

MORNING APPEAL.

SATURDAY, AUGUST 25

FOR PRESIDENT.

BENJAMIN HARRISON

OF INDIANA.

FOR VICE PRESIDENT.

LEVI P. MORTON

OF NEW YORK.

PROTECTION TO THE HOME.

The Women's National Republican Committee have issued a stirring circular to the voters of the United States, calling upon them to vote for Harrison and Protection.

The circular says that the American Home must be protected, and that American girls employed in the workshops of the United States must not be degraded by being compelled to work for the wages accepted by the laborers of Europe. The stirring appeal will rouse men all over the country to work for the ticket.

A Question.

The Chronicle holds that the manufacturers place the goods they sell at as high a figure as the tariff will allow them.

Now, calico is sold in England at 5 cents a yard. The duty is 5 cents. Now, 5 and 5 make 10, the price it ought to sell at in New York under Protection if the Chronicle's theory was correct.

It can be purchased in New York at from 2 1/2 to 5 cents a yard.

How is this?

Unmitigated Democratic Gull.

Of all the miserable and mistaken devices of Democratic folly this is the worst, namely, to counterfeit the badge of the Grand Army and insert in its center a portrait of the man who sent a substitute to the war, afterwards allowed the substitute to die in a poor house, went fishing on Decoration day, tried to surrender the trophies won by our soldiers' valor, and spends most of his time in writing ribald votes of soldiers' pension bills.

Some years ago several ambitious people in the House of Representatives wanted to debate with James G. Blaine on the tariff. He allowed them to get in an go him a rattle. Can anybody now recall the names of any of these people?

Now Carlisle wants to debate with the Champion of American Protection.

It will be like the case of the seedy actor who was anxious to play with Forrest. Forrest played the Gladiator, and the actor was one of the attacking party. When he was thrown off the stage by way of the side flies someone queried:

"Have you been playing with Forrest?"
"No," was the reply, "he's been playing with me."

A Cleveland, Ohio, special to the Chicago Inter-Ocean says: A bombshell was thrown into the ranks of the Democracy recently by the unexpected action of the W. J. Hart Club, a political organization composed of prominent Democratic Israelites. The club had a meeting last night and almost unanimously resolved to desert the Democracy and join the Republican party. H. Levy, the President of the club, expressed the sentiments of the members when he said that he had looked the ground all over and came to the conclusion that the Republican party is the party for Israelites.

One of the most notable of recent conversions from the ranks of the Democracy is that of General James R. Chalmers, of Arkansas, an ex-Confederate. In a public speech made not long ago he denounced the suppression of Republican votes in the South, and denied that "the right to intimidate voters or corrupt the ballot" was any part of the cause for which the South fought. The South is kept solid for the Democratic ticket by means of fraud and violence, and the fact constitutes a national disgrace and shame.
