At Burlington's.

Just received a full line of Ladies' French Kid Dongola and Straight Grain Goat Hand Sewed Waukenphasts of the latest styles and patterns.

The immense sale of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy has been produced to a great extent, by people who have been cured by it telling their friends and neighbors of its good qualities and urging them to try it. The most severe cold will soon yield to its soothing effects. For Sale by G. C. Thaxter.

At Burlington's.

Just received a full line of Gents' Kangaroo and English Porpoise shoes. These are something new and are warranted to wear out three pair of soles.

The dry cold weather of the early winter months is productive of a great deal of croup among children. Mothers should be on the lookout for it, and be prepared to arrest it as soon as the first symptoms appear. True croup never comes without a warning; a day or two before the attack the child will become hoarse, and that symptom is soon followed by a peculiar, rough cough. If Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is given as soon as this hoarseness or cough appears, all danger and anxiety may be avoided. It has never failed, even in the most severe cases. There is no danger in giving the Remedy for it contains no injurious substance. For Sale by G. C. Thaxter.

 —Senator Sawyer is at the Ormsby.
 —Assemblyman Cheeney arrived yesterday.
 —Almost everyone you meet has a bad cough.
 —Some of the members have already picked out their desks.
 —The Tribune claims that Cap Lapham is dead broke. Hardly.
 —For Rent. — Large desirable rooms. Apply at this office, dl-1m —Furnished rooms to rent near the Capitol. Inquire at this office.
 —Miss E. Edwards is a candidate for Copying Clerk of the Assembly.
 —Rayercraft Bros. and Circe have a lot of new sleighs all ready for the snow storm.
 —When you desire a pleasant physic, try St. Patrick's Pills. For Sale by G. C. Thaxter
 —The only thing Washoe wants this year is no more sawdust in the Truckee, and the State Prison.
 —The Nevada Prohibitionist is still on deck and red hot for the cause of Temperance in all its phases.
 —E. L. Buckingham of Dayton is in the city. Buck is a candidate for Sargent at Arms of the Senate.
 —The woman who said the eclipse 'looked like a big photograph' described it more perfectly than anybody.
 —The Ladies' Relief Corps will meet this evening at 7.30 at Masonic Hall. Business of importance.
 —A falling barometer at Friend's and a cloudy sky are what the weather sharps base their next snow storm on.
 —Wanted—A hard-finished comfortable house with seven or eight rooms. Address this office, stating price and location. *tf.
 —The "recounts" so far made are pretty rough on the Democrats. They ought in the future to be known as "Snaptallyists."
 —Cagwin and Noteware are selling the new complete book-keeper for $1.75. Such elaborate books were never sold before at such a price.
 —Chamberlain's Eye and Skin Ointment is unequalled for old chronic sores. Many cases have been permanently cured by it. For Sale by G. C. Thaxter.
 —Over 5000 Louisiana lottery tickets were sold in this city last month. The Little Lottery is once more having the call over the big one.
 —The English holly, over which New Yorkers are so enthusiastic, is mainly imported from New Jersey. They call it imported and "English, you know," to make it sell.
 —California claims the right to name the new comet discovered by one of her smoked glass astronomers during the eclipse. All nonsense, over a dozen persons in this city noticed it early in the morning.
 —The news agency carriers say that this is the last time they will get out New Year addresses.
 The ancient and honorable custom of issuing carriers addresses was originally meant only for the carriers of home papers.
 —An Arizona exchange, in speaking of the death of a prominent citizen, says: "After a long and useful life this great and good man was cut off, surrounded by his weeping family, by a carbuncle on his neck. D—n a carbuncle anyway."
 —The Salt Lake Tribune in its New Years edition publishes a list of residents of Utah who are occupying cells in the penitentiary for adultery and unlawful cohabitation. We thought at first that it was the list of registered voters of Salt Lake precinct.
 —An Eastern writer, debating on the subject of newspaper misfits, says: "When newspapers are reduced in size to fit their editors and towns, blanket sheets will not be near so frequent. A seven-column newspaper, published in a five-column town, by a three-column editor, is enough to make the angels weep copiously."

 *dl5H CHATELAIN & GOLDEN.

Executive Pork.

Geo. Hark is now selling pork raised by Gov. Stevenson. The Governor is a great authority on hogs and his thoroughbred porkers are so fat that when killed the lard runs out of them in streams. The pork is all stall fed and when you go to Hark's, call for Gubernatorial pork and you will get the regular unvetted meat all counter-signed by the Private Secretary.

Deeply Interested.

For some days past Major John Dennis Meltzer and Refiner at the Mint has been very neglectful of his duties.
 He has spent his entire time pouring over a book, and at times he has been so infatuated with his reading that several pots of silver have boiled over and gone all over the floor.
 The expostulations of the Superintendent are of no avail. The Major says he has gotten hold of a book that contains more wonderful things than he ever heard of, and written in such a quaint diversified style that he was utterly unable to lay it down.
 The book although new to Dennis has been quite popular here for years.
 It was a Bible presented to him by his pastor Rev. Davis. Every day Dennis rushes into some of the other rooms and rehearses what he has read with great gusto. He told the story of Jonah and the whale the other evening to Joe Ryan and Major Garrard who pretended they had never heard it and listened with open-mouthed wonder.
 When they disputed the story Dennis wanted to bet money he could prove it.

The Insurance Trust.

The California papers are opening up the iniquities of the California Insurance trust. It is shown that they pay out about 37 per cent. for losses and pocket the balance. This sort of business is sheer robbery and the insurance rates in Nevada are even higher.
 Two years ago the Legislature attempted to regulate the matter but the insurance men combined and downed the bill.
 The Legislature this session ought to take in hand the regulation of this long-standing insurance robbery. Nevada has paid tribute long enough to California insurance companies and it is time to call a halt.

Miss French's Roll of Honor:
 Katie Ambrosetti, Uly Brale, Mattie Dority, Julien Guion, Nettie Lynch, Pearl David, Edith Jones, Mattie Johnson, Frank Ebner, Guy McDonald, Joe Smyth, Alfred Kaiser, Della Brule, Espie Grant, David Winters, Ivy Millard, Nettie Cain, Willie Muller, Forrest Hanford, Clara Trapp, Stella McDonald, Charlie Glanzmann, Elsie Cottrell, Willie Decker, Annie Ambrosetti, Anise Leport, Eddie Stubbs, Annie Glanzmann, Minnie Cain.

Biographic Charts.

The APPEAL is now engaged in compiling the regular Legislative chart of the 14th session.
 It will be complete in all its details as usual.
 The APPEAL has furnished the chart for many years past and until it has become recognized as standard authority on the subject.

Grismer-Davise.

"The World Against Her" will be produced at Carson Opera House January 10th. The New York Times says: "The World Against Her," at the People's Theatre, has scored a great success. Since the night of its production the theatre has been crowded." Box sheet now open.

Postponed.

The Wheelmen have postponed their dance from the 10th. to the 11th. as the Grismer-Davise company play on the 10th, and they realize that it is no use to contend against two such lights of the stage as the above mentioned.

Harrison doesn't seem to be worrying himself nearly so much over his Cabinet as some of the Democratic newspapers.
