Isaacstien: Haf a segar mine frient? Isador: I don't care. Isaacstien: All right, if you don't care, den I schmok him myself. How was business in Saind Louie? The above was read by John Kersey, who immediately rushed out of his office and bought half a dollar's worth of cigars to play the joke on his friends. The first man he struck was Will Cowan. Kersey did not give up on this, but tackled Judge Healey, who made no demonstration, but took the cigar and was profuse in his thanks. John tried it once more on Oliver Roberts but this time he was done up brown. Roberts reached for it, applied a match, snuffed the delicate odor and asked the demoralized wag if he had any more like it.
