No one can deny the fact that there was considerable wind and tongue at the Irrigation Convention. The APPEAL would like to hear less talk about irrigation and more actual wetting of the soil with water.

The other night the boys of the Stanford University found a flat car near the institute of learning and unsetting the brakes sent the car down the grade to San Jose. When Senator Stanford heard of it his profanity was said to be something awful.

The Chronicle and Examiner reach Reno the night of the day of publication, are sent over the Gieger grade to Virginia City and reach Carson two hours in advance of the regular mail. Johnny Wanamaker had better wake up and allow Uncle Sam to get on to some of this quick work.

Countess Uncertainty has decided never to wear tights again. It requires firm resolution for a woman to sacrifice half her charms to the exacting demands of London society. But never mind Belle, you can expose enough of the upper half of your body to make up for all you lose by draping your legs.

Tim Nolan has himself to thank in a measure for not inheriting Mrs. Hopkins millions. She tried to teach him lessons of economy but he went right ahead squandering millions against her protest. He managed to inherit the Hopkins name but not the Hopkins money. During the life of Mrs. Hopkins he was quite willing to take her money but refused her advice.

Shot While Asleep.

Yesterday morning when the west-bound overland train arrived at Wells, Elko county, a passenger named Parker J. Ashford, who was on his way to San Francisco, was discovered in his berth in the sleeping car with a bullet hole in his back near his spine. He was conscious, but could give no account of the shooting and did not know how it occurred. A pistol was found in the bed with one of the chambers empty. His wife accompanied him and they left at Wells, where he was placed under the care of a physician.—Journal.

Queer Work.

There is a queer triangular row going on between Mr. Dodd, an optician, the News and the Tribune. Yesterday the News charged the Tribune with lacing it to abuse Dodd in order that the latter paper might make some money out of him publishing cards.

The programme seems to have been carried out according to agreement. The News abused Dodd and he was induced to publish a card in the Tribune. The funny part of the transaction is that the News now gives the whole thing away.

Now if these papers will keep on quarrelling until they each tell how much the other gets for keeping quiet on the rape case, the community will be further enlightened, and their falling out may enable honest men to get their dues.

PACIFIC COAST NEWS.

Richard White, a compositor on the Nevada City Transcript, was seriously injured by the bursting of a gun while hunting Sunday.

A gang of thirteen smugglers was captured at San Juan Island Saturday by the cutter Wolcott. They have done an extensive business on Puget Sound.

Albert and J. F. Roberts, two brothers living near the scene of the recent train wreck near Colfax, have been arrested for being concerned in the wrecking.

Charles E. Fegan climbed into a fruit tree at Selma Fresno county, and then cut his throat with a razor. He had been employed on the ranch of William Aull.

The body of Captain C. H. Marsten who wandered away from his home at San Diego about six weeks ago, was found in Sycamore Canyon, ten miles from San Diego Saturday.

The Codlin moth has done great injury to the Oregon apple crop. How to force orchardists to spray their trees to check the spread of disease is a serious question with the State Board of Horticulture.

A Fresno physician is recommending eucalyptus tea, made by boiling the leaves, to all his patients who are suffering from malaria troubles, and the discovery is thought to be quite an important one.

Jackson Rhoads, who killed David E. Sholla, a school teacher at Cuffy's Cove, Mendocino county, last May, because Sholla was in the company of a young lady who had refused the attentions of Rhoads, has been found guilty of murder in the first degree.

Walter Law of the firm of W. & J. Sloane of New York City, has presented $1000 to the Lick Observatory for the purpose of publishing a series of enlarged heliogravure plates of the moon made from the photographs taken with the great telescope.

The strike in the Gilman coal mines, King county, Wash., which was inaugurated last March has been declared off at a meeting of the strikers. The company has announced that all men who gave satisfaction before the strike, will be taken back. The agitators, however, will be barred.

Popular and Unpopular.

