CARSON THEATER.

JOHN PIPER, Manager.

FAIR WEEK.

ENGAGEMENT EXTRAORDINARY!

NEIL WARNER

From the cradle he was a scholar, and a ripe and good one. He has appeared in a number of the finest theatres, supported by a select company, charging programme each evening, producing the following repertoire: Monday evening,

INGOMAR, THE BARBARIAN!

To be followed by Hunchback. Time and the Hour. Othello. The Geneva Cross. Matinee, Ingomar

An Able array of Acknowledged Actors under the Management of Wm. Hamary, assisted by Joe. E. Mount.

Popular Prices, 50 and 75 Cts. Seats on sale at Tobriner's.

ALL PORTS.

No split tickets today. John Mackay went below last evening. H. M. Yerrington went to the Bay last evening. Sam Lewis won in three straight heats and enabled the Carsonites to win considerable money at the Fair.

Just received, a new line of Boys' full suits and Men's red knit underwear, at A. Cohn's Emporium.

The Masonic fraternity will lay the corner stone of the public building with imposing ceremonies on the 29th.

The Gazette is in error when it says the Constitutional Amendments must be voted on this Fall. They must pass the next Legislature again and then be voted on.

Notwithstanding the daily smashups and delays both east and west on the Central Pacific railroad, the regular invoice of gambling utensils has promptly arrived and is being distributed. Nearly every saloon has some kind of a new fangled game.—Gazette.

Canker humors of every description, whether in the mouth, throat, or stomach, are expelled from the system by the use of Ayer's Sarsaparilla. No other remedy can compare with this, as a cure for all diseases originating in impure or impoverished blood.

Some few weeks ago it was stated that Senator Fair had purchased the Lick House of San Francisco. A reporter called on him to ask the price, and he stated that he not only had not bought the house, but he did not want it and would never think of buying it. Day before yesterday he purchased it for a million and a quarter. Why is it that rich men always feel it incumbent to lie like thunder about their real estate transactions.

Advice to Mothers.

Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup should always be used for children teething. It soothes the child, softens the gums, allays the pain, cures wind colic, and is the best remedy for diarrhoea. Twenty five cents a bottle.

For Justice of the Peace.

Lewis Doran announces himself as a candidate for Justice of the Peace. Mr. Doran was once State Controller and represented Esmeralda county both in the Senate and Assembly. He is a man who thoroughly understands the duties of the office and would make a just and upright official.

Stock For The Fair.

Burk's famous herd of prize Holstein Cattle will be at the District Fair on Monday also the big Norman draught horses, Clydesdale and Gallaway cattle exhibited at the State Fair.

The Fair Managers are straining every nerve to open in fine style on Monday and Rene, Virginia City and Carson Valley will be on hand in large force.

Syrup of Figs

For sale by George C. Thaxter, agent Carson. jan1

Chairman Quay has frequent talks with the Republican Senators. The more they see of Quay the better satisfied are the Congressmen that the campaign management is in good hands. He does not encourage over confidence, but it is found that any statements he makes are based upon knowledge and not upon loose reports from enthusiastic partisans. It is well understood that the Chairman feels the Republicans today have New York, and he does not intend they shall lose their grip. Indiana is also well in hand, and an aggressive campaign will be entered upon which promises to surprise the Democrats.

Erank McCollough and Hume Yerrington have collected $1200 for our District Fair.

VISITING MILITARY MEN.

The Veteran Guard of California Visits Custer Post. Last evening three Pullman cars arrived in this city with a detachment of California Veterans on their return from the 22nd. National Encampment, held at Columbus, Ohio. They were met at the depot by the officers and comrades of Custer Post G. A. R. and escorted to Armory Hall.

They then marched to the Arlington House where supper was served and the regular drinking from the same canteen (glasses.)

THE SPRINGFIELD RIFLE.

The Military Disgusted With Them.

The Government has recently adopted the old Springfield rifle as the arm of the United States militia and now the regular rifle teams when they shoot are obliged to use these guns.

At the contest at the Fair on Wednesday there was a great deal of military profanity indulged in because of the slow action of the locks.

Dr. Lee says that the only way to shoot and not get tired is to pull the trigger. lay the gun down on the ground and then go and get some lunch and beer at the tent. Then come back, take aim and hold the gun until it goes off.

It would seem that while the Government was hunting antiquated weapons they might have gone back to the flint lock gun or the Queen Bess blunderbuss. There are still several old fashioned models in the British Museum that might serve as patterns for a U. S. Government arm. The action of the piece reminds one of the Gold Hill whiskey sold in early days. A man who took a drink did not get drunk of the liquor in Gold Hill before he reached Placerville and didn't sober up until he got back.

Neil Warner in Ingomar.

Monday Neil Warner, the celebrated tragedian and melodramatic actor, will commence an engagement of the week at Carson Theatre and for initial performance will present the beautiful drama of "Ingomar," Mr. Warner appearing in the title role. The APPEAL has it on the authority of George Osborne, the well-known actor, who visited Reno several months ago that Mr. Warner is one of the best actors and elocutionists in America, and that when he retired from the stage to accept the Professorship of Elocution in the College of Montreal the stage lost one of its brightest lights. Mr. Osborne did not know that the subject of his talk had been unable to abandon the sock and buskin, and spoke of him as being lost to the stage. Mr. Osborne is a judge of what constitutes a good actor, and his endorsement will go further with our people than a column of newspaper platitudes, the bragging of Mr. Warner's irrepressible advance agent, Joe Mount.

The repertoire for the week will be as follows, Monday, Ingomar. Tuesday, "Hunchback." Wednesday, Time and the Hour. Thursday, Othello. Friday, Geneva Cross. Saturday Matinee, Ingomar. Reserved seats at Tobriner's. Prices 75 cts. reserved and admission, 50 cts. Benches.

Judge Sanford's action in the Cannon case at Salt Lake makes it quite probable that he has sold himself to the Mormon leaders. The price of the fellow is all that bothers the public mind now.
