A Good Idea.

George Hark, one of our Ormsby Assemblymen, proposes a plan which ought to be incorporated in a bill. He proposes to change the order of roll-call every week by printing the names on cards and shaking them up in a hat, instead of printing them in alphabetical order. This, he says, will make men show their hands on bills that they trim on when they want to make political capital. It is not an uncommon thing that a man low on the roll-call says: "I'll vote for your bill if you need me, but if I can avoid it I won't." He keeps a careful tally, and if his vote is needed he gives it, and if the 21 ayes have been gathered in he votes "with the people."

A bill to prevent this trimming would certainly pass.

Prince Metusalem.

This sparkling opera was given last night to a large and enthusiastic audience. At last Carson has been visited by a first class company. Miss Winston is a charming woman and thorough artist. The Queen's Lace Handkerchief tonight. This is a light opera of world-wide reputation, and ought to draw another full house.

THE MASQUERADE.

The sixth biennial masquerade ball of the Carson Guard came off according to programme at the Opera House last evening, and eclipsed all former efforts of the company. Long before the grand march every available seat was occupied by anxious auditors. The grand march began about 9:30, and such a large and miscellaneous gathering of merry makers was never seen in Carson. It is estimated that over 300 masquers were in line, representing the grotesque, the grave and the ridiculous. As near as possible a list of the characters assumed is given below:

The APPEAL congratulates the Company on the complete success of their sixth biennial.

ALL SORTS.

—Wizard Oil at Geo. Thaxter's.

—BORN—In this city Feb. 23, to the wife of David Bizler, a son.

—The members of the Young Ladies' Club are requested to meet at Mrs. Bray's this afternoon at 2 o'clock sharp. Business of importance.

—The disfiguring on the face, the sunken eye, the palid complexion, indicate that there is something wrong going on within. Expel the lurking foe to health, Ayer's Sarsaparilla was devised for that purpose; and does it.

—Mr. C. Latta has been re-appointed Janitor of the Capitol building, and Mr. Henry Daugherty, Capitol gardener. Both have been worthy public servants. Mr. Oliver Roberts succeeds Mr. Webb as watchman of the building.

—As an article for the toilet, Ayer's Hair Vigor stands unrivalled. It cleanses the scalp and preserves it from scurf and dandruff, cures itching and humors, restores faded or gray hair to its original dark color, and promotes its growth.

Notice.

No. 65 won the diamond ring, raffled for on the 20th of Jan. If not called for within 10 days from date, will be returned to the original owner, unless objections are made by those holding tickets: if so, call at Cap. Avery's Hole-in-the-Wall and sign their names, so that some conclusion may be arrived at as to the disposal of the ring.
