

HALLOCK'S FAREWELL.

Ex-State Controller Hallock who served twelve years continuously in office; concludes his reports as follows:

"To my friends throughout the State I am deeply grateful for their trust through which I have been so long continued in this honorable position, I will retire from public service with hope intent to merit and retain their priceless friendship, unabated in any position in which circumstances may place me.

"To my enemies made in the performance of my duties, I am also indebted for the distinctive character developed in antagonism; and if they are not entitled to thanks, they are at least deserving of mention. They unwittingly served me, and I hope for a continuation of the service. I have no desire for a change in our relations. They occupy a niche in the gallery of fame for which nature especially fitted them, and I would not displace them and thereby transgress a law of manifest destiny, but will leave them to wrestle with fate, and may the Lord have mercy on their souls."

It will strike the average readers that such language as the above is entirely out of place in a State paper. The citizens of Nevada want merely a Controller report from Mr Hallock and when he has finished his report he should figure out his balances and not discuss the past with friends or enemies.

If he wishes to indulge in sarcasm he should publish a card in some newspaper at regular advertising rates.

COAST NEWS.

John Tyler, a well-known sporting man, dropped dead in the streets at Spokane Falls Wednesday. He was only a few weeks from Grass Valley, Cal.

A gang of burglars is operating at Marysville. So far the thieves have received nothing valuable for their hard and dangerous work in getting into houses.

The Phoenix A. T. Herald says: The old line traps that the Prescott Legislatures used were hauled to Phoenix at a cost of $2,000. Last fall the whole lot sold for $35.

In the will of Judge Keyser, who died at Marysville, is a clause giving Mrs Ida Lee of Yuba City $10,000 for her kindness and attention during a long and dangerous illness.

"Pat" Beckley of Oakland, Cal., has entered suit for $50,000 against the Southern Pacific Company for damages received at the Point Labash accident of last November.

An unknown man, thirty-five years of age, 5 feet 7 inches tall, with light hair and complexion, a small, light-colored mustache, and slightly bald, deliberately placed his head on the rail in front of a freight train at Lakeview just outside Tacoma, and was decapitated. There was nothing on his person by which he could be identified.

Pure Cussedness.

The State Controller's annual report is at hand. It came with the compliments of the new Controller, and the envelope is branded with a rubber stamp. Surely it is not economy that incites the Controller to the use of this abomination, for the State printing office is at his command—free gratis for nothing and without cost. It must be pure cussedness.—W. L. Bulletin.

A father can give his son no better present than a year's reading of the Scientific American. Its contents will lead the young mind in the path of thought, and if he treads there awhile, he'll forget frivolities and be of some account and if he has an inventive or mechanical turn of mind, this paper will afford him more entertainment, as well as useful information, than he can obtain elsewhere.
