

THE WAR IN CHILE.

The dispatches tell of hot fighting near Valparaiso and the Insurgents with only 7,000 men have decidedly bested Balmaceda's army of 13,000.

A FERTILE LAND.

The Elko Independent says: "Myron Pixley, who owns a fine ranch in Lamaille Valley, informed the Independent yesterday that he was cutting his second crop of alfalfa for the season, and that it would average at least two tons to the acre."

Contempt of Court.

The Supreme Court of Montana has vindicated the right of a newspaper to publish the news. Judge McHatton of Butte recently ordered Editor J. A. Macknight of the Helena Journal to appear before him for publishing in a gossipy article the words of "An Old Montanian," to the effect that the Davis will contestants could not get an impartial trial before any Judge or jury in Butte, where the vast estate lies, and from which it would be removed if the contest is successful.
