There is a struggle for supremacy between the Bohemin Club of San Francisco and the Press Club. The Bohemin Club has been a thing of shreds and patches for years. There are about twenty-five men in it who really belong to it, but the balance are merely bankers, merchants, commissioned men and stock brokers, who pay so much a year to pass as actors, music composers, poets and journalists. The Bohemin part of it comprises about ten per cent of the membership. The new Press Club only admits that class that have a right to belong to a bona fide Bohemin Club and it is rapidly swelling its membership.

Funeral of R. J. Smith

The funeral of Robert J. Smith was conducted on Sunday afternoon from Odd Fellows' Hall. He was a member of the A. O. U. W. and the Miners' Union, and a delegation of miners came from the Comstock to pay their respects to the memory of the deceased.
The Episcopal burial service was read by Rev. Geo. R. Davis, who delivered an appropriate address, and the following named parties composed the choir: Mrs. Dorsey, organist; Miss Vallie French, Mrs. G. B. Davis and Mr. J. D. Torreyson.
There was a large procession following the remains to the grave. He leaves a wife and son to mourn his loss.

THE WAR PLAY OF THE CENTURY.—"Held by the Enemy," Mr. W. Gillett's notably successful American play, presented by the great New York cast and smoothness, which comes through long continued success, will be seen here June 27. Mr. Gillett's play has the advantage of being, not only a drama of great strength and absorbing interest, but to be abundantly supplied with comedy of a rare order of excellence. It is replete with novel devices, which and truth and symmetry to the representation, and amid the confusion and clamor of an engagement, the marvelous, mad gallop of horses furiously urged and the rumble and roar of distant cannonading, it is difficult to realize that it is but a picture exquisitely drawn and true to the life.

CHRONIC FAULT-FINDERS.—That class of persons known the world over as chronic fault-finders, will find a whole lot of good advice in this center shot from 'the Sprague Herald: "When a man gets married he is expected to quit fooling around other women; when he joins the church to quit working for the devil and when he casts his lot and business among people he is expected to give his time, energy and good will to that place and people, and this he should do or pack his duds and leave before he is booted and despised by all.

EVERYTHING FIXED.—First, the boatman whom Prescott Sawyer assaulted in such a cowardly and murderous manner the other night, is likely to die. He is in the hospital under guard of Sawyer and his friends, who will no doubt see that, if there should be any ante mortem statement, it will be such as will not interfere at all with the programme of Sawyer's acquittal. Sawyer made an outrageous attack upon the unfortunate man, and stabbed him more than once in the back as he was trying to escape. Yet it has already been thoroughly arranged that Sawyer shall go scot free.

CARD OF THANKS.—Mrs. Robert J. Smith desires to return her heartfelt thanks to the members of Ormsby Lodge No. 4, A. O. U. W., members of the Virginia miners' Union and neighbors and friends for kind attention and assistance during the late illness and funeral of her deceased husband. Such kind acts greatly assuage the feelings of grief in time of affliction.

WHAT ON EARTH.—Is the reason people will not, cannot, or do not see any difference in cheap nos trums put up by Cheap John houses or irresponsible parties at enormous profits, rather than take a medicine of world wide reputation and one that is giving universal satisfaction at equal price? No medicine in the world is giving such unparalleled satisfaction for purifying the blood as BEGG'S BLOOD PURIFIER & BLOOD MAKER, and every bottle that does not do its work, will cost you nothing.—W. H. Chedic Druggist.
