and if she did, she wouldn't tell. This is not precisely like another pretty wife's naive answer, when some one asked her the other day if ex-Governor Long wouldn't be gratified by the nomination for Senate. "Oh, no! he never thinks of such a thing. Why, I don't believe he even knows when the election takes place!"

THE COAL STRIKE.

How It is Affecting New York and Vicinity.

NEW YORK, Jan. 29.—The business on the river front this morning is almost completely paralyzed, and with the exception of a small amount of freight being moved by green hands on one or two piers, very little work has been done on the docks of the principal steamship companies since the strike of the longshoremen commenced. The strikers are confident they will succeed in gaining their demands. Their next move will be to get the pilots on the ocean steamship service to come out. The pilots are organized, and should the order go out for them to quit work, the strikers hope to stop all trans-Atlantic steamers from sailing in or out of port. This, the Union men claim, will compel the steamship companies to come to terms.

At the National line dock this morning sixty men who were picked up from various sources were laid off, as they were incompetent. The Wyoming was being unloaded by non-union men and sailors of the vessels. The latter were paid 30 cents an hour in addition to their pay as seamen. The green hands were immediately taken in charge by members of the Longshoremen's Union, and were organized and became part of the strikers' union.

The Erin is not more than half loaded. She should have sailed yesterday. By Monday the vessel may be ready for sea. The Helvetia of the same line lies at the other side of the dock, with the bulk of her cargo still aboard.

Affairs were just about the same at the Guion line docks. The usual number of men employed there is from 150 to 200.

The Inyo Marble Quarry.

Not long ago it was given out that the Inyo marble quarry was a failure, but the following from the San Francisco Bulletin would indicate differently. It says:

A company, the "Inyo Marble Company," has recently been formed in this city to bring marble to market. A mill to saw the marble has been sent up to the quarries. It is supplied with the modern marble sawing mechanism, and sand is secured from the beach at Owen's Lake. Cutting the flint-like rock is a slow process; an inch an hour in a block six feet long is the average speed. Israel Lewis, of Sacramento, a marble expert, is the Superintendent of the quarries and mill, and O. F. Von Rhein of this city, is Secretary of the Company. It is about 300 miles from the mill to Carson, and almost that distance thence to this city. Italian marble now brings from $10 to $20 a cubic foot in this market. A ton of the Inyo marble contains about twelve cubic feet, so that the value may be readily computed. Large shipments of the various kinds of marble are soon to be made to this city for the inspection of all interested. It is understood that some of the Inyo marble will be used in the new Inventor's Institute building on Market street.

Pneuro Pneumonia in Illinois.

SPRINGFIELD, Ill., Jan. 28.—The State Live Stock Commission delivered to the Speaker of the House this morning an answer to the resolution passed by the House last week requesting information as to the condition of pneuro-pneumonia in the State. The answer affirms that 2000 more cattle that have been exposed to the disease will be quarantined, in addition to the 2500 a-ready quarantined. This will be followed by an appraisal, and the diseased and exposed cattle will be slaughtered.

Served the Papers.

A constable in Bath, N. Y., having tried in vain to serve a paper on a citizen of that town, staggered into his yard one afternoon, made his way to the back piazza, and there flopped down in apparently drunken sleep "Go 'way, go 'way," said the citizen's wife, "er I'll call my husband." "A-hall ri," murmured the constable, beginning to snore. Whereupon in bounced the woman and out bounced her husband, and the constable sobered up and served the paper in less time than it takes to tell it.

The Convict Labor Bill.

Maute's bill repealing the convict labor law which passed the Senate unanimously will soon be before the House. It was introduced by a Republican and should be passed by a unanimous Republican vote.
