

The United States Official Investigation of baking powder, made under authority of Congress by the Chemical Division of the Department of Agriculture, Washington, D. C., recently completed, shows the Royal Baking Powder to be a cream of tarter powder of the highest quality, pure and wholesome, and superior to all others in strength leavening powder, and general usefulness. a29.

The Indian Case.—The case of the U. S. Government against Joe Buck the Indian who was accused of the murder of Mrs. Jack Blossom, a squaw, on the Western Shoshone reservation was called in the U. S. Supreme Court yesterday, Judge Knowles presiding, Judge Edwards for the defense and Judge Wetcher for the prosecution. The following gentlemen were impanelled as a jury: K. M. Krummes, D. M. Ryan, A. P. Squires, Frank Walker, S. H. Carpenson, John Wolmering, E. Praet, Joseph Platt, John Barrett, S. J. Becker, Stephen Conner, M. A. Teeney.

Considerable evidence was elicited but nothing of much interest. More material evidence may be brought out today but the general impression is that the Indian acted under a superstitious motive and was only living up to the religious belief existing in his tribe.

The Court adjourned until 10 o'clock this morning.

Mrs. Keyser's Funeral.—A long line of carriages followed the remains of the late Mrs. W. D. Keyser to their last resting place yesterday. The services were held at the family residence, Rev. Geo. R. Davis officiating, who made a few touching and appropriate remarks regarding the past life of the good wife and mother. The choir, consisting of Mrs. Dorsey, organist; Mrs. Wm. Crisler, Mrs. W. T. Hanford, Mrs. G. R. Davis, J. D. Torreyson and Harry Cobb, sang with touching power the Burial Anthem, "Nearer My God to Thee" and "I Would Not Live Away." The pall bearers were Mr. O. Roberts, Mr. Geo. Meyers, Mr. J. L. McDonald, Mr. A. H. Parker, Mr. G. C. Thaxter and Mr. C. N. Noteware.

A LONG LANE.—We shall have at the Carson Opera House Tuesday evening, July 15th, the great rural play of the times, the New York, Philadelphia, Chicago and San Francisco successes, "A Long Lane, or Pine Meadows," of which the critic of the New York Herald said: "The closing situations in the first and third acts are pure dramatic inspirations. I have seen few things more simple and uneffectively telling." It comes here with entire New York cast, scenery and stage appointments, including a flock of trained sheep which appear in the great farm scene. Among the people are Jupith Beroide, Lisette LeBaron, Ethel Barrington, Gracie Sherwood, Mrs. G. W. Jones, David Murray, Sedley Brown, R. F. Cotton, A. C. Deltwin, Alexander Kearney, David Mortimer and others.

ST. BERNARD DOGS.—The famous St. Bernard dogs are very carefully trained. A traveler who visited some of the monasteries of the monks of St. Bernard a few years ago found the monks teaching their dogs from the earliest stages of puppyhood. Not only is physical and mental training included in the training, but spiritual culture is by no means neglected. At meal times the dogs sit in a row, each with a tin dish before him containing his repast. Grace is said by one of the monks; the dogs sit motionless with bowed heads. Not one stirs until the last "amen" is spoken. If a frisky puppy partakes of his meal before grace is over an older dog growls and gently tugs his ear.

COWAN'S LIP.—Day before yesterday Will Cowan's upper lip began to swell, outgrowing his mustache about five to one, and yesterday was nearly abreast of it. Beds of four to one are offered that the mustache will be shut out, with no takers. The lip looks like it had been blown up with a quill. Cowan says he experiences no pain, and cannot account for the swelling, unless he made a mistake and smoked a firecracker on the 4th, for a cigarette. It was better last evening.

Jim Benton, while engaged in breaking a mustang yesterday morning, was deposited on the ground with a loud report, plowing up the earth with his face and otherwise mutilating the pleasing aspect of the country.

HOW CAN PARENTS—Allow their children to cough and calmly say: "Oh! its only a little cold," and keep giving them cheap medicines, until they are down with lung fever or consumption, when they can be so easily relieved by using BEGG'S CHERRY COUGH SYRUP? It has no superior and few equals. W. H. Chedie, Druggist.

COUGH! AND COUGH!
