The wife of Prof. Hardin the writing master presented him with a bouncing boy on New Year's day. Happy New Year.

The immense sale of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy has been produced to a great extent, by people who have been cured by it telling their friends and neighbors of its good qualities and urging them to try it. The most severe cold will soon yield to its soothing effects. For Sale by G. C. Thaxter.

The dry cold weather of the early winter months is productive of a great deal of croup among children. Mothers should be on the lookout for it, and be prepared to arrest it as soon as the first symptoms appear. True croup never comes without a warning; a day or two before the attack the child will become hoarse, and that symptom is soon followed by a peculiar, rough cough. If Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is given as soon as this hoarseness or cough appears, all danger and anxiety may be avoided. It has never failed, even in the most severe cases. There is no danger in giving the Remedy for it contains no injurious substance. For Sale by G. C. Thaxter.

At Burlington's.

Insurance Extortions.
 The Truckee Republican talks as follows: The feeling throughout the State is general that the insurance trust should be broken up. It is certainly time that a stop was put to their extortionate practices. When the companies only pay 35 per cent. for their premiums in fire losses, it is conclusive evidence that they are robbing the public. Let the Legislature attend to this matter.

The Nevada rates are still higher and let it be remembered that we have a Legislature also.

Petty Larceny.

Yesterday a lady from Empire was having her picture taken at Marston's and left her purse containing a few dollars in the front room when a man stepped in and stole it.

She saw him a few minutes before eating peanuts on the sidewalk and remembered that he wore light pants.

There was not much excitement or drinking in this city or New Year's day. The eclipse seemed to frighten a lot of old toppers who thought they had the tremens.

Bryan is just now engaged in throwing himself very lively with his restaurant. The window would tempt almost anyone to break his Lenten fast.

Chip o' the Old Block.
 A union of boisterous mirth and old-fashioned melodrama was accomplished with entire success last night at Third Avenue Theatre. The result was made possible by the well-directed efforts of a dozen actors and actresses who had been selected with a view to individual ability, and yet had been grouped so that the entertainment became harmonious, if now and then exaggerated. The vehicle for this unusual achievement was "A Chip o' the Old Block," from the pen of Herbert Hall Winslow, a young author, and one of promise. He has retained the accepted forms of melodrama while departing from the conventionality of burlesque, and between the two the night passed quickly and enjoyably.—N. Y. Sun.

Gillis-Gouldard.
 The APPEAL acknowledges the receipt of several kinds of wine and six or seven brands of wedding cake from the nuptials of D. R. Gillis and Miss Belle Gouldard, who were married on New Year's day in this city by Rev. G. R. Davis. Mr. Gillis the popular yard master, concluded to try his hand as a house master, and his beautiful bride is essentially a Carson girl having been born here, raised here and married here. The people of Carson will wish them a long life mingled with plenty of happiness.

The brides maid was Miss Carrie Eisey and the grooms man was Dorsey Noteware. No cards.

Who Made Them?

Detective Hume has sent out a circular describing the rope-ladder used by the train robbers last Monday near Clipper Gap, and offers a reward of $50 to the first person who informs him where and by whom the blacksmith work was done. He says the rings of the ladder are fifteen inches long, and made of half-inch round iron, with an eye turned on each end.

DIED.—In this city, January 2, 1889, Mrs. J. E. Thompson, mother of Paul Thompson, aged 71 years.

The funeral will take place from the family residence on Musser street, Thursday, Jan. 3d, at 3 o'clock p. m. Friends and acquaintances are respectfully invited to attend.

Deceased was born in Mecklenburg, Virginia, and was past 71 years of age at the time of her death. The good lady was an old resident of Carson and much respected by all who knew her.

Leete the man who skipped away from here a few weeks ago, leaving a track of hard debts behind him, writes the APPEAL that he is about to start proceedings for libel. There are no strings on any of his class who wish to sue the APPEAL for libel. Those who knew him, thought the article very mildly put. In future all the frauds who leave this city under similar circumstances will be shown up in the same way.

Frank McCullough appears to be the only man in the field for the position of Warden of the Penitentiary.

His incumbency has been marked with success ever since the day he took charge of the place.

It is rumored that Brannan and Elliot will have a thin glove fight sometime during the legislative session. Elliot thrashed a mulatto here two years ago.
