The following is from the pen of Mr. L. P. Bardwell, editor of the THE MARION (Iowa) PILOT, will, we believe be of interest to many of our readers. He says: "It is with pleasure that I certify to the real merits of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. I have used it in my family for years and I have always found it most excellent, and especially for colds, croup and sore throat. It is safe and effective." For sale by G. C. Thaxter.

How Can Parents

allow their children to cough and strain and cough and calmly say: "Oh! its only a little cold," and keep giving them cheap and dangerous medicines, until they are down with lung fever or consumption, when they can be so easily relieved by BEGG'S CHERRY COUGH SYRUP? It has no superior and few equals. W. H. Chedic, Druggist.

Better than Ever.

It did seem as though the seedsmen outdid themselves last year in the line of elaborate catalogues, but here comes Vick's Floral Guide for 1889, from Rochester, N. Y., better than all previous issues. "Better" hardly expresses it—rather, we should say, far superior. It has been changed in every respect; new cuts, new type, enlarged in size (opening like an old-fashioned singing book); contains three elegant lithographs (8 x 10 1/2 inches) of Roses, Geraniums and Melon and Tomato; besides a very fine plate of the late James Vick and his three sons who now own and manage his large business. These features must make the Floral guide valuable to their many thousands of customers in this country.

We also notice that Vick returns to the plan started by the founder of the business years ago, of offering cash prizes at the State Fair. One would think they were a little out of their heads to offer to the public such a work as the Guide free, for that is what it amounts to, when they say it will be sent on receipt of fifteen cents, and that a certificate good for fifteen cents worth of seed will be returned with the Guide.

Cough! and Cough!! and Cough!!!

What in the world is the reason you will cough and keep coughing and still keep trying inferior medicines when BEGG'S CHERRY COUGH SYRUP will positively relieve your cough at once? This is no advertising scheme, but an actual fact, and we guarantee it. W. H. Chedic, Druggist.

A Pleasant Resort.

Members and Attaches of the Legislature and the other Winter sojourners at the Capital, can find no pleasanter place of resort for reading the latest papers and magazines and selecting popular books than at Cagwin and Noteware's corner store—diagonally opposite the B. & E. Bank on Carson street. Here can always be found a' sorts of plain and fancy stationery and general office supplies; besides an endless variety of novelties.

—Why is it that Judge Bigelow has retired from the pulpit so suddenly? There are many moral wrongs to be righted, and the Judge made such a lively beginning that he ought to keep it up. Never be weary in well doing.

MANDRAGGED.

Will Moger Badly Used Up in Sacramento.

Will Moger, the eldest son of Capt. Moger, formerly of this city, was roughly used in Sacramento last Sunday evening, as will be seen by the following from the Record-Union:

Sunday night, about half past ten o'clock, W. H. Moger, a young man and an employe of Strong & Co., was returning from the Sam Jones meeting at the Pavilion, and when opposite the Capitol at 11th and N, a man stepped from behind the large granite pillar and struck Moger a terrific blow in the face with a "sandbag." It knocked the young man to the ground senseless, and the garroter went through him, taking several dollars but leaving twenty cents in change. A Record-Union reporter saw the unfortunate man in his room last evening and found him in a pitiful condition. Both his eyes are swollen and blackened and his nose broken. He says he does not remember how he reached his room at all, and it will probably always be a mystery to him. "The secret of the whole business," said he, "is that I wore a plug lat for the first time, and never in my life will I wear one again." The garroter evidently took him for one of the Legislative "dandies" and thought he might get a couple of twenties.

What on Earth

Is the reason people will not, cannot, or do not see any difference in cheap nos trims put up by Cheap John houses or irresponsible parties at enormous profits, rather than take a medicine of world wide reputation and one that is giving universal satisfaction at equal price? No medicine in the world is giving such unparalleled satisfaction for purifying the blood as BEGG'S BLOOD PURIFIER & BLOOD MAKER, and every bottle that does not do its work, will cost you nothing. W. H. Chedic, Druggist.

The political murder of the Rep. John M. Clayton, in Arkansas, has drawn such wide-spread attention, that from the proportions of a State and sectional disgrace it has assumed the dimensions of a national reproach and shame. It was once an American boast that no man's safety was imperiled in this country because of political opinion, but what has become of our boasted freedom of speech, if any honorable and prominent man can be assassinated with impunity by political cut-throat opponents, because he happens to stand in the way of their party? The Legislature and the Governor of Arkansas have attempted to save the reputation of the State by offering rewards for the discovery of the murderers, but in the district where the crime was committed there was an apparent acquiescence in the infamous and bloody deed, for not a note of protest or indignation was heard from the people after the event. There is no prospect that the guilty parties will ever be brought to justice.

The Daily Report wakes up the subscribers of the Grant monument in San Francisco, and wants to know when they propose to pungle.

Probably when the Lick baths are built. When Grant was alive, and had official patronage at his disposal, he did not lack for friends to fawn on him; now his body moulders in the dust, and while the masses revere his memory, it is very hard to find anyone willing to put up shacks on it.

For the first time in the history of the world, if we are not mistaken, a Hebrew has achieved marked success in the ring. The pugilistic amateur who whipped Glover was a Jew from the Olympic Club. Glover is the man who came out from Chicago to meet McAniff, and was thrashed in twenty-seven rounds. The amateur whipped him in half the time, and never received a scratch.

Ruff, Shoemaker has started "The Evening Telegram" in Grass Valley. Any paper he starts is certain to be readable and entertaining. Ruff has a better way of stating plain facts than anyone we call to mind; it is pure wit and wisdom boiled down.
