Nevada raised stock when properly cared for beats the California production in flavor and quality. Gardner takes care of his own herd, and all meat coming from his market is bound to be tender and sweet.

Meat immediately after being slaughtered is never tender and should be kept a day or two. In order to have it fresh after the expired time it should be kept in a cool place. M. C. Gardner sells meat both tender and fresh, as it is always surrounded by ice at a freezing temperature.

HOW CAN PARENTS—allow their children to cough and calmly say: "Oh! its only a little cold," and keep giving them cheap medicines, until they are down with lung fever or consumption, when they can be so easily relieved by using BEGG'S CHERRY COUGH SYRUP? It has no superior and few equals. W. H. Chedie, Druggist

COUGH! AND COUGH! AND COUGH!—What in the world is the reason you will cough and keep coughing and still keep trying inferior medicines when BEGG'S CHERRY COUGH SYRUP will positively relieve your cough at once? This is no advertising scheme, but an actual fact, and we guarantee it. W. H. Chedie, Druggist.

ADVICE TO MOTHERS.—Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup should always be used for children teething. It soothes the child, softens the gums, allays the pain, cures wind colic and is the best remedy for diarrhoea. Twenty five cents a bottle.

The APPEAL received a pleasant call yesterday from G. T. Talbot, Republican nominee for District Judge. He is in this city mingling with the voters and gaining friends everywhere.

The California press is attacking the records of Markham and Pond. They denounce them both as patrons of coolie labor. This charge has been vamped up against every California candidate that ever showed his head, and as a political chestnut ought to be laid away. The worst of it is that both candidates are guilty in common with all their constituents.

A Card.

EDITOR APPEAL:—I see that my name was mentioned in your paper as Assistant Secretary of the Colored Republican Club.

I wish to state that they did not do me the courtesy to ask if I would accept the office before nominating me, and I therefore respectfully decline. While I am a straight Republican I do not wish to belong to any club. Yours Truly,

TONY FLINT-

Death of Ruben Wilcox.

Political Dance.

James Wiggins has kindly allowed the use of his commodious dancing hall in Empire for the purpose of holding a candidates dance on the night of the 31st., where ladies can well attend and enjoy the social disposition of office seekers just previous to election. The dance will not be of the old hoe-down order but a social gathering, regardless of politics that no one can afford to miss or deprive his best girl enjoying. Good music has been engaged as well the sumptuous feast which is to be prepared. "Come all ye candidates and be merry for on the 4th ye die."

THEY GET EVEN.

How the Friends of Miss Mettie Curry Remembered an Old Joke.

Fifteen years ago last Wednesday evening Miss Mettie Curry (who is the feminine Theodore Hook of Nevada) sent a number of wedding invitations to her particular friends, as a jolly lark.

Her friends came to the house to hear that they had been cleverly taken in and done for.

Wednesday evening they got even by gathering at her house and giving her a crystal wedding. The company were there in full force by 7:30, and the guests numbered about fifty.

When she entered the house, (having previously been enticed from her home by the usual devices), she met the faces of her friends and a blaze of light.

Miss Curry is remarkably quick witted, and when she saw the crowd she knew at once that most of them were the same people she had fooled fifteen years ago, and she took in the situation.

A shout of laughter went up when she said that she had been looking all over town for her husband and couldn't find him.

"It's a fact," she continued, "been looking for him for over twenty years."

She was then shown the array of beautiful presents that had been brought by her friends, and they embraced about every variety of crystal wedding gifts ever given to anybody.

WEDDING GIFTS.

One dozen cut glass goblets, Frank McCullough

Four dozen glass bottles (filled with wine,) John I. Sablin President Pacific Phonograph Co., San Francisco.

Bottle of Perfume, and horn of plenty, Dr. Lee and wife.

Candlestick (to hunt burglars) Miss Ollie Bray.

Inkstand (to answer proposals) Rev. J. Fred Holmes.

Smelling bottles (in case of fainting from too sudden proposals) Miss Mamie Ballard.

Umbrella (you paddle it yourself) E. B. Rail and wife.

Glass slipper (just in) Miss Helen Martia.

Glass slipper (for domestic correction) Miss Ella Bender.

Glass of wine (for a night-cap) inscribed on two ribbons "Another Smile" and "Wink Of Your Eye" Mrs. E. B. Yerington.

Box of handkerchiefs ("Whence these tears?") Mrs. Bacon, San Francisco.

Nursing bottle, Will Cowing. [Put him out!—Ed]

Bag of marbles (Reno marble quarry) Miss Annie Martin.

Pair of spectacles (to search for prospective groom) Miss Clara Wasson.

Glass bottles, one dozen (holding sample of Weiland's beer) and scores of other appropriate gifts, which this journal lacks space to publish.

SPEECH BY MISS CURRY.

The lady was called upon for a few remarks, which the APPEAL reporter got about as follows:

Kind friends—I understand that this is the fifteenth anniversary of my wedding.

For one who never had the good fortune to be married, I feel that this is piling it on rather thick.

While not married, I beg leave to state that I came very near it over a dozen times.

I will not mention the names of the people who came very near being my husband, but I could if I wanted to.

Many of the splendid men who were in love with me in early days—at least I had every reason to believe they were—are still in this city, the heads of large families and doing well.

In fact, several of them are here, and if their wives were not present I would talk more freely.

Quite a lot of people who wanted to marry me, or at least acted as if they wanted to, got married, but they seemed as a rule to drift off and marry someone else.

One of them married my sister, and as I have said before, several of them married ladies who are right here in this room.

Of course, a good many of them felt sorry they did as they did,

but I suppose it's too late now.

I hope before another year to see you all again, celebrating my real wedding if possible.

Of course, it may not occur, but if it don't it will be no fault of mine, I assure you.

Any man of good moral character and a sufficient income can open negotiations with me, and if his income is sufficiently large I won't be so awful particular about the character of the church he belongs to.

The lady was interrupted by frequent laughter and applause during her informal talk, which really contained more points and happy sallies than the reporter was able to catch.

The company, after their jolly lark, dispersed at a late hour.

In With Us.

EDITOR APPEAL: I have read with great pleasure your article on the way the Agricultural Fairs in this State are run by the California horsemen.

The California horsemen do not let us run their fairs, not by a blame sight.

When "Our Dick" Senator Williams' fast pacer trotted at Marysville he was all right, but as soon as the other fairs found out how speedy he was, they ruled him out because he was not "raised in the District."

They never allow fast Nevada horses to compete down there unless they have something faster.

We have been badly taken in by California for some time, and as long as you show these robbing schemers up, you can count me and all other horsemen in with the proposition. I hope you keep it up.

Yours,

HORSEMAN.