Jack Dempsey, the pugilist, is very popular, and Fitzsimmons, the pugilist, is very unpopular among the sports. But Dempsey has not a cent beyond what he made by last night's entertainment, and he very soon will not have a cent of even that money left unless he change his habit of giving away money. He gives to all who ask him, and is as likely as not to present $5 to a man who has asked him for a loan of only fifty cents. That is why he is popular and why he is poor. Fitzsimmons, on the other hand, takes care of his hard earned money and so has a well furnished $10,000 house in this city, money in bank and a business that pays, but he is unpopular. Unless a young man who has his own way to make in this world be exceedingly clever and shrewd, he must make up his mind to be popular and poor or comparatively unpopular and well to do. It may be remarked here that they are not always generous, "good-hearted" people who give away money freely. More often they are vain people who thirst for approbation and applause, and must have it even if they have to impoverish themselves to get it.—San Francisco Report.

We used to know a man in Gold Hill who spent $20 a day among the boys for whiskey to make himself popular. He is now rustling for the necessities of life and the men he used to flood with liquor don't even recognize him on the street.

Having secured the services of the well known Carson shoemaker Mr. E. F. Morton, we are prepared to do all custom work and repairing at short notice, and in a first class manner. Jason S. Burlingame.

The Chicago Fair.

Are you going to the World's Fair? Everybody is going if able. And now everybody is able, because an incorporation has been formed in Chicago, composed of the leading citizens and most responsible men there, and they offer the most enticing inducements at the cheapest possible rates.

They sell a ticket for $131, that absolutely covers everything, on the installment plan. This certificate entitles the holder to first class transportation to and from Chicago from Carson during the Fair, transportation to and from depot and hotels for self and baggage, six admissions to the Fair with your lunch on the grounds, fourth, first class board and lodging for six days in their own commodious hotels and lastly their competent guides will see that all holders are shown around and miss nothing. Think of the crowded condition of Chicago during the fair and then of the ease and comfort of this method.

Only $131 for everything and that as follows: $6 down at time of signing contract, balance in equal monthly installments from time of signing till April 1st, 1893.

It is a good bank company as holders may have their money back at any time, less the first six for expenses, etc. Certificates are transferable and a non-forfeitable.

If you are interested get and read one of the small hand circulars. Agent in Carson

P. V. MICHIELS,

Corporations.

The Record-Union publishes an article on the unpopularity of corporations, and holds that the lack of personality makes a good deal of the trouble.

This is exactly it. For instance when the reporter of a paper calls on a railroad President to ask if he wouldn't be just the man to run for Governor in response to a general call from the masses, he finds the President of the road bland and smiling, but next day, when a man calls on the President of the road to ascertain what the road proposes to do about the running over of his favorite cow, the aforesaid President says:

"That's a matter between yourself and the company. Go and see the company."

Colonel J. W.

A well known citizen of Reno, who on certain occasions in judges too freely in the flung bowl, and who for short the Gaze to will on Colonel J. W., spent the early morning of Saturday visiting the many saloons in town until he became lauded to the guards, when a couple of his friends took him home. His good wife saw the trio coming up the street, when she said to the children: "Law me! There comes Colonel Pa up the street leading two men." One of the little Colonels, of an inquiring turn of mind, said: "Ma, are we all Colonels?" And was sharply answered by the good woman: "No, you num-skull, only your pa and I." By that time the old Colonel had got to the gate and was wrestling with the front door.—Gazette.

Don't think glasses are only for old people; it is a great mistake. A glass becomes to the overburdened muscles of the eye as much of a necessity as food to the empty stomach or cane to him who has not the full power of his legs. If you have trouble with your eyes see Dallas Dodd and have a pair of glasses accurately adjusted. Difficult cases solicited from those who have failed to secure satisfaction elsewhere. Office at Ormsby House parlors. All work guaranteed to give satisfaction or money refunded.

That the fourteenth amendment to the constitution is respected in Bodie, says the miner. It is evident by the fact that a white man, a Chinaman and an Indian were playing cards together the other day.

There is no Secret

About your buying shoes to advantage. You may not know any more about the quality of leather than you do about a lost comet but that is no reason why you should get "stuck." Either you get your money's worth or you don't and if you don't it is your own fault. We are in the shoe business because we happen to know something about shoes and leather. It is "bread and butter" to us, therefore we make it a STUDY. Of the knowledge you get as much benefit as though you possessed it yourself for we place it entirely in your disposal and if you think that other houses can quote lower prices than we do, come and look at the goods and and prices. We will put our time against yours and we feel confident that the result will be a mutual benefit.
