

LOOK UP YOUR CLAIMS.

Several months have passed since the various newspapers of the State, who published the Republican platform and ticket, sent their bills for advertising to the State Central Committee.

We have yet to hear of a paper which has yet been paid in full, and some have not to date received a single cent for their work. This is on a par with the way the newspapers of the State have been gouged by the Committee for years past.

While thousands can be raised and spent each campaign for corruption purposes, the legitimate bills of the regular party organs are systematically ignored.

The APPEAL is informed that considerable money in the last campaign was given to Democratic journals not to oppose the Republican ticket, and they got their pay in advance. The Republican papers who labored during the entire campaign, don't get their pay in advance and some times don't get it at all.

The Executive Committee of the Nevada Press Association has had the matter under consideration and it has been decided that suit be brought to compel the payment of these bills. The suit will be brought against the officers of the Committee in Virginia City. All publishers having claims against the Republican State Central Committee will please forward the same to this office, and they will be placed in the hands of a first class lawyer and suit begun.

If we can't recover the money due, we may be able to ascertain where some of it went to and also demonstrate the fact that the State Central Committee is not a responsible party, when it makes advertising contracts.

Although the male writers of the San Francisco papers, poked considerable good natured fun at the Woman's Press Association. It still remains a fact, however that no writer at present on the Pacific Coast, has ever written a poem with such a wide spread fame as "Curfew shall not Ring to-night".

It was written by a member of the Women's Press Association. Every time one hears a school girl get up and recite it one regrets its birth, and the second time you begin to regret your own. It is one of the most famous poems of the language however, and the only poor thing about it is the way it is murdered in recitation.

Lieutenant R. M. G. Brown of West Virginia, has just been presented with a sword by the legislature of his State. He is the man who by his brains and promptness saved from destruction the U. S. flag ship Trenton at Samoa along with 450 lives. Had he been in the navy of any European power, immediate promotion would have followed his brave, thoughtful act, but only being in the American navy and having no relatives with a pull, he is still a Lieutenant.

As a sample of the new style of spring joke—with an automatic self explanatory attachment warranted with each packet—we submit the following from the San Francisco Chronicle:

A French chemist has just discovered tin in silk. This is not surprising from one point of the view, seeing how much "tin"—to use an old slang term for coin—has gone into the purchases of silk for the arraying of women.

The people of Truckee are quite incensed against the President for deciding not to come through Truckee when he visits California. The Republican has opened up against him, and it is feared that the President may be scared away from the Coast entirely.

Recently in Brooklyn a man offered to pay $1000 to charity if any spirit medium would read the contents of a sealed letter written by him. Madam Martin read every word of the letter under the condition prescribed and the money was paid over.
