The immense sale of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy has been produced to a great extent, by people who have been cured by it telling their friends and neighbors of its good qualities and urging them to try it.

The San Francisco Board of Supervisors elected on the "Reform" ticket is said to be the rottenest ever elected in the city.

A. C. Pratt of Genoa, is a candidate for Minute Clerk of the Senate. His fight is considered such a sure thing that there is no opposition.

Chamberlain's Eye and Skin Ointment is unequalled for old chronic sores. Many cases have been permanently cured by it. For Sale by G. C. Thaxter.

Charlie Mitchell has decided to leave the country without meeting Dempsey. He says he knows enough people in this country and has no desire to extend his acquaintance.

Dan Lyons has been elected "Father of the Political Club of Honolulu." He speaks Kanaka now and when he concludes his remarks the dusky audience fairly lift the roof off.

The admirers of McAuliffe claim that he was just recovering from a big spree when he was whipped by Jackson. We call the attention of the Prohibitionists to this little circumstance.

Toy Press: Mr. Blaine is the leading Republican in the country. His appointment as Secretary of State cannot fail to anger some Republicans. Refusal to appoint him would anger ten times as many.

MARRIED.—In San Francisco, Nov. 11, 1888, Albert D. Jaqua to Addie J. Browder. The bride is an Eastern lady, and the groom was at one time a resident of Carson. The APPEAL congratulates the happy couple.

Yesterday it was discovered that by some curious mistake one of the girders of the new Postoffice was eighteen inches too long. It is said that the girder was according to the government specifications and the fault lay with the architect.

The APPEAL's advice to the ladies looking for clerkships is to retain Black Wallace of Elko, to work their fight. Although not a man of extraordinary personal beauty, he has a weak spot for the fair sex and will break a caucus any time for a deserving woman.

Senators Stanford and Stewart are laboring with the members of the Senate Finance Committee to secure the insertion of a clause in the Tariff bill that will abolish the tax on brandy distilled from fruit. Thus far the committee has refused to grant the request.

PHYSIC.

During the session an endeavor will be made to secure the presence of Jackson the champion black pugilist, in this city.

Arrangements are being made for a glove contest between Jackson and Kinkade of this city.

Kinkade is a tall slim fellow who looks more like a ramrod than a boxer but his ability to land a 200 pound blow on a man's nose is well established in this city, while his skill as a boxer is acknowledged everywhere he has put on the gloves.

He works at the V. & T. shops and can lift as much as two men. Where he gets his great strength is a puzzle, his legs are like spindles and his arms seem nothing but skin and bones.

He boxed McDonald the Virginia heavy-weight a few weeks ago and with a right hander, knocked him senseless.

He is quick as lightning and Jackson contracts to knock him out in six rounds, for two thirds of the gate receipts.

Matt Brannan is matched to meet Joly Elliot for $250 each in thin gloves. Brannan is a very clever boxer and in fighting his blows are direct and telling.

Elliot is a professional, who whipped Edwards here two years ago, and is much larger than when here before. It will be a long fight if the two ever come together, with even backing.

Matian at Night: Some years ago Capt. John Mullan was authorized by the legislature to represent Nevada in Washington to act in the interest of the State in the matter of some debts due the State from the U. S. Government.

He was also authorized by the California legislature in the same way, but Governor Watterman wrote to the Secretary of the Treasury that he did not recognize Captain Mullan as the State's agent, and requested that the department refuse to receive or hear him in that capacity.

The Secretary of the Treasury has decided that Captain Mullan was duly authorized by the Legislature, and that it is not within the power of Governor Watterman to revoke the appointment or annul the contract.

Monthly Medal Shoot. To day the third competition for the elegant medals to be given to the Carson Guard sharpshooters will take place. Messrs. Galusha and Alley, and Avery and Heritage have each a claim upon the medals of their class, and should the weather prove favorable, there will be a large turnout to head the above gentlemen off.

