

A BULL TRUD AFFAIR

The telegraph informs us that President Cleveland's foes in New York City are using his mistakes to kill him off. Most of them, it is stated, had made up their minds that the President would be renominated, and they could not afford to antagonize him.

THE RENO METHOD.

In the local columns is an account of the way the live town of Reno goes out of its way to populate its cemetery. Reno seems unable to make a move in any direction without casting undeserved slurs on Carson.

Manufacturing Squirrel Scalps. "This morning," says the Times-Review, of Saturday, "Indian Aleck presented himself before Justice Hillman with a lot of about 400 squirrel scalps for which he desired a certificate, and that dignity, with one hand holding his nostrils, proceeded to earn the official fee of 25 cents by counting them.

A Presidential Boor. Not long ago the artist's club of Sidney, Australia, embracing some six hundred members, sent a painting with their compliments, to Mrs. Cleveland. Mr. Cleveland sent the painting back with a snubbing letter of refusal.

Any gentleman would have accepted it in the proper way and acknowledged it with a polite letter of thanks.

Cleveland however, who seems a natural boor, coupled with the usual manners of a beggar on horseback, made a public exhibition of his bad breeding, which makes his friends hang their heads in shame.

John Verzan has struck flowing water out at Shoshone at an elevation of over 7,000 feet. He has made two "bores." In the first the water flowing when the pipe (1 1/2 inch) had reached 65 feet. In the second at a depth of 110 feet a flow of eight gallons per minute was obtained.
