

COIN TALKS.

The Democratic press is undergoing an attack of rabies over the elevation of John Wanamaker to the Cabinet.

No one has ever been able to truthfully assert that a man of Wanamaker's capacity is not entitled to a place in the Cabinet, but the Democratic newspapers are horrified at the idea that Wanamaker, contributed $50,000 to the campaign fund. Well suppose he did.

The papers insist that the money went to buy votes in Philadelphia. Well, suppose it did, does anyone suppose that the purchasing power of that $50,000 was any more than five times that of the $10,000 which Grover Cleveland contributed to the campaign fund on the other side?

Is any editor of a newspaper silly enough to suppose that the public is so green that it takes any stock in his virtuous howl against the use of coin in politics? We all know what a campaign fund is raised for. Twenty-five per cent. goes to the orators, the newspapers and the torchlight procession, and the balance goes to the purchase of voters at the polls.

The Democrats buy up the floating scallawags in the Republican party and the Republicans buy up the scallawags in the Democratic party and every man and woman in the country over twenty-one years of age, knows this fact without being told.

In the last Presidential election, the Republicans found a large purchasable element in the Democratic party and got to 'em. That's the long and short of it.

In 1884, the Democrats had the biggest sack and our crowd went under. The side that gets beat in politics likes to howl about the sack. It isn't the fact that the other side simply had a sack, but that the sack was bigger than the sack the defeated side had.

It is a nonsense for any one to attempt to shut ones eyes to the power of money in politics and it is growing more powerful every year.

Those who pretend to be outraged at the idea, deceive no one, by holding up their editorial hands in holy horror. To perdition with such hypocrisy.

The Actual Facts.

The Washoe people charge that the lottery advocates are trying to revenge themselves on Washoe, by keeping away all appropriations.

There is nothing in this, except that, the lines are being drawn just where they should have been drawn years ago. The University appropriation should be made, but it should come out of the proper fund and the $25,000 wanted by the State Fair should be carefully inquired into before it is appropriated.

In the APPEAL'S opinion, it should not be made at all. Let the real estate boomers who conducted the last State Fair transfer of real estate settle that bill themselves.

Washoe as a county has grabbed everything for some years past, and everything it manages, shows a deficiency.

The halt should be called not in the interest of the lottery people, but in the interest of the taxpayers of the State. Funds are low this year and we must cut cloth accordingly.

—There is a rumor that the present Grand Jury will be called upon to investigate another case somewhat similar to the Streeter case. The neighbors have talked about it for the past year or two, and the presence of several of them in town lends color to the rumor. There are several cases of supposed incest in this county, and parties who know or suspect the facts should take measures to either bring the culprits to justice or clear innocent persons from the suspicions that their neighbors now have against them.—Elko Free Press.

Several weeks ago the editor of the APPEAL purchased a number of tickets in various raffles, and not one of them have had a drawing. We want to see a drawing, or have our money back. Where are the police?
