

FOR PRESIDENT, BENJAMIN HARRISON OF INDIANA.

FOR VICE PRESIDENT, LEVI P. MORTON OF NEW YORK.

To Prevent Fraud.

Several parties, who fear some job will be sprung next Saturday by reason of surreptitious split tickets, are asking how it will be possible to prevent some outside Democrats getting those tickets printed, etc., etc.

The APPEAL would suggest that the proprietors of the APPEAL and Tribune each sign an agreement not to print any tickets of any description on Saturday, and also, to ensure against split tickets being printed in Reno or Virginia, to have the candidates at the meeting on Thursday night select some distinguishing mark, and have some person whom they may select stamp this with indelible ink on the back of the ticket, so that when it is folded the mark may be seen. The Judges could see as each vote went in that it was the regular ticket, authorized by the candidates, and if tickets were handed in without such stamp, the candidates could be informed of it, and the origin of these tickets soon ferreted out.

After the stamping of these tickets was done, the stamp could be destroyed in the presence of the candidates on Friday night and on Saturday morning they could all join in saying, "The game is made, let her go Gallagher."

Tell It All.

Col. Irish of the Alta in a speech at Oakland told his audience that the rebellion was brought on by unjust taxation.

Why did not the eloquent Colonel tell his hearers the whole story? The South forced protective tariff on the North.

The North quickly adopted itself to the situation by going into manufacturing industries and the South was too lazy to get out of its old ruts.

Then the South kicked up a row and wanted free trade.

The South said naturally enough, "You have forced us into protection, we have tried it and like it, you have failed to take the advantage of the situation and now want us to change back to your old fashion way. We decline."

Then the South began to sulk and preach nullification and then it went to war and got licked because it was wrong.

That is the whole history of the case.

The writer was in Virginia City on Saturday last and found Bartine's speech to be the talk of the town. All agreed that it was a temperate, logical talk, to which no one could take exception; a speech that made votes, and the editor of the APPEAL met one man on the street who admitted that the speech had cleared up many things on the tariff and he would vote for Harrison. Bartine's canvass will help his own fight, and reap votes for the party all over the State.

Harrison's speech on Saturday last to the Irish delegation that visited him, was a masterpiece of winning eloquence. It will capture 100,000 Irish votes, and yet there is not a word in it that the veriest Irish hater in America could find fault with. Talk about Blaine's adroitness. Harrison is the better politician of the two, and the more eloquent. Harrison has made a good many speeches and never "put his foot in it" yet.

It is said that the $12,000 contribution to the fund for the relief of the yellow fever sufferers was the gift of Levi P. Morton. Mr. Cleveland's charity took the form of a $10,000 donation to a fund for his re-election. It is now in order for some Democratic paper to say that Mr. Morton's charity was prompted by a desire to catch Southern votes.

New castle peaches. The APPEAL office has just received a box of Newcastle peaches from Col. Meger. They are the largest variety known and weigh over a pound apiece. Such peaches come very fine in a box, they are so large. They are golden in color, free stone and melt in the mouth. A man who eats one of these peaches in the morning feels happy all day.

ROYAL BAKING POWDER Absolutely Pure. The powder never varies. A marvel of purity, strength and wholesomeness. More economical than the ordinary kinds, and cannot be sold in competition with the multitude of low test, short weight alum or phosphate powders. Sold only in cans.