He Got the Earth. The employes of Mackey's Telegraph Company gave John Mackey a silver globe on New Years day representing the earth girdled by Mackey's cable lines. This is a good joke on Jay Gould, who always wanted the earth himself.

Suicide of Frank Higgins. Frank J. Higgins, son of Thos. Higgins who used to be in the Mint, committed suicide last Thursday in Napa. He was left unattended in a room in the asylum and cut his throat with a pen knife.

The Japanese Emperor having reached the age of eighteen the government has provided him with two wives and a concubine. The world stands aghast at the official announcement, but after all perhaps Japan, which is one of the oldest dynasties of the earth, knows just about what it is doing, and is trying to bring the youth up within prescribed limits.

It might have been better for the world if its monarchs had all been restricted to two wives and one concubine. A European prince would kick the steps off the throne if he had the reins pulled on him like that.

L. W. Getchell formerly a member of the board of Regents of the State University, but at present Superintendent of mines in Austin, was seriously injured by a cave in a mine at that place a few days since. Mr. Getchell has recently been East on a visit, and while there went down in Maine, and organized a company to work a series of mines in Lander County.

The Genoa Version.

Under the head of "Scrapped Again" the Genoa Courier gives the following version of the foot race: "Last Monday several loads of Genoese went to Carson for the purpose of 'taking in' the foot race between Ed. Rooney, alias 'the wood-chopper,' and T. Swain, alias 'Johnson of California.'"

They took a long and substantial but unknown quantity of coarse gold and proposed to bring back a stake for New Years. By three o'clock in the afternoon the most of the money had been put up on Rooney, who rode down with the Genoa boys, and shortly after the race was run.

Rooney managed to start about a foot behind his opponent and maintained that position throughout the race. There was probably not a man on the track who did not know that Rooney had purposely permitted his opponent to win.

He probably received a large amount of boodle for doing so, but his Genoa friends lost their coin just the same. Verily, the white man is mighty uncertain! The Genoese swear that Rooney can beat Johnson fifty feet in a square race.

Change of Towel. With the first of the year the APPEAL was treated to a new office towel. The game little rag had served the office all through the trying year of 1888 and was at its post when the old year closed.

In all that time it absorbed the dirt of the composing room and the vandal hand of no Chinese laundryman ever handled it.

It was laid away in its little grave in the rear of the office on the first, and now it is gone forever. Farewell, old friend, farewell, thy work was for the good of all and thou never shirked thy duty.

The new towel of pure white was hung up behind the engine on Friday and the next morning the first type who saw it fainted dead away.

A Hinging Editorial. We can congratulate the people of this community upon the fact that the eagle of victory has perched upon the banner of prohibition.

The liquor traffic was a great curse to our people, especially when the saloonkeepers decided to withdraw their advertisements from our paper. There is one saloon, however, where it is a pleasure to drink. This is the magnificent emporium run by Col. John Gobbleton, who did such excellent work as an exhorter in the revival held at Gum Spring last fall.

This emporium is situated about two miles from town, and is beyond the reach of the law.—See advertisement.—Hickory Fork Sapling.

Grismer-Davies. Next week two of the most pains-taking people in the profession will appear at the Opera House—Joe Grismer and Phoebe Davies. The mention of these two people is alone sufficient to insure a full house.

The following dispatch speaks for itself:—To Geo. M. Smith Genoa, Nev. The General Freight Agent of the Southern Pacific Railroad Co. wishes me to inform you that the engine, etc., for Douglas County Artesian Well Co. is in wreck at Larnie—one axle front and steam pipe are broken and a few other timbers—and ask that you be interviewed and ascertain if they shall return engine to shippers for repairs. Answer quick.

N. A. Beldner. The machine was ordered returned to the shippers for repairs.

The latest literary fad is to write plays founded on the lives of noted historical reprobates. Amelia Reeves gave us "Herod," and not to be beaten Lew Wallace writes a new play called "Commodus" Commodus was a Roman Emperor who ravished his sister, beheaded a thousand men and cut the noses off a number of people under pretext of shaving them. He should have been called "Discommodus"
