

This paper begins volume 30 today, and there are lots more to come.

THE LAW OF LIBEL.

The remarks of Judge Hornblower in the libel case of Tuska against Hearst, of the San Francisco Examiner, Monday, are much to be commended. The Judge took the rational ground that it is against public policy to place restraints on the liberty of the press.

All the recent authorities unite in agreeing that malice is the essence of criminal intent, and such a libel is generally so apparent that it does more harm to the writer than anybody.

The Case of Jimmy Hope.

Governor Hill, of New York, has written a letter to Governor Bartlett, of California, concerning the requisition of Jimmy Hope. Several months since this notorious burglar finished a term at San Quentin, and as he is wanted in New York to serve out sentences for similar bulgarious crimes, the proper papers were sent there to take him on his release.

The doctors of Los Angeles, like the real estate dealers, are original in their ways of making money. They have a new scheme for vaccination in which to save the expense of "points of vaccine virus".

There is considerable speculation as to the nationality of the participants in the recent yacht race, and in order to settle the matter we have as authority, the Spirit of the Times for the statement that the Dauntless was built at Mystic Conn., in 1866, and the Coronet was built at Brooklyn, N. Y., in 1885.

There is a prospect that Jaegerine, the wonderful swordswoman can be induced to come up here for a night. She has proven a splendid card below and has now accepted an engagement at the Alcazar, that the ladies can have a chance to see her wonderful work with a yard of cold steel.

Governor Stevenson, of Nevada, with wife and child is expected to pay a visit to his brother, the Governor of Idaho, sometime in May. The two brothers have not seen each other since their boyhood days, for over twenty years, and no doubt the meeting will be characterized by the telling of many anecdotes of how they attained their present prominent positions—Black foot Reporter.

The stock buyers are now anxiously watching the fight between Superintendent Patton and the Con. Virginia gas. It is proposed to inject carbonic acid gas and smother the fire in the lower levels.

ROYAL BAKING POWDER Absolutely Pure. This powder never varies. A marvel of purity, strength and wholesomeness. More economical than the ordinary kinds, and cannot be sold in competition with the multitude of low test, short weight, alum or phosphate powders.
