

THE KNIGHTS OF LABOR.

It is to the credit of the Knights of Labor chief, Mr. Powderly, that one of the Assemblies of the Order should have withdrawn from the organization because he insists upon strict enforcement of the regulation of liquor-dealing as properly with in the lines of industry for which the organization was erected.

Powderly is beyond all question right in insisting that liquor shall not become an appreciable factor in the Order which he is the head, and which relates solely and only to the betterment of the working classes, skilled and unskilled.

The Examiner is doing some good, courageous work exposing the affairs at Folsom Prison, the rottenness in the Police department, and the deep-rooted corruption in the Courts of Justice.

Of course, all the people implicated deny the charges, and demand an immediate investigation. This is always the way that such charges are met, and the old injured innocent chestnut is worked for all it is worth.

Chief Crowley has been charged with venal methods in the Police department. We think that Crowley will show clean hands when it comes to trial.
