Perhaps you never have been told How wind can be exchanged for gold; 'Twas done the finest that you ever saw When Thomas Fitch to Stanford leased his Jaw.
Credit is due for "Legislative gains."

Grover Cleveland waxes hilarious over the Congressional Democratic gains. The Democratic gains always come in the wrong year for Democratic Presidential nominees.

It is reported that the man who drew the $1,250 on a two-bit ticket in the Little Louisiana, in Carson last month, is a hard working man, and one that will make good use of his money.

It is announced at Washington that the President has decided not to make public the appointment of a successor to the late Justice Miller until in December at the convening of Congress.

After reading Ward McAllister's book on how he found society, a good many people who have been breaking their necks to get into the fashionable swim, have now reached the conclusion that they are getting along well enough where they are.

Truckee seems to be the most unfortunate town on the coast in the frequency of its fires. It has been burned almost completely three times, while its smaller fires are innumerable. The school house has been burnt down and rebuilt four times within the year.

The Chronicle talks of contest-ing Bartine's seat on the grounds that votes were purchased for him in Virginia City. It is said that on election day Mr. Cassidy learning that someone was spending money for him buying votes, went off and wept like a child, to think that such things happened in his county.

John P. Jones will be the next U. S. Senator from Nevada, and Leland Stanford will succeed himself from California. Stanford is regarded as a great man in California, but if he ever got into a debate with Jones he would be too small to count. With all the vast resources of the muchly over-puffed California, she does not seem able to produce potatoes that are not watery, or a public man who can compete with the mental products of Nevada.

Governor Hill of New York has got a deserved dressing down from Secretary Noble. Hill is a great deal more of a politician than a statesman and more of a demagogue than either. He has stood in with the worst element in New York city to get a recount under circumstances which would give the slums of Gotham an advantage of about 10 or 15 per cent in enumeration over all other districts of the Union. Secretary Noble has wit enough to see his game and properly rebukes him for playing the ward politician in the Gubernatorial chair.

THE TOMAHAWK IN LANDER.

The Acting Governor Called on for Arms and Amunition.

The following was received by Acting Governor yesterday morning:

AUSTIN, November 7.

To GOVERNOR BELL:—Reliable letters received from Ione and other points asking for arms and amunition. Everything indicates Indian outbreak. We have no arms here. Send them assistance immediately. J. A. MILLER.

AUSTIN, November 7.

Send us guns and amunition.
Indians are troublesome at the head of Reese River. Some families came into Austin for safety.

J. R. WILLIAMSON.

The arms and amunition went out on the evening train, and when they reach their destination the citizens will probably be able cope with the savages.

A Bad Thing to Parade.

The Santa Cruz Sentinel has again been tempted; but has not yet fallen. Wicked capitalists and designing politicians are constan-ly trying to undermine the Sentin-el's virtue, but the chastity of the journalistic virgin is always preserved. We know this to be the case, because the Sentinel says so.
It publishes the interesting fact that it has passed through the campaign unscathed, although wicked men and time again knelt at its feet and poured gold into its lap. We suggest that the Sentinel change its name to the Vestal.—Daily Report.

The newspaper which constantly makes a dress parade of its virtue is seldom credited with having any.

Mackey Gets His Prize Bull.

Mr. Will U. Mackey received his Holstein bull yesterday and presented it to Mr. Bath, a strong Democrat.

When the green fields of Mr.
Bath's ranch are covered with Holstein cattle, wearing polka dot spots, it will be a pleasant sight to see.

When the bull saw the tall figure of Mr. Mackey coming up the lane yesterday, he realized at once he was wanted, and bidding his relatives good bye walked to meet his new owner.

A Strange Cattle Disease.

In the Eastern part of the State there is a strange cattle disease prevailing which is proving very fatal to the stock in Lander county.
Milo Slaven says that a steer not seemingly affected will die of the disease in an hour after being taken with it. Mr. Slaven has lost a number of his stock by this disease, but is unable to tell what the disease is. In the locality where he lives they call it black tongue. After death the eyes bulge out and the tongue becomes black.

Fatal Accident.

On the 29th of October, E. W.
Beannets, a wealthy rancher of Mason Valley, was thrown from a wagon, and the wheel passing over him he lay several hours in the road, unable to move, and in great agony. A gentleman who was passing picked him up and took him home, where he died on the 31st from severe internal injuries.

DIED.

HODKINS.—In Oakland, November 2, 1890, Mary, beloved wife of M. W. Hodkins, and mother of Louis and Edwin Hodkins and Mrs. C. W. Pangborn, a native of New York, aged 55 years and 3 months.

Mrs. Hodkins formerly resided in this city, Mr. Hodkins being in the glove business.

Election Returns.

AUSTIN, Nov. 6.—Lander county gives Colcord 9 majority, Pougade 46, Bartine 31. One small precinct to hear from.

WINNEMUCCA, Nov. 6.—Cassidy 185, Winters 126. Six small precincts to hear from, but no important change will be made.

"Please be Seated Mr. Cassidy."

Mr. Cassidy should be seated and he will be.—Chronicle.
He is seated. He sat down last Tuesday and if not still down he will please set down at once.

ters.

A Political Lottery.

The Judges of the Supreme Court of Idaho qualified last Monday and drew lots for long and short terms. Hon. I. N. Sullivan drew the two-year term, thereby becoming the Chief Justice. Judge Huston will serve four years and Judge Morgan six years.

heard from for ten years, will be duly rewarded for their trouble

Porter of the Senate.

Michael Davis, the colored boot black, announces that he is a candidate for Porter of the Senate.
Mr. Davis is a clean-cut Republican, who worked like a beaver on election day, and is liable to win if his family name don't beat him.

A clean butcher shop goes far towards keeping the meat fresh.
Flies will not gather where things are clean. M. C. Gardner, Jr., has just such a market, where the finest lamb, beef, mutton, pork, sausage, etc., can be secured at any time. ntf

As the seasons change, so does the quality of meats. M. C. Gardner has prepared his stock for such changes, and young beef, well fed and cared for during the previous seasons, is the only kind he slaughters.

The Castle Gate Coal Company which Mrs. Lieutenant Governor Davis represents in this State, supplies the best coal in the American market. It is much superior to wood for heating purposes, and equally as cheap. Parties wishing coal will do well to give her an order. o26w
