It is now generally known that Ed. Smith the Deaver pugilist is the dark horse who is to do battle with Keogh, the Virginia scrapper. Keogh was out yesterday morning taking a ten mile spin through the snow. He claims to be in the pink of condition and fully prepared to meet a hard man. The fight will come off tonight and the winner expects to rake in $2,000, most of which will be taken in at the gate.

How Can Parents

allow their children to cough and strain and cough and calmly say: "Oh! its only a little cold." and keep giving them cheap and dangerous medicines, until they are down with lung fever or consumption, when they can be so easily relieved by BEGG'S CHERRY COUGH SYRUP? It has no superior and few equals. W. H. Chedic, Druggist.

THE EMPIRE SENSATION.

A Card From Mr. John McMartin.

To Editor of the Morning Appeal:—DEAR SIR:—I have before me your publication of Jan. 1 1890, which contains an item headed, "The Cowhide, in Empire," in same, my name has been brought into publicity. My reply will be brief and to the point.

On the evening of December 31st time about 7 o'clock, I sat in Bowley & Longabaugh's store reading, when the lady you mention came in and asked of Longabaugh for a pair of kid shoes. Before he had time to wait upon her, I heard the remark "McMartin, what have you been saying around town about me?" I looked up and replied, "I don't know that I ever mentioned your name." When she pulled from some secreted place, a riding whip, which I gave her no opportunity to use, in the sense which you publish; but I jumped up and grabbed her by the arms and demanded what the assault was for. Before going further I will mention those who were present, Mr. Bowley, Mr. Longabaugh, Mr. Barrett, and Mr. Botsford, mechanic at Morgan Mill. When I had her by the arms, Mr. Botsford and Mr. Bowley took hold of me and said to me, "do not hit a lady in our presence." I then asked what she accused me of and demanded her authority, which she would not give. I then told her that I would make her tell me and took her by the throat. She would not give her authority and Mr. Barrett told her she had better go home. Mr. Bowley took her away and I believe home.

With regard to my following them out and threatening to get even, I can state that Bowley left me in the store and I was there when he returned. With regard to the community applauding the plucky girl's action, I will say that it is now forty-eight hours since that time and I have failed to find one man, woman, boy or girl, lady or gentleman who has expressed any remark favorable to your lady in mention.

I will state that I have been known by the best families of this community for the past twelve years and have associated with the same, all of whom have offered me their assistance in this slanderous accusations. So if your 17-year-old brunette who was brought up in the town which your item says I was notified to leave, I will show her and her friends that I am still a resident and will remain to face any and all false accusations.

Jno. McMARTIN, Empire City, January 2.

Helen Blythe. Helen Blythe, as Edith Gordon, played effectually to the strongest emotions of her audience, and carried it with her like a unit down into the deep paths of her part, and again raising it to a spirit of intense sympathy with her exquisite joy in the union of her redeemed husband and lost child.—Richmond Wbigo.

What on Earth

Is the reason people will not, cannot, or do not see any difference in cheap nos trums put up by Cheap John houses or irresponsible parties at enormous profits, rather than take a medicine of world wide eputation and one that is giving universal satisfaction at equal price? No medicine in the world is giving such unparalleled satisfaction for purifying the blood as BEGG'S BLOOD PURIFIER & BLOOD MAKER, and every bottle that does not do its work, will cost you nothing. W. THE CATTLE QUESTION.

How the Storm is Cutting Off Feed.

Yesterday Tom Rickey received the following dispatch from his brother at Tooez:

"Snow fell seven inches last night and still blowing and drifting Am putting in all stock hanging round to feed, 'tis the only chance to save them. The bulk of outside stock is working below. If we have thaw in few days, all is well, if not, will be tough."

F. M. RICKEY.

He responded by ordering all the cattle fed, all they would eat. He is now feeding about 10,000 and has hay enough to feed double the amount. He stated that he had about 20,000 head of cattle in Humboldt and expected to lose nearly all of them in the present storm.

New York Dramatic Mirror

The finest of all the Holiday publications that have reached this office, is the Christmas number of the New York Dramatic Mirror. It is an illustrated number, and the art resources of the Mirror combine sparkle with cleanliness, as does its letter press. The leading actors and actresses of the world have contributed articles over their own signatures, and these contributions make a bouquet of Christmas flowers, which for perfume and beauty cannot be readily equalled anywhere.

It is pleasant to be able to commune with these old favorites of the footlights all at once, between the same covers.

In scanning the volume, for it is big enough to be called a volume, one can almost hear the rustle of skirts, see the flash of jewels in the boxes, tempered by the soft lights of the stage, and hear the "cling! cling!" of the bell when the big curtain begins to sink to the footlights. Tragedy, comedy, burlesque and opera, all flit through the number in a most enchanting way, and the whole would be an addition to any center table in the world.

A Turkey in a Lion's Belly.

A big California lion invaded the Index office on Tuesday night and got away with our Christmas turkey. The tracks of the critter were ten inches long. He entered by ripping boards off the back side of the house, which let in a ton or two of snow for us to shovel out. The noble bird and the sneaking lion must have had a helluver time, as the print-shop was a total wreck next morning; the stove was bung down in one corner and the intricate machinery of the press twisted out o kilter, to say nothing of the "pi" and feathers that lay round in distracting profusion.—Homer Index.

Language is hardly strong enough to express my admiration of the merits of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. It is the best remedy for croup and whooping cough I have ever used. During the past eighteen years I have tried nearly all the prominent cough medicines on the market but say, and with pleasure too, that Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is the best of all. THOMAS RHODES, Bakersfield, California, For sale by G. C. Thaxter.

Mr. W. H. Baldrige, druggist Escondido, California, says: Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is the best selling medicine I handle. In fact I sell more of it than all other cough medicines combined. Everyone who has used it speaks in glowing terms of its efficiency" For sale by G. C. Thaxter.

The fact has been abundantly proven that Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is the most prompt, most reliable and most successful medicine yet discovered for acute throat and lung diseases, such as coughs, colds and croup. For sale by G. C. Thaxter.
